Delta Sigma Theta's May Ball is colorful cabaret evening

Delta Sigma Theta sorors arranged a galaxy of flower-filled tables in the Maryland National Guard Armory, filled the tables with hors deouvres, snacks and drinks, provided excellent music and proceeded with an evening of fine fun, Friday.

'TWAS EPSILON SIGMA chapter's annual May Ball. No small bit of the beauty of the dance came from the lovely frocks worn by hostesses and guests.

Juliette Bragg was in swirling black chiffon frock, which had a bodice of taffeta snugly fitted. Anethia Williams, tall and chic in red lace . . . and petit Gwendolyn Biddle, the dancer, chose geranium pink with a fitted bodice and wide accordian pleated ballerina length skirt.

One of the smartest frocks about was a fitted white lace underpinned by pale pink, with a swirl of pink chiffon around the low neck and draping into a panel at the back.

GWENDOLYN LEWIS, who designs and makes her own gowns, wore a short skirted white printed with huge flowers . . . and Llewellyn Walker was in magnificent gray lace. Cute Mrs. Billy Russell was doll-like in a dream of a dance frock of lace and net and Mary Pitts, another of the girls fiber with the needle, wore a rose frock, many - skirted, one of the under layers being of pleated net, another of spangled net.

Smart, too, was the empire frock, in white lace, the bosom marked by blue velvet, worn by Margarite Sheffey. Dr. Regina Goff, squired by newly-free Josiah Henry, attorney, never looked prettier than in the pale blue off - shoulder frock she wore. And Mrs. Harrison Diggs successfully combined a daring red frock with her flaming tresses.

ALMA GRAY was in blue lace, made with a harem skirt. Virginia Manning wore one of the ultra new frocks . . . a navy with empire waist and pouffed panels tucked in at the hem line. Billie Cragway, babed tucked in bed, was having a night on the town and pretty, too, in billowing red chiffon, silver trimmed.

Rosetta Williams was in pale oyster brocade, a swirl of pouffs breaking the skirt and entering into a big side bow, and Catherine Greene wore a cute number . . . the top and overskirt flowered the underpinnings pink.

Hi-Fi Chatter

By JOHN BRENT

The big "P" flung a fabulous party last Saturday evening. The girls are Portia Smith, Linda Green, Donna Spaulding, Sheila Mallory, Veronica Mosbey, Diana Edwards, and Barbara Forest.

OUR OWN Shirley Randall, fashionable Easternite, has been laid up in bed with the measles. Come on Shirley, let's get back to the old grindstone.

THE YARDBIRD Jazz Appreciation Society recently elected new officers.

David Hubbard became president; Paige Johnson and Leroy Hawthorne, coordinators; Shirley Randall, recording secretary; Johnny Brent, corresponding secretary; Delores Holt, business secretary, Bob Edwards, treasurer; Howard Blumberg, sergeant-at-arms; and Maurice Allen, mediator.

We shouldn't breathe a word, but the grapevine has it that the Pandoras are planning another dance, and that the Modern Misses will soon fling a cabaret party.

Jeanette Randall gave a gala party last Friday. An exquisite menu was served.

The Red, Hot, and Cool Jazz club inducted new members recently.

THOSE FABULOUS "Birds" also inducted new members, including Patricia Goldberg, Sylvia Cohen, Malcolm Sol, Leroy Hawthorne, Takako Okudo, and Pierre Duvalle.

Fun clothes from Elmer Liepman's

Spencer, Eva Creigler and Dorsea Stanley at whose home on St. home the induction ceremonies were held.

The Washington group noted there for its highly social activities and its initiation of annual "Christmas in July" activities, turned out with full membership for Saturday's affair.

Members are Mesdames Frances Mayo, president; Irene B l a c k, Josephine Teague, Sara Bumbary, Mary Richardson, Delia Boyd, Vivian Chase; Mesdames Felicia Glascoe, Barbara Bourne, Antoinette Gardner, Mable O'Bannon and Mozella Loving.

Dry, Scaly Skin Apt To Darken Fastest

Q—Dear Mabel: Can you recommend something to help dry skin? Mine is so dry it feels rough and stiff and looks scaly. Please rush your advice . . . Mrs. A.J.S.

A—Many of us are troubled with dry skin, especially people of light coloring. The first step is to use as little soap and water as possible. Next is to give your skin rich creaming. You can do this and keep it bright and fresh at the same time by using the enriched formula NADINOLA Bleaching Cream. It comes in the black carton and flat jar. You get cosmetic oils in this NADINOLA formula and you get gentle bleaching too. Use NADINOLA twice daily and in a little while you'll be thrilled with results. Get the 69c or $1.25 size and apply morning and evening. I like to tell friends that NADINOLA is the first cream of its kind and the finest . . . Mabel Collins c/o NADINOLA, Paris, Tennessee.

ed a fashion show displaying career attire.

To highlight her portion of the program she gave as a gift a play outfit to one of the students in attendance which had been picked by Miss Wheeler, Mrs. Ebb and Mr. Williams. The winner was Miss Tamara Barbour. Miss Barbour was also used as the model in the demonstration by Miss Wheeler. Her aspiration is to become a professional model.

Refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

The clinic was arranged by a committee which was composed of:

Sorors Mary Ames, chairman; Odessa Howard, Vivian Young, Margaret Johnson, Mary Crump, Ruth Robinson, Evelyn Wilkes, Margaret Robinson, Gladys McCoy, Claudine Franks and Grace Tisdale.

Soror Mable C. Waters is chapter president.

THE GRACE Players are putting the finishing touches on their last production of the season.

An evening of fun is promised in this old-fashioned comedy melodrama which has for a cast, a handsome hero (Paul Burk), a beautiful heroine (Nell Hood), a nasty villian (James Dandridge), a rich banker (George Barbour), two maiden aunts (Dorothy Buck and Yvonne Gilkey) and two narrators (Mildred Armstead and Carolyn Mays).

Music for the occasion will be presented by the Grace Presbyterian Church. Admission is free.

Hostesses for the social which will follow the presentation are Mesdames Dorothy Mickel, Janet Woolridge, Sarah Cureton and Miss Rose Malloy. Mrs. Willa Bland is director of the Grace Players. Miss Joyce Weaver is color director. Reverend Robert T. Newbold Jr., is the pastor of the church.

ALPHA PHI ALPHA men of Delta Lambda chapter can call for their slippers, snuggle in their easy chairs, take long puffs on their favorite pipes.

Smug in the knowledge that they have put over one of the top of-top programs of any fraternity in the 48 states, this year.

At this late date you know that they garnered some 2800 persons in Polytechnic Institute auditorium to hear Duke Ellington and his orchestra, Sunday evening. And you may, or may not know that following the concert, Alpha men, their wives and a few friends sipped champagne punch . . . or champagne with the Duke in the Mr. De-So Club.

As if, after listening to Duke beat the life out of that piano, M.C. for his rendition in pheek numbers, Archie Bailey and Ray Nance sing to high heaven and Sam Woodyard go-go-go on those drums, you weren't already as ready as a happy sailor.

To Frank Ellis, who heads the chapter, to Joe Bracey, who has chaired the majority of the year's activities, special posies for jobs superbly done.

THE CAHRITEERS, a club affiliated with the Golden Guild of Baltimore, is doing a very fine job by assisting with programs and gifts for the patients at Crownsville State Hospital.

They visit the hospital every two months to entertain the patients. It takes money to put these gifts and this club has to raise the necessary funds to make their purchases. They are sponsoring a chicken dinner at the Community Center, 911-A Newkirk Place, on Saturday, May 24 from 12 noon until.

The officers and members of the club are:

Mesdames Izetta Allen, president; Julia Lawrence, secretary; Lucy Murry, assistant secretary; Mary Dunistant, treasurer; Mary Franklin, chaplain.

Willie Mae Alston, business manager; Ethel Tyler, Victoria Harris, Annie McNair, Elizabeth Tinsley, Lubertha Butler, Pauline Stewart, Phebie Cutningham, Aurelia Moore, Althea Lucas, Ruth Chambers.

Following the monthly May meeting, the Dundalk-Sollers Point Ministerial Association, composed of the ministers of the area, accompanied by their wives, were the guests of the Bethlehem Steel Company for dinner.

Gerald Monsman, president of United Christians, Inc., was the guest speaker. He spoke of the subject "Christians and Elections." This was not a political rally, but an attempt to guide the ministers in helping their people in such matters. The Rev. and Mrs. James Tverett of the New Shiloh Baptist Church were among the group.

The officers of the association include:

The Revs. Harvey S. Kline, Dundalk, president; Rev. Marshell Parsons, Watersedge Baptist Church, vice president; Rev. Harry L. Bennett, Sparrows Point Methodist Church, treasurer; Rev. James A. Everrett, New Shiloh Baptist Church, corresponding secretary.

The 75th Anniversary of the New Shiloh Baptist Church was celebrated last week with many churches from Baltimore visiting each evening. The celebration was concluded on Sunday afternoon with the Rev. Mr. Crawley and his congregation as guests.

Following the services the audience retired to the lower auditorium for a delicious repast. The auditorium was beautifully decorated with peonies and rose buds.

I. ATTENDED the Annual Spring Concert of Music at Conservatory of Music last Saturday night. Delores Stokes, who is a member of the senior class, was very attractive in a yellow gown with white accessories.

This is her second year at the Conservatory. Delores is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McCray Stokes of 308 Sollers Point Road.

She is an eleventh grade student at the Sollers Point High School where she sings with the senior glee club. She also sings with the Young Peoples Choir of New Shiloh.

Sylvia Thompson, daughter of the Rev. Dockery Thompson, pastor of Friendship Baptist Church, also sings with the senior choir of the Conservatory.

Delores' cousin, Sylvia Staples, is a piano student at Peabody. Sylvia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Staples of 113 Balmoral Avenue. She is a student at the Sollers Point High School. She sings with the Young Peoples Choir of the New Shiloh Baptist Church and plays for some of the churches of the community.

ON FRIDAY I was invited to the May Festival of the Carver High School out Towson way. An excellent program preceded the delicious luncheon. The classes from 1943 through 1957 came back for the reunion.

Many of the students are now married and then brought their offsprings with them. Baby sitting service was provided for the little ones during the exercises.

The student body was in its glory as the faculty donned aprons and white coats to wait on them.

Loretta Austin was crowned Miss Carver of 1958. She was attractive in a white chiffon gown with twin scarves flowing from the neckline to the tip of the skirt. Her escort was James Lowery who wore black trousers and a white dinner jacket. The queen was attended by several young ladies who wore gowns of pastel shades.

PRINCE HALL Grand Lodge of Maryland 1958 tuition scholarships did not pass by with out representatives from the Sollers Point High School trying in the contest. The representatives are James Bush of 839 Avondale Rd. and Bernard Newby of 2405 Ruth Ave.

It was satisfying to see so many people of the community finding their way to the polls on Tuesday to exercise their suffrage.
