THE RELIGIOUS WORLD.

Presbyterian services—Georgetown, 10.30; Kennedyville, 2.45; Worton, 7.30. The pastor and people of the above churches cordially invite all to their services, and especially those who have not yet identified themselves with any church. All such will find a hearty welcome. The pastor will endeavor to preach short, sharp, interesting and restful sermons and will also strive to make the music attractive.

The members and friends of Wesley Chapel M. P. Church gave their popular pastor a splendid donation last week. Mr. Duputy has done an excellent work on the charge during his pastorate and he is justly popular with his people.

The most wonderful sight ever witnessed in a Chestertown Church, probably, occurred in Christ Methodist Protestant Church last Sunday morning, when the pastor, Rev. Dr. Graham received more than 50 young people into the church, a large number of whom were young men. The young folks stood around the altar three rows deep, and to those who witnessed it, it was a scene never to be forgotten. This was a partial result of the great revival now in progress in the church, which has been in progress during the week with unabated interest. Six young people were conducted Sunday evening and at each service six or more people have been saved. Rev. G. A. Morris assisted in the services on Monday evening, Dr. Barrett of the M. E. Church on Tuesday evening, Rev. W. M. McCann, the popular pastor of Bond and Mowbray Chapels, assisted on Thursday evening.

All of these ministers rendered most valuable assistance and preached soul-stiring sermons. The effect of the revival is being felt all over the county, more than 120 young and middle aged people have been brought into the church to date, and the end is not yet. A large number of young folks also united with the M. E. Church last Sunday. The people are aroused, and it is most inspiring to see the young men of the town taking such an interest in the work of saving their companions. Last Monday evening two young men left the church during the services, went out and brought in one of their young friends, who was converted before the meeting closed. May the good work continue.

An affecting scene took place in St. James M. P. Church last Sunday morning when the pastor, Rev. G. A. Morris, who has served the charge so faithfully and well during the past six years, announced to his congregation that he would ask for a change of pastorate at the coming session of conference. Mr. Morris made a plain and frank statement to the people, saying that the past six years have been among the most pleasant in his ministry, and if he consulted his personal feelings in the matter, he could abide with his flock indefinitely. He said that the voice of conscience said "Go," and much as he would regret to sever the most pleasant and cordial relations now existing between pastor and people, he felt that conscience must be obeyed. There were many moist eyes in the congregation when Mr. Morris finished his statement, for he is deservedly popular with the people of St. James. Mr. Samuel Vannort, the oldest member of the church, and for years superintendent of the Sunday school, replied very feelingly to Mr. Morris. He said that Mr. Morris' statement came like a thunderbolt out of a clear sky to him, and he was grieved to hear him say what he did. He said the people of St. James would love to keep Bro. Morris always, and he felt quite sure he voiced the sentiment of the entire church, and turning from the pastor to the audience he said: "I do not believe we can find Brother Morris' equal in the conference." Mr. Morris' congregation was visibly affected by his statement, and he has had many appeals to reconsider his intentions.

Mullineaux, subject: "Our Father's House," with meditations and contemplations; Christian Endeavor service beginning at 7 o'clock, P. M., sharp, topic, "Christian Endeavor Principles and How to Uphold Them; Scripture lesson, John 24,6-15. An opportunity at all church services for the unsaved to decide and take a stand "For Christ and the Church."
