LOCAL MATTERS

Engagement Announced.—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Jefferson, of Chestertown, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mable Thompson, to Mr. Frederick Burton Sylvester, of Hillsboro, Md. The wedding will take place in the early spring.

Bought Fine Brood Mare.—Mr. Robt. J. McWhorter attended the Penn State Horse Sale in Philadelphia this week and while there he purchased Tosa Todd, a fine five-year-old mare, record 2.27½. Tosa Todd is by the great sire Todd, out of Tosa Axtellion, whose breeding goes back to the great Axtell. The mare is a great addition to the local horse world, and Mr. McWhorter will use her as a brood mare.

Sells His Farm.—Mr. Wm. F. Wink has sold to Mrs. Mollie Hines and her son, Dr. W. Frank Hines, his fine little farm in Quaker Neck, adjoining the Emory estate. The farm contains 94 acres of finely improved land, and the price paid is said to have been $6,500. Mr. Emory, now tenanting Mrs. Hines' farm near Brice's mill, we understand will tenant the farm after January 1, when possession is to be given. Mr. Wink will purchase another farm. The deal was made by J. Waters Russell, real estate broker.

Farmers' Institute.—The Farmers' Institute for Kennedyville and Chestertown will be held March 10th at Kennedyville at 10 A. M. and 1 P. M., at Chestertown March 11th at 10 A. M., 1.30 P. M. and 7.30 P. M. Dr. Richard S. Hill, director of institutes, has secured a number of prominent speakers who will discuss timely subjects at each meeting. The Queen Annes dates are Church Hill, March 12th, Price's Station, March 13, Centreville March 14th and 15th.

Pleased With Results.—Mr. Julian Brown, whose "light" advertisement was inserted in the TRANSCRIPT for the first time last week, stated to us that he is very much pleased with the results the paper has brought. He stated that he has received several very important communications from parties who stated that they had seen his advertisement in the TRANSCRIPT, and he goes to Baltimore to-day to confer with a large company in reference to installing his lights. The TRANSCRIPT is a "live wire," it shocks some people, but never fails to bring the desired results because it is so widely read and so much talked about. Ain't it so?

Wins Corn Prizes.—Mr. Josiah Massey, one of the most progressive and successful farmers in Queen Annes, has been notified by letter that his exhibit of white corn won second prize at the great national corn show, and this same corn won first prize in the Eastern Zone. Mr. Massey's corn finally competed with Kentucky for national sweepstakes on white corn, Kentucky finally winning. Maryland won first in every class in the Eastern Zone excepting yellow corn. Mr. Massey is justly proud of his prize, and it stamps him as one of the country's expert corn growers. He is now directing his eyes towards the great Philadelphia show, where he will compete for prizes on corn. Hurrah, for friend Joe.

The pony belonging to the Barroll boys ran off with little Miss Mary Rogers Hynson and Lloyd Connelly in the runabout on Monday afternoon.
