THE THIRD NATIONAL BANK

of Chestertown, Md.

The Bank with RESOURCES of.....$800,000.00
Capital, Surplus and Profits..... 95,000.00

The Bank carrying over 15 per cent. Reserve.
The Bank under the supervision and control of the United States Government.

There are several things to be considered in selecting your Bank:

First—STRENGTH—Financial Strength.
Second—THE CARE with which the Bank is managed.
Third—THE COURTESY AND SPIRIT of accommodation shown by the officers and employes.
Fourth—THE BANKING EXPERIENCE of its officers and directors.
Fifth—THE ABILITY OF THE BANK to properly and promptly handle all your business.

Our hobby is SAFE Banking. In every transaction we consider the question of SAFETY first.

We have never offered inducements for new business which we later declined to keep. We are attracting new customers by consistent attention to all details of every account, and have of course kept our old business on the same basis.

THE UNITED STATES keeps an account with this Bank.
THE STATE OF MARYLAND keeps an account with this Bank.
KENT COUNTY keeps an account with this Bank.
We want you Banking business. 3 per cent. interest paid on all Savings Deposits.

The spring presents the best time to buy your home or an investment in land.

I have 30 valuable farms in Kent alone, which can be bought at prices that will make these propositions superior to anything in which you could invest for a sure, steady investment.

These farms are for sale, not put up because they are worthless, but because the owners, for reasons of health, or too much land to till, or wanting a smaller farm, or too much in debt, are in a measure compelled to sell.

The list I can submit you is the result of careful investigation, and contains tracts of land that will prove a profitable investment for your FUNDS.

The proposition of wise investments is greater in real estate than in any other line of investment.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

WILLIAM S. ELBURN.

Mr. William S. Elburn, one of our oldest farmers and highly esteemed citizens, died at his home near town yesterday morning of general debility, in the 75th year of his age. The deceased was born in Chestertown and had spent his entire life here enjoying the confidence and esteem of all who knew him. Mr. Elburn's wife, who was a Miss De-Ford, died about three years ago. He is survived by four sons—Messrs. James T. and Charles H. Elburn, of Rock Hall; Walter L. and R. Frank Elburn, of Chestertown. Fuperal services will be held from his late residence to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham. Interment in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers had not been selected at the hour of going to press. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson will have charge of the funeral arrangements.

MR. WILLIAM KENNEDY.

Mr. William Kennedy, of New York, died Sunday at 12.20 o'clock of meningetis, aged 53 years. The deceased was born on the farm owned by Capt. Daniel Hill, near Kennedyville, and was a son of the late Alexander Kennedy. He was a half brother of Messrs. Robert and Lloyd Kennedy, of this county. The deceased held a very lucrative position in New York, and his death was a great shock to his many friends in the county. The remains were brought to Kennedyville on the noon train on Tuesday and conveyed to Shrewsbury, where funeral services were conducted by Rev. S. S. Hepburn. Interment was made in the family lot in Shrewsbury. The pall bearers were Messrs. John H. Clendaniel, John Medders, John M. Comegys, Thomas Jones, William Janvier and Wm. Archibald. Undertaker Wm. H. Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

JOHN J. BLACKISTON.

Mr. John J. Blackiston, a prominent resident of the Fifth District, died at his home near Rock Hall on Saturday, aged about 60 years. Mr. Blackiston was found dead in bed, and it is supposed that heart disease was the cause of death. Besides his widow, he leaves two children—one son, Mr. Columbus Blackiston, and one daughter, Mrs. Charles Crouch, of the Fifth District. Funeral services were held in the Adventest Church, Rock Hall, on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, with interment in Wesley Chapel Cemetery. Undertakers Casey Bros. had charge of the funeral arrangements.

ARTHUR O. BRICKMAN.

Mr. Arthur O. Brickman, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Keller Brickman, died at the home of his mother, No. 1705 east Oliver street, Baltimore, last Friday. Funeral services were held on Monday at 8.30 A. M., a requiem mass being said at St. Paul's Church for the repose of his soul at nine o'clock. Interment was private in New Cathedral Cemetery. Mrs. Brickman, the mother of the deceased, has been a frequent visitor at Mrs. George B. McWhorter's home on the avenue, and also at the home of Mrs. N. M. Jeter.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vandyke died at the home of its parents near Crumpton on Wednesday morning last of Jaunders. Funeral and interment took place at Shrewsbury on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock, the Rev. Mr. Mullineaux, of the Kennedyville M. P. Church, officating. Undertaker W. H. Krusen in charge.

MR. HENRY BOULDEN.

Mr. Henry Boulden, a well-known resident of Cecil county, died at his home in Cecilton on Tuesday, aged 73 years. He was a member of the official board of Cecilton M. E Church, and is survived by a widow and one daughter.

MARRIAGE BELLS.

DANIELS—WOOLLEYHAN.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wolleyhan, who reside in the old Dr. John Veasey homestead near Earleville, a pretty wedding was solemnized Monday evening, February 3, at eight o'clock, the contracting parties being their daughter, Miss Emma Willis Woolleyhan, and Mr. Joshua Daniels, Jr., both of Philadelphia. The parlor was decorated with potted plants and the couple stood beneath an arch of boxwood and flowers while the ceremony was being performed by Rev. W. A. Coale. The bride was gowned in white brocade satin, and carried white sweet peas. She was given away by her father. Although the weather was inclement about forty guests were present, including Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wolleyhan. The wedding march was played by Mrs. H. S. DuHamell. The couple left on Tuesday for their new home, 2408 South Bouvier street, Philadelphia. The wedding gifts included articles of silver, cut glass, linen, china and other useful and pretty articles. The bride who was a valued employe of Gimbel Brothers in Philadelphia, was given a pre-nuptial dinner by two hundred of her friends in that city.

MOFFETT—SUTTON.

Mr. Wm. C. Moffett, of Philadelphia, and Miss Blanche L. Sutton, of Kennedyville, were married on Wednesday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Wm. Johnson, 1003 Pleasant St., Wilmington, Del., by Rev. Geo. White Dawson, pastor of Harrison M. E. Church, Wilmington, Del., in the presence of a few relatives and friends. The bride was becomingly attired in a blue tailored coat suit with white hat and gloves to match. The groom wore the conventional black. After the ceremony was performed the couple took the 5.30 train for Philadelphia to the home of the groom's uncle, Mr. Simon P. Moffett, 173 W. Lehigh Ave., who gave them a sumptuous supper where a host of friends were present. At a late hour Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Moffett went to their new home, 173 W. Somerset St., which the groom had previously prepared.

PRICE—PERRY.

Miss Rosalie Perry, daughter of the late John W. Perry, of Centreville, Queen Anne's county, was married on Wednesday afternoon at her home, 1522 John street, Baltimore, to Mr. Thomas Ringgold Price, of Kent Island. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thos. O. Crouse, pastor of North Baltimore Methodist Protestant Church. The bride was attended by Miss Virginia Gettier as maid of honor, and Mr. John C. Tolson was the best man. Mr. and Mrs. Price will reside in Stevensville, Kent Island. The bride is a relative of Mrs. S. Scott [illegible] town.

LEE—STAUFFER

Mr. Norman S. Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lee, of near town, and Miss Nellie M. Stauffer, were quietly married on Friday evening last at Christ M. P. parsonage by the pastor, Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham. These two young folks were converted recently at the great revival now in progress at Christ Church, and they united with that church last Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Lee will make their home with the groom's parents on the Lusby-Skirven farm.

A marriage license was issued in Baltimore last Friday to Mr. Edwin M. Ford and Miss Lydia V. Hackett, both of Still Pond.

Our Merchants' Interest.

J. W. Bordley, the rat king, is at Black's with B. S. Sutton with his dogs and ferrets to kill rats for a short time. Write Mr. Sutton for prices and terms as his time is short.

The only bank in Kent county with which the United States Government, the State of Maryland and Kent county carry an account is the Third National Bank. This is the bank with resources of $800,000 and capital, surplus and profits of $95,000. This is the bank the TRANSCRIPT pushes. See!

The auditors' report of the Chestertown Water Board is published elsewhere in this issue. It shows a healthy condition of the Board's finances and a gratifying balanae as a result of economical administration.

Mr. P. T. Hatcherson wants 50 crates of eggs every week for which he will pay Baltimore market price less 1 cent per dozen for cash.

Rote, the jeweler, says he is offering you the best watches to be had and what is more he backs up his statement with a guarantee. You can get a full-fledged Indian at his store for 75 cents.

Messrs. Bordley and Sons have just completed their annual inventory and are offering some goods at prices far below cost. Everything for the men to wear can be found in their handsome up-to-date store. See them for bargains the rest of the month.

H. F. Jefferson & Bro's. special sale of goods in their three departments will continue all next week. Their advertisement on page 8 contains some interesting information relative to Parcels Post. They will pay special and prompt attention to all orders to be sent by parcels post.

The Stam Drug Co. is advertising in this issue their fine line of valentines. The young man who fails to send his best girl a valentine may lose her in the long run.
