Your Banking Business solicited. Three per cent. paid on all Savings Deposits.

Very respectfully,

THE THIRD NATIONAL BANK of Chestertown, Md.

The spring presents the best time to buy your home or an investment in land.

I have 30 valuable farms in Kent alone, which can be bought at prices that will make these propositions superior to anything in which you could invest for a sure, steady investment.

These farms are for sale, not put up because they are worthless, but because the owners, for reasons of health, or too much land to till, or wanting a smaller farm, or too much in debt, are in a measure compelled to sell.

The list I can submit you is the result of careful investigation, and contains tracts of land that will prove a profitable investment for your FUNDS.

The profits of wise investments is greater in real estate than in any other line of investment.

Washington's Birthday at W. C.

Washington's Birthday will be observed at the college on February 22nd, with appropriate exercises. Owing to General Washington's intimate association with Washington College, both from the fact that the college is named for him and that he was a member of the first Board of Visitors and Governors, the college authorities and students have always tried to make the observation of his birthday one of the events of the college year.

The introduction of the oratorical contest for the Oates' Medals, as one of the features of the observation will, it is hoped, add a great deal to the interest of the function. Heretofore the contest has been held during commencement week but, with the belief that it would stimulate interest, both in the contest and exercises, the faculty decided to move the contest from commencement week to February 22nd. The contestants and subjects of their orations are: Wendell D. Allen, "Washington to the Twentieth Century;" Marion H. Landing, "Immortal Washington;" and Clyde M. Stouffer, "Virtue and Courage." The exercises will begin at 3 P. M. The college orchestra will furnish music for the occasion.

In the evening the Mt. Vernon Literary Society will hold its sixty-sixth annual banquet. Mr. Andrew W. Pardew, president of the society, is making every effort to have this banquet, as it has always been, one of the principal events of the college year. The banquet will be held at the Voshell House.

THE SOCIAL WORLD.

Other personals on page 2.

Mrs. Mollie Farringer, who has been quite sick for the past two weeks is greatly improved we are glad to state.

Miss Avis Sheppard has been visiting a Chicago friend in Philadelphia during the week.

Mrs. Fred S. Russell, accompanied by Mrs. H. G. Simpers, has been at Mercy Hospital, Baltimore, during the week for special treatment for the injury which she sustained recently in a driving accident. The X-Ray treatment disclosed a fracture of a small bone in her hip. Mrs. Russell is wearing a plaster of Paris cast, and she is on the road to complete recovery. She expects to arrive home to-day.

Mr. Krantz, a former student of Washington College, and Miss Sneider, of Baltimore were married in that city this week.

Miss Josephine Hicks left for Dillon, S. C., last Wednesday to resume her position in a large millinery establishment.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

MR. SAMUEL W. BROWN.

Mr. Samuel W. Brown, a former resident of Quaker Neck, this county, died suddenly in Chatsworth M. E. Church, Baltimore, Sunday morning, of heart disease. Mr. Brown, who was superintendent of the Sunday school, was in the act of making the closing prayer of the service when the tragedy occurred. He had asked the congregation to arise and join in the devotion, and was about to speak the first words of the prayer when he was seen to stagger and clutch at his breast. Several members of the congregation sprang to his side and lowered him gently to a chair. Restoratives were applied without avail, death having been instantaneous. The deceased was 65 years old and was born in Kent county. He resided for many years in Quaker Neck and was a life long member of Bond Church, until his removal to Baltimore several years ago, when he transferred his membership to Chatsworth. He is survived by his widow and nine children. They are Alvin R., Samuel W., Jr., Charles H., George M. and Lawrence R. Brown; Mrs. John T. Lee and Mrs. William Maloney and Misses Alice B. and Delia C. Brown. The body was brought to Chestertown on Tuesday on steamer Ford and reated in the M. E. Church. Interment was made on Wednesday morning, in Chester cemetery, after services which were conducted by Rev. Robert E. Ziegler, of Baltimore, Rev. Wm. McCann and Rev. A. H. Covey, of Pomona, and Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett. The pall-bearers were: Wm. E. Brown, J. W. Brown, John C. Davis, A. S. Crawford, M. A. Toulson and William Vansant. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of arrangements.

MRS. MARTHA DODD.

Mrs. Martha Dodd, 72 years old, mother of Mrs. Aristides S. Goldsborough, died suddenly Sunday night at the home of her daughter, 2712 St. Paul street, Baltimore. Death was due to heart failure. Mrs. Dodd had been in ill health for some time previous to her death, and, although she had been confined to her bed for several weeks, members of the family felt confident that she would get well. Early Sunday morning, just 20 minutes before she died, she suffered an attack of heart failure. Mrs. Dodd was born in Queen Annes county, and was the daughter of the late John H. and Martha Evans. She was educated at the Maryland School for Girls, at Luthersville. Mrs. Dodd was married twice, her first husband being the late John Reed. Two children (Mrs. A. S. Goldsborough and J. Arthur Reed) from her first marriage survive. Her second husband was the late John Dodd, and after his death, eight years ago, Mrs. Dodd went to Baltimore to live with her daughter. She leaves one brother, Col. John H. Evans, of Rolph's wharf, now in Florida, and two sisters, Mrs. Annie Massey and Mrs. Katherine Hurlock, of this county. Mrs. Sidney P. Townshend, of this town is a niece. Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at five o'clock, at the home of her daughter in Baltimore. The remains were brought to Church Hill via steamer Ford, on Tuesday and intered in the cemetery of that town.

JESSE H. T. HUBBARD.

Jesse H. T. Hubbard, aged about 80 years, one of the oldest and wealthiest citizens of Easton and a retired merchant, died at his home on South Harrison street, Easton, Saturday night of pneumonia. Mr. Hubbard was a life-long Democrat and was justice of the peace in Easton for about 20 years. Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard, of this town, is a relative.

New Label System.—The Adams' Express Company has recently inaugurated a system by which it is easy to tell whether or not express has been prepaid on packages. If you receive a package with a yellow label on it, pay no charges, for charges have been prepaid. When a package carries a white label the express has not been paid. The new label system has been adopted to conform with an order of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

STEREOPTICON LECTURE.

A Stereopticon Lecture will be given in the Georgetown Presbyterian Church FEB. 20th; Weer's Hall, Kennedyville, FEB. 22nd, and Worton Presbyterian Church FEB. 28th. The title of the lecture is that of the best of the stories written by Charles M. Sheldon, namely, "In His Steps." It will be beautifully illustrated by a double stereopticon. There will be 48 superb pictures. In addition to this, parts of the lecture will be illuminated by three illustrated songs. "The Holy City" will be sung and embellished with eight magnificent pictures; the "Ninety and Nine" with five, and "Lead Kindly Light" with three. The whole will be a delightfully interesting and edifying lecture, and the price for admission is only 10 cents for children and 20 cents for adults. A rare treat. The proceeds will be devoted to the purchase of new hymnals. f15-2t.

SUPPER.
