State TB hospitals offer care to all—Dr. Sauer

"Our hospital care is available to all, even the very poor.

"We ask not where a person comes from. All we care about is getting him well."

Dr. Elmer P. Sauer, medical director of Md. State Tuberculosis Hospitals, was speaking at the 54th annual meeting of the Maryland Tuberculosis Association.

The meeting was held on Thursday at Friendship Airport and was attended by an estimated 200 persons. Dr. Sauer, who was once a tubercular patient himself, is nationally known in his field.

He was substituting for another national figure, Dr. Theodore L. Badger, director of the National TB Association, who was ill and unable to travel.

Dr. Sauer described the care of tubercular patients in penal institutions and in state hospitals as "very good."

He said that the state now does all tuberculosis surgery at the Mt. Wilson Hospital and recovery figures are "very satisfactory."

* * *

DR. SAUER also revealed that:

1. State hospitals have been able to use cortisone satisfactorily in certain desperate cases, until the patient is well enough to take the anti-tuberculin drugs;

2. Alcoholics and older people make up the largest proportion of state hospital patients and on the whole have been "very good patients;"

3. X-rays for young people are not necessary unless they have a positive tuberculin test;

4. Proper use of improved x-ray methods and machinery has reduced the danger of radiation hazard;

5. Fifty-five million persons in the the U.S. have had tuberculosis at some or other and better than a million have recovered, but 40 per cent of the cases haven't been found;

6. Hospitalization and early detection are important in the cure of tuberculosis;

7. The rate of new TB cases per population is going down slowly and the treatment is tremendously better.

* * *

DR. SAUER praised the work for "the support it gives workers in the field in helping to combat the disease."

He urged that during the coming year that workers make treatment "vigorous, adequate and long enough and added that:

"Unless there are revolutionary new treatments and medicines developed, the end of tuberculosis is not in sight in my lifetime, so our work calls for guided optimism."

William A. Rowe, president of the association, presided. He advised that the annual Christmas Seal Sale which is the main support of the organization, showed a decrease for the first time since 1945.

He noted that the important part played by the volunteer workers—"a volunteer health organization can not function without them."

Frank T. Jones, executive director, advised that the x-ray center has moved to 821 Charles St., "where there is ample room for x-ray and health education."

* * *

DURING THE meeting, community leaders who reported increases in seal sales received orchids.

Four members of the Future Nurses of America Club of Douglass High, were also presented. They were: Misses Vivian Craig, president; Patricia James, Adelaide Wilton and Gloris Byrd, and the club's sponsor, Miss Hazel L. Bailey, R.N., school nurse.

Dr. Charlotte Silverman presided at the election of new board members including Mrs. B. M. Phillips, assistant to AFRO President Carl Murphy.

Other newly elected representative directors from Baltimore were: Dr. Robert S. Parker, director of the Bureau of Communicable Diseases; Mrs. Vivia Hornsby Healy, director of public relations, at a downtown hotel; and William H. Shriver Jr., and advertising associate.

NEWLY ELECTED directors at large are: Dr. James D. Murphy, manager, Veterans Administration Hospital and Mrs. Edgar H. McBride, civic leader from Frederick County.

Other newly elected Board Members were: Carroll County, Edwin W. Shauck; Dorchester County, Mrs. Robert Cox; Howard County, Mrs. Henry Miller; Kent County, Mrs. Anderson F. Whitsitt; Montgomery County, Mrs. T. C. Gordon Wagner; Prince George's County, Miss Mary Thompson; Queen Anne's County, Mrs. John Webb; St. Mary's County, Mrs. Hazel Madsen; Somerset County, Mrs. Shelby Jarman; and Worcester County, A. Hartley Stevens.

Edward M. Passano, director-at-large, Maryland Tuberculosis Association, conducted the panel discussion which preceded the luncheon meeting.

PANELISTS WERE: Miss Helen Ostwald, Miss Gertrude Loos and Mrs. Edwina Johnson, members of a study team from the National Tuberculosis Association, who recently evaluated the Maryland Tuberculosis Association; Mrs. John E. Bayhill and Samuel Hopkins of the Maryland Tuberculosis Association.

Invocation was offered by the Reverend L. Mark Brewster, rector, Saint Mark's Church in Alien and Perryville. Lucien E. D. Gaudreau treasurer, also gave his annual report.

Also on the program were: Mrs. Alexander S. Cochran, chairman, annual meeting program committee; Mrs. Freda Doll, president of the Maryland Conference of Tuberculosis Workers; Thomas Seyler, director of public service WMAR TV, and Dr. Leon Heffering ton, chief, the Bureau of Tuberculosis, Maryland State Department of Health.

These are state hospitals for the tubercular

Here follows a list of tuberculosis hospitals in the state of Maryland:

Victor F. Culotti, Frederick County, capacity 129 patients, staff 167;

Henryton, Carroll County, capacity, 425, staff 280;

Mount Wilson, Baltimore County, capacity, 525; staff 397;

Pine Bluff, Wicomico County, capacity, 65; staff 41.

Dr. Leon H. Heffernington, is chief of the Bureau of Tuberculosis in the State Department of Health.

Victory in Gwynn Falls re-zoning appeal battle

The plea of Sterling Johnson, realtist and school teacher, for permission to open a real estate and architect office at 1638 Gwynn-Falls Parkway was disapproved by the Board of Municipal and Zoning Appeals Tuesday.

Johnson, who presently operates his real estate office at 1613 W. North Ave., and lives on Montebello Terrace, Morgan Park, explained that he wished to convert a basement apartment at the Gwynns Falls Pkwy. address into a business office.

He had previously been turned down by the Zoning Commission, because the area is now restricted to residential occupancy only.

* * *

APPROXIMATELY 28 persons, who reside in the neighborhood appeared to protest rezoning of the area. Councilman Maxwell Alpert of the Fourth was joining the protest against the change.

He explained that he had repeatedly asked his adult life in the neighborhood and would hate to see it deteriorated by the invasion of commercial interests.

The hearing was brought to an abrupt end after Alpert's testimony, when the chairman ruled the board lacked the authority to grant Johnson a license to operate an office in a residential area.

* * *

JOHNSON INDICATED he planned to take the matter before City Council, where he would seek an ordinance granting him the right to set up the Gwynns Falls Pkwy office.

Dr. Lovejoy to speak here

Dr. Gordon Lovejoy, national program consultant for the National Conference of Christians and Jews, a former Brookston professor of human relations at Miami and a director of several summer workshops on inter-group education will be the principal speaker at the Baltimore Parent Education Institute at the Memorial Stadium Auditorium on Wednesday, April 30.

Dr. Lovejoy, whose recent paper on "Twenty-one Years of Human Relations Programming" was delivered at the Michigan Society for Mental Health in March of this year, is one of America's foremost intercolliqists in the specialized field of human relations education.

His topic will be the "Meaning of the Conference on April 30—"Rearing Children of Good Will."

THIS FEATURED program of Family Life Education Week is sponsored by the Child Study Association of Baltimore, the Parent Education Council, the National Conference of Christians and Jews and the Parent Education Section, Department of Education. A morning session commencing at 10 o'clock will be led by Mrs. Irwin Baker, president of the Parent Education Council.

Dr. Kurt Glazer will moderate a panel, "The Growing Edges of Parent Education" with speakers from participating groups. Panelists are Miss Hope Godwin, Mrs. Roger S. Hartz, Dr. Alfred R. Starratt, Dr. Harvey Kline, Donald Lombardi, Dr Sibyl Mandell, Dr. Parlett L. Moore, and Dr. Katherine Whiteside Taylor.

Mrs. Boddie is 'improved'

The condition of Mrs. Ruth Boddie, Provident Hospital nurse recently attacked by thugs, was described yesterday (Thursday) as "improved."

She is "resting very well" at her Lafayette Ave. home.

A night nurse at Provident Mrs. Boddie was on her way to work last Friday when she was approached by two youths and one of them struck her.

She received emergency treatment for facial wounds at the hospital and was in a semi-conscious condition for 12 hours.

Police have made no arrests in connection with the offense.

Not invited, says Robinson

Taking exception to an editorial carried in the Baltimore AFRO on April 19, Jerome Robinson, Democratic candidate to succeed himself in the House of Delegates Monday denied that he had ignored an invitation to participate in a panel discussion sponsored by the Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity.

"I did not receive an invitation," he told the AFRO. "During the 20 years I have served the Fourth District in the Assembly I have never had any hesitancy about going before any group and discussing the issues.

"I would have been happy to attend had I been invited."

AUGUSTUS — In loving memory of my beloved husband and our father WALTER AUGUSTUS departed this life April 30, 1955.

Sad and sudden was the call,
God in mercy saw fit to take you from all
Death came with severe pain,
It was to parting we gave you again
We miss you and think of you daily
And speak of you often
To make you could not say goodbye
Before you closed your eyes,
For all of us you always held sway
Oh, God grant your eternal rest,

DIGGS—In loving memory of my dear husband, father and son, Edward Diggs, who departed this life April 26, 1938.

At twilight when twilight hour draws near,
And sunset flames the sky,
Think of you we shall never, never,
And the happy days gone by.
Thoughts of you come drifting back
Within my dreams to stay
It is known that you are resting
Your twilight ends the day.
Devoted Wife,
SARAH F. DIGGS

DORSEY — In loving memory of our dear mother, LOUISA E. departed this life one year ago April 26, 1957.

No one knows how much we miss you
No one knows the bitter pain
We have suffered, since we lost you
To say never heal the same.
Our hearts are broken, the pain is
Our tears never cease to flow
Our love and remembrance will last forever

A MEDITATION
"As time silently passes, we still keep the Faith that marked your unerring footpaths.
For your faith has taught us, to the years roll onward
And leave the past behind,
That much we had counted sorrow,
But proves that God is kind.
That many a flower we longed for had a hidden thorn of pain,
And many a rugged by-path led to fields of golden grain.
So the heart from the hardest trial gains the purest joy of all
And the lips that have tasted sadness sweetest songs shall fall.
Then, as joy comes after sorrow, and love is the reward of pain,
So after earth, is heaven and out of our loss is gain."

NEAL — A tribute of love to the memory of our dear son and brother, GEORGE NEAL JR., who passed away two years ago, April 26, 1956.

Remembrance is a golden chain,
Death tries to break but all in vain;
We have, to love and then to part
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
The years may wipe out many
But this they wipe out never —
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together.

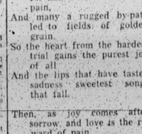
PARKER — My beloved son, JAMES, who passed April 21, 1954:



It made my life feel, sad to know that you were gone,
Even I knew that you were saved
It makes my heart feel glad to think of those words
Not a night or passes i c e you have been gone
That I do not think of you, Sleep on and take your rest,
I hope to meet you some day in that place where Jesus
Said that He was going to prepare.
