Philomathian Club hears Mrs. Spencer

Mrs. Ruth Brannum Spencer a member of the Washington Board of Education was the speaker at the 20th annual dinner meeting of the Philomathian Club on Saturday evening at Morgan Christian Center.

Mrs. Spencer, now a wife and mother, was at one time guidance counselor and vice principal at Bates High School in Annapolis. She was named to the D.C. School Board last year to succeed Dr. Margaret J. Butcher.

In her talk Mrs. Spencer discussed the problems of desegregation and integration in Washington schools.

She suggested that there is a great need for a program to reach and advise parents and children from disorganized homes.

"INTEGRATION alone can't do it," she said, "unless we guide and help during this transition period. All children have need for being loved and wanted."

She also suggested that there is a "special challenge" to teachers to supply sympathy and love, which children miss at home, particularly teachers in elementary grades.

Mrs. Spencer said that privileged people in the community must take the leadership in inspiring the masses of people and set the example for them.

"What happens from here on in," she added, "will depend on the ordinary citizens."

AS TO WHAT lay people can do to help masses improve she suggested they give vigilance in helping to overcome shortcomings, improve public conduct, dress and use of leisure time, overcome feelings of inferiority and teach pride in race and history.

She also suggested that lay groups might hire tutors and enable children to see things — "you have to see something to want to be better than you are," and develop story hour programs and other enrichment programs particularly for underprivileged children.

A lively question and answer and discussion period followed.

Participants included George Rosedom, assistant state's attorney; Dr. Bernard Harris, member of the Baltimore School board; Dr. Carl Murphy, president of the AFRO-AMERICAN Co.; Dr. Houston R. Jackson, assistant superintendent of schools; Dr. Julius Carroll, associate pastor of Sharp Street Methodist Church; Bishop Edgar A. Love, resident bishop, Methodist Church; Dr. Marion Jenkins, president of Morgan State College and Mrs. Gladys Sheppard, a member of the club.

Mrs. Vivian Cook, chairman of the program committee, presided and Mrs. Mae W. Allen assisted in the absence of Mrs. Vashti Murphy, club president, who is ill. Miss A. Dolores Woode presented the speaker. Music was by William H. Hallcheck, soloist. Mrs. Carol I. Diggs was accompanist. Both are on the Morgan faculty.

COMMERCIALISM
. . . or love?

It is a common complaint today that certain popular holidays—Mother's Day for instance—are nothing more than a shopkeeper's scheme to separate the sentimental public from its hard-earned money.

This notion seems to us hard-hearted, cynical . . . and 100% wrong.

Sure, the merchant sells more, thanks to Mother's Day. But no merchant ever forces a purchase. People buy, basically, because they want something. And what they want, come Mother's Day, is the simple pleasure of bringing happiness to someone they love.

The mother you love—whether your own or your children's—rates nothing short of the best. In sewing that means SINGER. We have 101 gift suggestions, from baskets and shears right up to the ultimate—our fabulous Slant-O-Matic—ill guaranteed to put a heart-warming shine of delight in her eyes.

And if this be commercialism, make the most of it . . . we cheerfully stand condemned.

Dry, Scaly Skin Apt To Darken Fastest

Q.—Dear Mabel: Can you recommend something to help dry skin? Mine is so dry it feels rough and stiff and looks scaly. Please rush your advice . . . Mrs. A.J.N.

A.—Many of us are troubled with dry skin, especially people of light coloring. The first step is to use as little soap and water as possible. Next is to give your skin rich creaming. You can do this and keep it bright and fresh at the same time by using the enriched formula NADINOLA Bleaching Cream. It comes in the black carton and flat jar. You get cosmetic oils in this NADINOLA formula and you get gentle bleaching too. Use NADINOLA twice daily and in a little while you'll be thrilled with results. Get the 69c or $1.25 size and apply morning and evening. I like to tell friends that NADINOLA is the first cream of its kind and the finest. . . . Mabel Collins . . . NADINOLA, Paris, Tennessee.
