VOL. LI—NO. 32. CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, JANUARY 4, 1913. $1.00 PER ANNUM

NATIONAL & STATE BANKS

ONE of the most vital and important regulations of the National Banking Law is that which controls what is known as the "LEGAL RESERVE." It requires that 15 PER CENT. OF ALL DEPOSITS shall be kept in the vaults of National Banks or in the hands of approved reserve agents.

The following statement of the deposits of three banks of Chestertown shows what reserves these banks held at the time of their last sworn statement, November 26th, 1912:

	Deposits.	15 % Reserve.	Reserve Held.	Per Cent.
Third National	$668,397.18	$100,259.57	$118,079.44 over	17½ %
Chestertown Bank	413,947.13	62,092.10	38,868.74	9½ %
Kent Savings "	356,097.42	53,414.61	10,627.97	3 %

After reading the SWORN STATEMENTS published last week, and the above exhibit which do you think is the STRONGEST and SAFEST bank in which to transact your banking business? The THIRD NATIONAL BANK cannot make as much money for its stockholders by adopting the policy of keeping on hand such a large RESERVE, but we KNOW it is better banking. Over $100,000 on hand with which to meet immediate demands. Think of the above while doing your banking. Your business solicited. Interest paid on all Savings Deposits.

Very respectfully,

THE THIRD NATIONAL BANK

of Chestertown, Md.

After driving Detroiter 3500 miles over all sorts of roads, I recommend it to any one desiring the purchase of an Automobile. It is by far the leading $900 car in America to-day—possessing features only found on $1200 to $1500 machines. After using machines for 5 years, I am in a position to know when I see a dependable, desirable car, and the "Detroiter" is just that car. You get an Automobile in quality, style and motoring qualities when you get a "Detroiter."

OUR DEATH RECORD.

MR. WILLIAM H. BLAKENEY.

Mr. William H. Blakeney, one of our oldest and most highly esteemed citizens died at his home at two o'clock on New Year's morning after a long and patient illness, aged 75 years. The deceased was born in Baltimore county, and came to Chestertown when quite young to engage in his trade as a carriage painter, having been in the employ of Chapman & Lambert for years, and also of Davis & Satterfield and Henry S. DeFord. He was an adept at his trade and had few superiors in the business. He was also for a number of years bailiff to the grand jury. He was a man of profound piety, and was always a close student of the Bible. He was an active member of Christ M. P. Church for years, and through the influence of his life and the inspiration of his powerful prayers, many people have been brought into the Kingdom of Christ. Mr. Blakeney had been a great sufferer but his great faith and his beautiful submission to the will of his Father, made him a patient sufferer, and truly we may say that a good man has gone from among us. He leaves a widow, who deserves a crown for her devotion and loyalty through months of devoted service to the one she loved so well. He also leaves three sons, Wm., Fred, of Baltimore, and Harry, of Detroit. He was also a relative of former Congressman A. A. Blakeney, of Baltimore county. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from his late residence conducted by Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham. Interment was made in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. James W. Lambert, Wm. Vansant, John W. Hirons, John H. Greenwood, Jas. W. Chapman and Fred G. Usilton. Undertaker Chas. L. Dodd had charge of funeral arrangements.

MRS. MARY ETTA SUTTON.

Mrs. Mary Etta Sutton, widow of the late Thomas Sutton, died at the home of her son, Mr. William C. Sutton, on Cannon street, on Tuesday evening at five o'clock, aged 68 years. The deceased was before marriage a Miss Birch, of this county. For years Mrs. Sutton had lived in Chestertown, honored and esteemed by all who knew her, and was a faithful and devoted member of Christ M. P. Church, whose services she attended regularly when her health would permit. She had been in failing health for some time, but had borne her sufferings patiently, receiving all the while the devoted and loving attention of her children and family. She leaves three children—Mr. William C. Sutton, Mrs. William L. Fowler and Miss Nettie Sutton, also one sister, Mrs. Alexander Crew, of this town. Funeral services were held yesterday morning at ten o'clock from her late residence, conducted by Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham. Interment was made in Chester Cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. William Roberson, William Vansant, James W. Lambert, Charles S. Smith, Frank H. Howard and William A. Wheatley. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MR. THOMAS B. TREW.

Mr. Thomas B. Trew, one of the most widely known retired farmers in Quaker Neck, died at his home in Pomona on Wednesday, aged 75 years. Mr. Trew had been in failing health for some years, and his death occurred on the anniversary of his birth. He leaves a widow. He was a brother of Mr. Bartus Trew and also of Mrs. James H. Baker, of near Pomona. Funeral services were held from his late residence yesterday afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. M. McCann. Interment was made in the family burying ground on the estate of his brother, Mr. Bartus Trew. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Bartus, Walter S. and Thomas W. Trew, and C. C., Henry and [illegible] Brown. Undertaker J. E Fergus[illegible] charge of the funeral arrangemen[illegible]

MRS. NANNIE EMORY.

Mrs. Nannie Emory widow of the late Steward Emory, of this county, died in Philadelphia Friday, Dec. 26, 1912, at the home of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Steward R. Emory, aged 80 years. Before marriage she was a Miss Comegys, daughter of the late John Comegys, and sister of the late Nathaniel Comegys, of the upper part of this county. The deceased is survived by one daughter, Miss Katie and two sons, Comegys Emory, of New York, and William Emory, of Philadelphia. Her remains were placed in a receiving vault in Laurel Hill cemetery, Philadelphia. They will be removed and buried at Shrewsbury, this county, in the spring. Possessed of a sweet and loving nature she had endeared herself to a large circle of devoted relatives and friends in this county and in Philadelphia. Messrs. Spencer and John Comegys are nephews.

REV. EDWARD L. BRADY.

Rev. Edward L. Brady, aged 60 years, a priest of the Wilmington Diocese, dropped dead Sunday afternoon at St. Paul's Catholic Church, Delaware City, Del., just after holding services. Heart trouble was the cause. While leaving the church by a side entrance he fell on the steps, and died in five minutes. He was buried from St. Peter's Cathedral in Wilmington, Del., on Thursday morning. Father Brady is well-known and most highly esteemed here by the members of Sacred Heart Church, whom he served for a number of years. He was one of the most popular priests who ever served Sacred Heart charge, and was a power for good in his Diocese.

MR. ANDREW J. TAYLOR.

Mr. Andrew J. Taylor, a well-known farmer residing on the Hurtt farm, near Locust Grove, died suddenly of heart failure on Thursday, aged 53 years. He leaves a widow and two children, a married daughter and one son. Funeral services will be held from his residence this Saturday afternoon at one o'clock, with interment in Kennedyville M. P. Church yard. Undertaker Wm. T. Hicks will have charge of the funeral arrangements.

DR. OLIVER PARKER PENNING.

Dr. Oliver Parker Penning, a well-known surgeon, died at his home, 1711 St. Paul street, Baltimore, shortly after two o'clock Sunday morning. He had been ill for two years. Dr. Penning was born in Darlington, Harford county, and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Penning, of Havre de Grace. He was well-known in this county, where his mother and sisters have frequently been visitors here and in Broad Neck.

MASTER HERMAN PIERCE.

Master Herman Pierce died Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock at the home of his parents in Massey after a lingering illness. The funeral service will take place to-day at 1 o'clock, to which relatives and friends are invited.

REAL CHRISTMAS GIVING

Verse and song, story and legend, brush and chisel, all unite in making the institution of Christmas Day the most human and intimate memorial. It is a day not only of sacred memories, but of rejoicing, of gift-giving, of merry-making for the young, of peace for the old and good-will for all. To give because of a joy to express—preserves all the romance and sentiment which has clustered about the Christmas-tide for so many generations—to give that which has intrinsic beauty, which bears actual relation to the needs of life, and serves definite purpose—expresses the true spirit of this beautiful old festival.

Gifts, such as these, are shown by The Ladies' Apparel Shop Gertrude Leimbach, and prices are "rock bottom," so that a small sum of money goes a long way. Having neither heavy rents nor enormous operating expenses to add to initial costs, there is a saving of fully one-half to one-third on gifts purchased at this delightful place to shop.
