THE REV. Mr. King, 29-year-old scholar - preacher, became a national figure in 1956 when he led a successful year-long boycott of the Montgomery transit system.

His quiet, non - violent, love preaching, effective leadership of the boycott, which was conducted in the midst of bombings and other acts of hatred and which resulted in Negroes being able to ride buses without segregation for the first time in Montgomery, won the youthful minister recognition as one of the nation's most remarkable leaders of men.

The Rev. Mr. King was born in Atlanta, Ga., the son of the Rev. Michael Luther King, minister of Ebenezer Baptist Church.

It was prophetic that when King was six his father changed his name and that of his son to Martin Luther.

It was while studying at Morehouse College in Atlanta that King decided to become a minister. He attended Crozer Theological Seminary in Chester, Pa., and won the Plafker Award as the most outstanding student.

At his graduation he received the J. Lewis Crozer Fellowship for graduate study and enrolled at Boston University where he received the Ph.D. degree.

He became minister of Dexter Avenue Baptist Church in 1954. He is married to the former Coretta Scott.

Mr. Sondheim has been an important leader in business, community and civil affairs here.

He was appointed a member of the Board of School Commissioners in 1948 and became president of the Board in 1954 - coincidentally on the same day when the Supreme Court made its decision regarding school desegregation.

Mr. Sondheim, serving as president of the Board until 1957, is credited with having given administrative leadership which resulted in a peaceful and speedy response to integration in the Baltimore schools.

In addition to serving as chairman of the Urban Renewal and Housing Commission, the agency charged with redevelopment of the blighted areas of the city, Mr. Sondheim is chairman of the Housing Authority of Baltimore, director of the Baltimore Chapter of the American Red Cross, of the Associated Jewish Charities of Baltimore and a number of other organizations.

Born here July, 1908, Mr. Sondheim was graduated from the Park School. He received the B.S. degree from Haverford College, in Pennsylvania.

In 1942 - 43, he served as director of the United States Employment Service for Maryland and Assistant Director, War Manpower Commission for Maryland.

He served in the United States Navy from 1944 to 1946.

It's wonderful the way Chewing-Gum Laxative acts chiefly to REMOVE WASTE-NOT GOOD FOOD
Here's a secret millions have discovered about FEEN-A-MINT, the wonderfully different chewing-gum laxative.
FEEN-A-MINT is different because you chew it. It's different, too, because it removes mostly waste—not good food! FEEN-A-MINT does not work in the stomach, where food is being digested. That's why it does not take away a lot of the good food you need for energy.
Doctors know that FEEN-A-MINT works chiefly in the lower bowel, removes mostly waste, not good food and is non-irritating, too.
So to feel like a million, chew delicious FEEN-A-MINT. 16 tablets, 35¢—also small and economy sizes.

nomination for the House of Delegates, is gainfully employed and to the best of her knowledge earns at least a weekly sum of $150.

Asking for a permanent divorce, Mrs. Dixon requested the custody of the couple's two minor children.

She also asked that Mr. Dixon be required to pay a reasonable sum of money each week for the support and maintenance during the divorce proceedings.

Mrs. Dixon added also that permanent support and alimony be awarded herself and the children as well as court costs and counsel fees for her attorney.

THE FILING of the petition marks the second time the Dixons have appeared in court.

In June, 1957, Mr. Dixon was denied a divorce from his wife. His petition, alleging that he and Mrs. Dixon were separated in 1952, was filed in July, 1956.

Instead of the divorce, Judge Reuben Oppenheimer ordered Mr. Dixon to pay Mrs. Dixon $15 a week permanent alimony plus a weekly sum of $25 for the support of the two children.

The legal separation also carried a provision that Mrs. Dixon and the children remain in the Old Federick Rd. home rent free.

Mr. and Mrs. Dixon were married in a formal wedding at St. Peter Claver Catholic Church on Aug. 11, 1943.

AS MR. DIXON sought to end the 14 - year - marriage during the two - day hearings last June, he testified that he netted but $75 a week from bail bond business and that his mother, Mrs. Evelyn Dixon Charity conducted the Comedy Club business.

Mrs. Dixon testified that she had no income of her own.

Prior to the dismissal of Mr. Dixon's divorce bill by Judge Oppenheimer, the jurist stated that he believed that Mr. Dixon deserted his wife and family without just cause.
