Mrs. Mae Allen named head of national Gay Northeasterners

With Lula Jones Garrett

The Gay Northeasterners held forth in Pittsburgh, Pa., last week, at what they tell me was truly a fabulous convention . . . but, what interests us more, elected a Baltimorean, Mae Wright Allen, to the national presidency.

Adding, of course, to Mae's national leadership record. She is the past national president of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

Also into a post (as corresponding secretary) went this town's Carol Blanton Diggs, pianist extraordinaire and member of Morgan State College's faculty.

Other national officers are: Dorothy Fleming of New York, first vice president; Myrtle Henderson of Boston, second vice president; Henrietta Smith of Philadelphia, recording secretary; Louise DeShields of Detroit, financial secretary; Lillian McCall, alas of Detroit, treasurer; Zelma Allen of Pittsburgh, parliamentarian and Frankie Deane of Washington, historian.

Pittsburgh, already in bloom because of the celebration of the city's 200th anniversary, provided additional gaity for Gays in form of an introduction party on Friday night, a sight . seeing tour and luncheon on Saturday, a formal dance that evening followed by an after party that went into the morning; all these in the Penn . Sheraton Hotel, convention headquarters; and brunch on Sunday in the home of Evelyn Johnson.

"Twas not all play, though. The group presented $200 to the Pittsburgh Committee for Mentally Retarded Children; selected Washington as the next meeting place.

Maxine Whedbee (incidentally Billy Eckstine's sister) heads the Pittsburgh chapter.

Baltimoreans attending were Ruth Lighston, Dukye Woode, Mrs. Allen and recent member, Lillian Parrott.

THE NATIVES are still excited over the loveliness of the Que Ettes' (wives of Omega men) formal dinner dance, Friday evening.

The affair, in the Galaxy Room of Friendship Airport, honored the husbands. Guests were invited for cocktails at seven; dinner at seven - thirty and the remainder of the evening, dancing.

The Sinbad Combo, directed by Albert Bailey, provided music throughout the evening.

The U-shaped banquet table was decorated with stemmed daisies with one place at each plate . . . and after the meal and while the group visited about the airport, the table was cleared away, and a cabaret arrangement set up for drinks and chatting throughout the evening.

Mattie Gardner was chairman of the affair, and was assisted on her committee by Sallie Fletcher and Myrtice Bennett.

Other Que - Ettes on the hostess roster were:

Meribah Bell, Bernice Branson, Mable Byrd, Beulah Darkins, Mae Folkes, Rose Hampton, Annabell Jackson, Bernice McDaniels, Charlotte Mebane;

Alma Parker, Agnes Patterson, Effietee Payne, Gladys Randolph, Ruth Rosedom, Patricia White, Perline Woolridge, Irene Carter, Mae Chamberlain and Francis Hill, president.

Sponsored by the Silhouettes of Kappa Alpha Psi, which is an auxiliary to the Baltimore Alumni Chapter of the fraternity, proceeds from the jazz concert will be used to augment the organization's scholarship fund in order to provide college and university scholarships for girls graduating from Baltimore city and county high schools.

Mrs. Dolores Augustus and Mrs. Gwendolyn Brooks, co-chairmen of the July 13 concert said that, in case of inclement weather, the performance will be held at Hurt Gymnasium of Morgan College Cold Spring Lane and Hillen Rd.

Members of their committee include: Stewart Brooks, Ike Dixon, Richard Hobson, Mrs. Rosita Uncles, Edward Z. Watson and John Wood.

Born at the turn of the century in New Orleans, his informal music training began in the Waifs Home, where he had been sent for a year of discipline when he was 13 years old, and continued as New Orleans jazz musicians recognized his potential and taught him bugle, cornet and finally, the trumpet techniques, for which he has become famous throughout the world.

By 1917, Armstrong had begun to accept professional engagements—first in his native New Orleans, then in Chicago, on a Mississippi excursion boat and in New York.

Dry, Scaly Skin Apt To Darken Fastest

Q.—Dear Mabel: Can you recommend something to help dry skin? Mine is so dry it feels rough and stiff and looks scaly. Please rush your advice . . . Mrs. A.J.S.

A.—Many of us are troubled with dry skin, especially people of light coloring. The first step is to use as little soap and water as possible. Next is to give your skin rich creaming. You can do this and keep it bright and fresh at the same time by using the enriched formula NADINOLA Bleaching Cream. It comes in the black carton and flat jar. Try our cosmetic oils in this NADINOLA formula and you get gentle bleaching too. Use NADINOLA twice daily and in a little while you'll be thrilled with results. Get the 69¢ or $1.25 size and apply morning and evening. I like to tell friends that NADINOLA is the first cream of its kind and the finest . . . Mabel Collins . . . NADINOLA, Paris, Tennessee.
