Miss Helen G. (Mom) Roberts honored at Morgan testimonial

A series of Morgan State College salutes to a recently retired employee reached a climax Sunday when Miss Helen G. (Mom) Roberts was honored at a testimonial dinner.

Held in Morgan's Memorial Refectory, the testimonial brought together friends and admirers who showered "Mom" with verbal accolades and gifts.

Miss Roberts worked at the college for more than 25 years in the food service department and won the affection of Morganites through the years.

Prior to her retirement in December she was honored by the Board of Trustees and presented a plaque in recognition of her quarter-century of outstanding service.

Last month she was honored at a "Mom Roberts' Night" sponsored as a feature of the Second Annual Women's Week of the college.

AT THE Sunday testimonial, Mom received a luggage set presented on behalf of the faculty and staff by Miss Beulah M. Davis, Librarian; a radio presented for the cafeteria staff by Mrs. Roxanna Hough, dietician; and a coffee percolator "to keep her coffee warm," presented by Wilbur Hicks of New York on behalf of the student workers in the Refectory. Mom got another honor, too. The faculty dining room in the Refectory was named the Helen G. Roberts Dining Room.

EXTENDING GREETINGS to her were: Dr. Eugene D. Byrd, a member of the Board of Trustees, for the Board; Dr. Robert Cole, for the faculty; Refectory Staff, Professor Edward P. Hurt, director of athletics, for the faculty; Dr. Martin D. Jenkins, president, for the administration; Robert Ellis, president, Student Council president, for the study body; and Dean George C. Grant, for the Twenty-five Year Club.

Edward N. Wilson, registrar and general chairman of the testimonial, was master of ceremonies.

Other members of the testimonial committee were: Mesdames Pauline Tolch, James H. Carter, Dr. George H. Spaulding, Mary Davis, Frank Wilson and Mary Beatrice A. Mayo.

Among the guests attending were:

Mesdames and Messrs. Edgar A. Jones, Jerome H. Holland, Lillian Jones, Carmen Bellow, Valmentine L. Hill, Edward W. Hill, Mabel Wilson, Lena Randall, Frank Scott, Edward Wilson, Lawrence Spiller, Richard Wright, James Bogues.
