Rains bring Bethel AME repairmen down from spire

Saturday, May 3, was the day it started raining "cats and dogs" and began the 5-day downpour which sent precipitation to 1.84 inches and above May normal.

Although the late spring drizzle ceased on Thursday, downtown shopping had fallen off and school attendance had shown some effects.

The $17,000 sandblasting job which Bethel AME Church, Druid Hill Ave. and Lanvale St. has in progress, was halted Monday.

Because of rain, the workmen had to come down from the spire," explained the Rev. Harrison J. Bryant, pastor of the church.

He reported that the men were prepared to ascend the 250-foot spire on Monday to continue cleaning the Druid Hill Ave. side but showers promptly discouraged them.

THE REPAIRMEN also postponed the "pointing-up" job which calls for filling in cracks between the stones with cement.

"It's too damn to do that," said the Rev. Mr. Bryant on the 5th day of rain.

Also lamenting the excess of 84 inches water standing in puddles in their gardens were many suburban housewives who had done some planting of bushes and bulbs during April's hot spell.

An Elgin Ave. amateur gardener mourned on Wednesday: "I just know the little roots have been drowned out and the bulbs are just 'bustin' with water."

SPREAD SUNSHINE — The Saving Club members were guests of Mrs. Dolly Berry, 823 W. Saratoga St., this week.

The committees completed the anniversary program which will be held May 18th at 8 p.m. at Timothy Baptist Church.

The Rev. Mrs. Beatrice Brown and Mrs. Daisy Burgess became members.

Mrs. Bond is survived by her husband, Thurston Bond; two daughters, Bettye and Lillian Bond of Baltimore; a son, Leroy Johnson of Baltimore; two sisters, Miss Gracie Mae Edwards and Miss Dorothy Edwards both of Richmond; three brothers, Walter and Eddie Edwards of Chicago, Ill., and Herman Edwards of Richmond and three grandchildren.

Policemen's trial set for Monday

The trial of two suspended ranking police officers, Inspector Clarence O. Forrester and acting Capt. Hyman Goldstein, is scheduled to begin in Criminal Court Monday.

Baltimore's biggest police probe was set off late last year when the officers were accused of subornation of perjury, maintaining malfeasance in office, and maintaining a disorderly house. Albert Weinstein, a cab official, also was indicted on the latter charge.

Among the witnesses ordered to appear at the trial are Charles T. (Charlie) Burns and Phillip Taylor. Investigation of alleged numbers charges against Messrs. Burns and Taylor started the widespread police probe.

REMOVE WASTE NOT GOOD FOOD
Here's a secret millions have discovered about new-taste, tiny wonderfully different chewing-gum laxative . . . new-taste is different because you chew it. It's different, too, because it removes mostly waste—not good food. . . . new-taste doesn't work in the stomach where food is being digested. That's why it does not take away a lot of the good food you need for energy. . . . Doctors know that new-taste works chiefly in the lower bowel . . . removes mostly waste, not good food. And it's non-irritating, too.
So to feel like a million, chew delicious new-taste. 16 tablets, 25c—also small and economy sizes.

yet to go before a magistrate for formal booking. Under New York Law, police are obliged to take this step within forty eight hours after the suspect has been arrested.

At noon on Monday, two Manila attorneys arrived in New York to take charge of Mr. Sarmiento's defense.

The AFRO also learned that the family seeks to gain the services of famous Filipino lawyer Estanislav Fernandez who won an acquital for Mrs. Lydia Dean, a Filipino war bride of Franklin, Pa., who was charged with the fatal shooting of her husband last February.

Sarmiento's mother, Mrs. Ines Sarmiento, 67, told the AFRO by phone that she plans to come to New York for the trial, if there is one.

The elderly mother said she has been suffering from shock since the incident but hopes to be able to travel "in a week or so."

In Baltimore there were rumors of a second wife of the doctor's, however they could not be confirmed.

A check at a Northwestern Baltimore home disclosed that a man and woman had lived there until last summer and the man reportedly fitted the doctor's description.

New York detectives were reported anxious to verify or disprove the rumor.

HOWEVER veteran observers here doubt that Dr. Sarmiento will ever come to trial. Lawyers doubt that the state has sufficient evidence to warrant an indictment.

"The worse thing the doctor did was to run away," a top New York lawyer told the AFRO Monday." And although it was not wise, there is no crime in flight before being charged."

Behind the frantic efforts of the state to gather additional evidence as to Sarmiento's character and habits lies the fact that there is hardly one scrap of evidence against the physician.

His fingerprints were not found on the knife.

The state does not have witnesses who can place him in the home of the dead woman. There are three persons who will testify that they saw Sarmiento in the alley near the home on the night of the murder.

However his testimony is of little value as Sarmiento lives in the same building as the murdered woman.

The state's case is further burdened by the fact Nurse Margaret Kabak was clad only in scant under-clothing when found dead.

This coupled with the fact that the apartment showed no signs of being broken into indicated that the nurse had either received her assailant when scantily dressed or had undressed while the assailant was there.

This fact will harm the state's contention that Miss Kabak was desirous of breaking off her romance with the doctor and refused to see him.

AS THE EVIDENCE unfolds the picture of Dr. Sarmiento as a married playboy fades.

Several persons — many of them in Baltimore — have come forth to say that Sarmiento admitted his marriage and said he and his wife were estranged.

Police intentions to pursue the Lothario line collapsed with the disclosure that Miss Kabak had been married and had failed to tell her family and friends of the fact.

Insiders agree that the state must obtain more evidence by May 15 if the Sarmiento case is ever to get to a grand jury.

Rep. Powell fails to show for speech

WASHINGTON — Although the Tabor Presbyterian Church was besieged by reporters and photographers from local papers. Representative Adam Clayton Powell failed to show up to speak at the meeting, neared a close last night (Thursday) although he had promised to be on hand just before the meeting started.

Mrs. Vera Marson Staples, secretary of the Association of American Friends of the West Indies, which was organized in the office of Congressman Powell recently, advised the inquisitive and impatient newsmen that the Congressman had assured her that he would be on hand, but would be a little late.

He had not shown up by 10 p.m., when the session was about to disband, and no further word was heard from him or his representatives.

BELFORD LAWSON, Washington attorney with whom the Congressman had lived for many years while in Washington, was among those waiting to see him.

Mr. Lawson advised newsmen that he was not familiar with Mr. Powell's present Washington address or phone number, which is unlisted.

Earlier in the day Mrs. Louise Hopgood, administrative assistant to the Congressman, advised the Congressman that she was waiting for Mr. Powell to come to the office to dictate his speech which she expected him to deliver Thursday evening.

THIS WAS shortly before information was received here that the grand jury had returned the indictment.

Congressman Charles Diggs, who was also scheduled to address the meeting, also failed to appear, although he was reported by his office to be en route to the church.

'Thank God'! says Powell

NEW YORK — "Thank God!"

That was the reaction of Congressman Adam Clayton Powell Jr. after he was dumped by the Democrats, Liberals and labor organizations in his bid for an eighth term in Congress.

Powell incurred the wrath of Tammany Hall by supporting the Eisenhower-Nixon ticket at 1956. More recently, he publicly announced his freedom of downtown dictation.

vene the grand jury, the jurors would meet on their own (A freedom allowed under law).

The government then asked the grand jury to reconvene.

The grand jury reopened its investigation two weeks ago, after 66 weeks of inactivity.

Meanwhile, U.S. Attorney Paul W. Williams said he had not removed Bolan from the case, and branded as a lie Bolan's charge that the case was being whitewashed from Washington.

The charges pending against Powell are that he submitted improper tax returns; padded his Congressional payrolls and demanded kickbacks from his Congressional employees.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery
Finds Healing Substance That Relieves Pain, Stops Itching as it Shrinks Hemorrhoids
New York, N. Y. (Special)— For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.
In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.
Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.
And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!
In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.
All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.
This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H.® Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

PARRISH FAMILY—Mr. and Mrs. Charlie E. Parrish, 109 Avondale Rd., Turner Station, pose here with 11 of their 14 children, including two-week old Gail being held by her mother. Mr. Parrish is holding Cleveland, 2. The other Parrish children shown here are, left to right, Rose Marie, 11; Gwendolyn, 3; Barbara Ann, 12; Delores, 20; James, 15; Melvin, 18; Bernard, 24; Theodore, 17; and Ronald, 9. Not shown are Army Sgt. Charles Jr., 26; Mrs. Shirley Wilcox, 22; and Gaynell, 5.

attend Sunday School and Mass each Sunday.

This was done to follow the parents' idea of rearing children to "successful" happy adulthood.

Says Mrs. Hopkins: "We both believe that children need religious background. We think that is our secret for our large family's happiness."

She added: "But they also need the confidence and trust of both parents."

ALTHOUGH the home life of the Hopkins clan is indeed an American story, further proof can be had from a close look at each of the children who seem to be traditional American "kids."

As Mrs. Hopkins says: "They're typical boys and girls. They've never been in serious trouble and we love them all, everyone of them."

Donald, 22, the oldest, was graduated from Douglass High School in 1954.

He studied at Peabody Conservatory of Music but stopped school to become a department store display decorator.

However, since he aspires to become an entertainer and singer, he continues his studies under two Peabody professors.

EVERETT, 20, works at Bethlehem Steel along with his father. Although he does the toughest kind of work, he is the one who worships mother.

He spent 10 months in the Army, returned to love home, family, "mom" and "Pop" more than ever.

Dorothy, 19, is also a department store employee and true to pretty young girls' tradition, she dreams of being a movie star, and as her mother says "lives in the theatre."

LARRY, 18, is a Dunbar High School senior, wants to attend Maryland State College at Princess Anne and hopes to become a printer.

Jean, 16, is in the 11-A class at Douglass High School, plans to be a nurse.

Barbara, 15, a 9-A student at Garrison Junior High, is certain she will make a stenographer one day.

Frances, 13, also at Garrison is an 8-A student, a ballet dancer, and wants to be a gym teacher as soon as she can.

LINDA, 11, attends School No. 25, is in the 6-A, has nothing more on her mind than becoming a Junior High school student "when the time comes."

Ellis, 10, and Arnold, 9, are a brother - team. According to mother, "they go to bed together, get up together —where you see one, you see the other."

Now going through the "little rascal stage," these two little fellows play baseball night and day; have made up their minds to join the Navy as soon as they can get around to it. They keep the bathroom messy sailing boats in the tub.

MARY IS EIGHT years old, "pecks on the piano" and shows some talent like her big brother, Donald. She is taking ballet.

Michael, 6, rides his two-wheel bike, is in the first grade at Elementary School No. 13. He is the one who "gets in everybody's hair."

Jacqueline, 4, is still in the "mop age," presses her nose against the window waiting for the rest of the children to come home from school.

In good weather she walks two blocks to meet them, aspires to attend kindergarten which she insists is "school."

THE DARLING of the family and the baby is Virginia, 2, who has a vocabulary of 100 words, can talk the legs off an iron pot.

She started speaking clearly at the age of 8 months, hasn't missed since.

SINCE THE ideal family needs a grandpa and a grandma, the Hopkins family has Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones, 404 E. Biddle St. They are Mrs. Hopkins' mother and father and have been married 45 years.

The Hopkins children also have doting aunts and uncles since their mother has seven sisters and brothers.

Their Aunt Rosa is Mrs. Rosa Jones Branch, Baltimore's only woman night club owner and manager.

The Mother's Day gift from this large family to Mrs. Hopkins is one most mothers dream of but never get.

Sunday, May 11 will be a "day off," one she can enjoy minus cooking, washing dishes, and making hot rolls.

For breakfast she will be the guest of her mother, Mrs. Jones.

WHILE SHE is away from the house, Dorothy, 19, will cook breakfast for the family. Jean, 16, will play "mother" to the smallest children, and Barbara, who does the "nicest" of cleaning, will put the house in Sunday order.

Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins will be dinner guests of Mrs. Hopkins' life long "girl friend," Mrs. Eunice Williamson, 1708 Bond swer to her charges.

The husband only admitted the marriage, and denied all charges of cruelty or unjustifiable conduct.

He said that Mrs. Tutman had deserted him without a cause. He also said that she is gainfully employed and able to support herself and bear the costs of proceedings, and asked that her bill be dismissed.

AT THE same time he filed a cross - bill.

In these papers, the husband says that since the marriage he has been a faithful, chaste, dutiful, loving and affectionate husband.

Not only has Mrs. Tutman deserted him, says he, but she has refused to effect a reconciliation.

Her refusal, says Mr. Tutman, is "baseless, without justification and done willfully and intentionally to bring him into court."

He still remains at and maintains the home (2206 Rosyln Ave.) and has requested Mrs. Tutman to return, says the bill.

THEN THE bill states that he is unemployed and unable to pay alimony, counsel fees or costs of proceedings.

Her income, it states, is adequate to enable her to maintain her usual station in life and to bear her own expenses in the proceedings.

Her action, says he, is solely to badger him into granting her unreasonable demands.

He asked the court to grant him a divorce, and a reasonable sum for alimony and counsel fees for his attorney to enable him to protect his rights and pay costs and expenses.

Medic gets six-month jail term

WASHINGTON

Dr. Norbert F. Gillem, 37, 1700 block U St., NW, was sentenced to a jail term of six months by U.S. District Court Judge Bolitha J. Laws Friday.

The physician had pleaded guilty to a charge of distributing narcotics drugs illegally, a misdemeanor.
