SPECIAL SALES CONTINUE NEXT WEEK!

Last week we advertised special sales in three departments of our store, viz: MILLINERY, COATS AND SUITS, SHOES. The same low prices in these department will prevail next week, and we wish to add that although you may be required to drive 15 miles over bad roads, yet you will feel repaid by shopping at our store during these "Special Sale" days.

NEW SILKS

New Silks are being added to our present large line, and the very beauty and richness of them all make us enthusiastic in showing them to you. The best shades of the Silks in vogue are represented here. To make it all the more interesting for you to visit this department, we will sell next week our popular $1.00 one-yard wide Black Messaline and Taffeta Silk for 79c per yard.

THOMSON

GLOVE-FITTING CORSETS!

The foundation for proper-fitting gowns is the right Corset. Of the several good makes which we have in stock, none will give you more graceful lines, greater comfort and satisfactory wear than the Thomson. What more could a Corset possess than these qualities? We freely recommend it for your spring Corset.

Low, High and Medium Bust---$1.00 to $3.00 Pair.

In and Around Georgetown.

Miss Julia Elizabeth Woodal, daughter of Mrs. Andrew Woodall, was married to Mr. Thomas Chandler Cruikshank, Jr., of Cecil county, at 6.30 o'clock Saturday evening at the home of the bride's mother in Georgetown. The ceremony was performed by Father Daily, of St. Dennis' Church, of Galena, and was followed by a reception. The bride wore a handsome gown of white crepe meteor hand-embroidered and trimmed in pearls and real lace, with a telle veil fastened with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Alice Woodall, as maid of honor who wore yellow chiffon over yellow messaline handsomely embroidered in gold beads and carried a bouquet of yellow jonquills. The bride's maids were Miss Margaret Woodall and Miss Grace Cruikshank, who wore yellow chiffon over white messaline trimmed in pearls and rhinestones and carried bouquets of yellow jonquills. Master William Lecates, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer, and Mr. Louis Cruikshank, brother of the groom, was best man. The rooms were arranged with palms, ferns and yellow jessamine and the wedding music was played by Mrs. Holt Woodall, of Galena. Immediately after the reception mid showers of confetti the bride and groom were driven to their future home near Lambson and left on Sunday for a short wedding tour. The bride was the recipient of many useful and handsome presents consisting of silver, cutglass and linen.
