Destine scores in U.S. return

By GLADYS P. GRAHAM

NEW YORK (ANP) — Jean Leon Destine, Haiti's pride and joy and perhaps the world's most decorated male dancer returned to New York and his many admirers after an absence of almost three years. He was presented by the Dance Center of the YM-YWHA in Kaufmann Concert Hall.

He and his Haitian Dance company presented three new works, in addition to his well known repertoire, Ceremony Bembe, Yoruba-Bakas, and Caribbean Bamboche.

Alabama justice favors blonde; no appeal is seen

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — There will be no appeal of a $50 fine imposed upon a colored woman here in a case stemming from a bus row between Mrs. Rosa Wilson and Mrs. B. A. Gray, according to Fred Gray, attorney for Mrs. Wilson.

Mrs. Wilson was fined $50 in the case after the white woman testified in Judge D. E. Loes' Recorder's Court last week that Mrs. Wilson attacked her following an incident over seating on a city bus.

The white woman contended that Mrs. Wilson partially sat in her lap and attacked her when she attempted to shove her from her lap.

MRS. WILSON testified that Mrs. Gray began shoving her and calling her names when she took a seat next to her. Two witnesses, Mrs. Alice H. Williams and Mrs. Jean Phillips, supported Mrs. Wilson's testimony.

The bus driver, A. M. Courtney and two white women, testified in favor of Mrs. Gray as to the incident.

Judge Loes not prussed a charge of assault and battery against Mrs. Wilson, but fined her $50 and costs on a disorderly conduct count.

'ST. LOUIS BLUES' IS A MOVING STORY

The deeply moving story of a man torn between his unquenchable need to write the music that was to become America's own rhythm-and-blues and his duty to a father who bitterly opposed his career is the core of "St. Louis Blues" which is now at the Regent Theatre.

A film at once dramatic, inspiring and rich in music and the raucous color of its Memphis backgrounds, the Paramount VistaVision presentation is based upon the life and music of W. C. Handy, creator of the blues, and both the life and the music make wonderful entertainment for the entire family.

By casting the music world's top performers in dramatic roles, producer Robert Smith and director Allen Reisner have achieved not only a rousing showcase for handy's immortal blues tunes but; an honest and realistic human story.

In his first major acting assignment, Nat "King" Cole is perfect as Handy, the young musician who finds his cue in the work songs and spirituals of the roustabouts and fights his family, the pitfalls of success and personal misfortune to bring the blues from Beale Street to Carnegie Hall.

The talented Eartha Kitt is the tempestuous Creole beauty who lures him on to ever greater heights to secure her own fame as a sinner and irresistible Pearl Bailey warmly plays the vital Aunt Hagar, a gallant ally against his stern minister father.

Cab Calloway, Mr. Hi-Di-Ho himself, is the schemer who buys Handy's first great song for a mere fifty dollars, and Ella Fitzgerald, cast as herself, displays her justly-famed voice in highclub sequences. A special treat is world-renowned gospel singer Mahalia Jackson, as the choir singer whose spirituals keep him rooted in faith when fate strikes him down.

"HOT ROD" BRINGS TOP SHOW TO ROYAL

WITH'S ace radio personality ("Hot Rod" presents a star-loaded revue behind the Royal footlights for one week opening Friday May 30 plus the usual Midnite show Friday. On the screen "Going Steady".

Featured in this fast-moving show are The Dells, those singing stars of "The Springer". The Moonglows, whose recording of "Sincerely" and "Soda Pop" were Rock and Roll classics; Varlie Carr, lovely songstress of "When The Boys Talk About The Girls".

Dee Clark, guitar star of "Wondering"; The Kings, of "You Never Know" fame; Marquita the tantilizing beauty and Tracy McCleary and his Royal Men of Rhythm.

'CRY TERROR' PLAYS AT THE HARLEM

"Cry Terror!" is a shock drama of mounting tension and chilling suspense.

The picture, now playing at the Harlem Theatre is the newest of this genre to be made for M-G-M as a Virginia and Andrew L. Stone Production, with the story written and directed by Andrew L. Stone, who has given the screen such previous suspense hits as "Julia," "The Night Holds Terror" and "Blueprint for Murder."

Starring in "Cry Terror!" are James Mason, Rod Steiger and Inger Stevens, with Neville Brand in a co-starring role and with the supporting cast featuring Angie Dickinson, Kenneth Tobey, Jack Klugman and Jack Kruschen.

Child actress Terry Ann Ross plays an important role as the daughter of Mason and Miss Stevens, and Mason's actual daughter, eight-year-old Portland Mason, also has a part in the film.

The story revolves about television repairman Jim Molner (Mason), who has been duped into making a miniature time bomb for his wartime friend, Paul Hoolin (Steiger), as a supposed Army project.

Instead, Hoolin uses the bomb threat in an attempt to extort $500,000 from an airline company. In executing his plot he kidnaps Molner, his wife (Miss Stevens) and their five-year-old daughter.

ABOVE ROBERT RYAN and Tina Louise in a torrid scene from "God's Little Acre" now playing at the Met Theatre. This explosive lusty story by Erskine Caldwell is one that 20 million readers said never could be made.
