Choir manager honored by staff

The staff of The Baltimore Boys' Choir Inc. honored their manager John Johnson at their regular meeting last Monday.

Mr. Johnson, a recent Douglass High graduate is now with the Armed Forces and home on a furlough. He has served as manager for the Choir for the last two years.

William Lane, president of the Choir, presided. Remarks were made by the founder-conductor and musical director, William Meredith H. Riche Jr.

Plans were made to resume their spring concert series.

Others in attendance were Glenood Warren, Arnold Moore, Sterling France, Carroll Burnett, Howard Brown, Henry Jones, Dawbrice Hearn and Bernard McLelland.

Off The Beaten Path

By ELIZABETH M. OLIVER

Many Baltimoreans will recall that in 1910 the City Hall bell was tolled just for Bethel AME Church.

It was on the occasion when Bishop William Sampson Brooks laid down the last dollar which brought Bethel out of debt.

The incident was of such tremendous importance to the city that Mayor William Broening instructed the sexton to peel the City Hall bell to tell all citizens the good news.

BETHEL IS housed in a $300,000 church edifice constructed from imported stones, rare imported leather and has 22 leaded jewel - stone stained glass windows.

The antique pulpit stand is a desk, has a green Italian marble front, and rests on a carpeted platform.

The church aisles are stone tile, also imported.

The oval stained glass window, 90 feet in circumference, is 15 feet high, six feet wide. Memorial windows are inscribed with the names Susan Coby Murphy, Helen B. Handy and Mme. Sylvania Hurst.

Builders repairing the church estimate it would take $250,000 to build the church this day and age.

• • •

BETHEL IS one of Baltimore's most historic churches. It is controversial whether Bethel Church in Philadelphia or Bethel, Baltimore is the Mother Church of the African Methodist Episcopal Church.

However, when Bishop Richard Alexander Allen established the church in a blacksmith shop in Philadelphia, in 1794, the Rev. Daniel Coker, first Bethel pastor in Baltimore was already carrying on services from prayer meetings in homes.

The first Bethel Baltimore church was on Fish St., (now Saratoga St.).

• • •

AMONG BETHEL "firsts" is listed the printing of the first AME hymnal, accomplished in Baltimore in 1799.

In 1848 the 893 membership was the largest of any church in Baltimore.

The AFRO - AMERICAN Newspaper had its roots in Bethel since the founder, John H. Murphy Sr., was Sunday School superintendent and the first AFRO was "the Sunday School newspaper".

Bethel has a seating capacity of 2,00 persons—the largest of any Baltimore church.

It was incorporated in 1787 the same year as the Baltimore City was incorporated.

The congregation was led in 1910 by Dr. G. D. Hill, pastor and entered the $100,000 building at Druid Hill Ave. and Lanvale Sts. with 1,200 members. A downpayment of $56,000 had been made.

• • •

THE 1ST Baltimore Annual Conference was held at the Bethel Church in 1817.

Because of substantial contributions made to the training school Coppin Training School was named for Mrs. Fanny Jackson Coppin, wife of former Bethel pastor, Bishop Levi Coppin.

The first colored school in Baltimore was opened in the Bethel Church basement in 1841. It was a pay school.

• • •

THE NEW - LOOK at Bethel today includes some $18,000 in innovations.

Lifelong members, the Walter R. Carr family installed a new altar in the chapel at the cost of several hundred dollars.

A new concert grand piano was given by the Choral Choir while a new kitchen was installed by the gospel choir.

The new ladies' lounge is furnished by the Senior Missionary Society. The choir room was redecorated by the Senior Choir. The church Brotherhood gave 200 new steel chairs to the chapel. The church membership redecorated the entire ladies' department.

• • •

THE PRESENT membership 1,500 strong, make Bethel the largest AME church in Baltimore and one of the largest in the Second Episcopal District.

With an annual income of $50,000, the church is one of the most progressive and most modern in the city.

Many families have maintained membership in the church for four generations to the extent that the church is widely recognized as the place of worship for old Baltimore families.

THE SICK OF THE COMMUNITY should not be forgotten especially those in the hospital who can see only those who go where they are. If you don't have time to go to visit, send your greetings by a card.

Mrs. Lillie Astrop is still at Johns Hopkins Hospital and Mr. Will Fair of 509 Main Street is at Provident Hospital.

• • •

SUNDAY was a high day for many. Good music rang out across the community all day. A passer by would have to stop to wonder from which church the music was coming, since some of them are so close together.

YOUTH DAY was celebrated at the new Shiloh Baptist Church all day under the able supervision of Mrs. Ollie Ray who is a teacher in the Baltimore schools.

The morning services were presided over by Eddie Hill. The regular officers of the church were happy, to move aside and let the young people take charge of the services and I will say to them — hats off for a job well done.

The youth of the church were able to stand up and pray without being bashful; adults could not have done a better job than what was demonstrated there. They did everything except preach the sermon and accept the members into the church.

• • •

MUSIC FOR the morning services was furnished by the Children's Choir of 75 voices under the direction of Mrs. Bertha Everett with Mrs. Rosa Blanks helping to supervise the children.

The Young Peoples Choir occupied the choir stand and sang beautifully. Bernard Redd was at the organ and Betty Graves was at the piano.
