Multitudes of People

take SCOTT'S EMULSION regularly to repair wasted vitality and enrich the blood to withstand winter colds and exposure.

It contains the highest grade of cod liver oil, medically perfected; it is a cream-like food-medicine, scrupulously pure and healthful without drug or stimulant. Endorsed and advocated by medical authorities everywhere.

SCOTT'S EMULSION drives out colds—nourishes the membranes of the throat and lungs and keeps them healthy.

Nothing equals SCOTT'S EMULSION for lung and bronchial weakness—sore, tight chests and all pulmonary troubles.

Equally good for infants, children or adults, but you must have SCOTT'S.

In the above statement charged to use of pump house is one item of $215.51 which was for material furnished in 1911, but no bill was presented until 1912, deducting this from the amount charged pump house and we have the sum of $1,756.97, which is the amount actually expended in 1912 for use at pump house, as all invoices for the year are in.

We have examined the books of the Superintendent and Treasurer, and find that the above is a true statement of the condition of the water department as shown by them.

"BUICK" DINNER TO DEALERS.

E. McNeal Shannahan Tenders Banquet To Buick Dealers Of Eastern Shore And Officials of Buick Company.

On Thursday evening of last week, at his residence on Dover street, Easton, E. McNeal Shannahan, of the Shannahan & Wrightson Hardware Company, distributors of the Buick automobiles for the Eastern Shore, gave a dinner to the various dealers and to P. S. Russell, manager of the Buick Company, and Edward Wilkie, sales manager of the company. The decorations for the occasion were exceptionally original and unique, eliciting many exclamations of delight from the twelve guests present.

In the reception hall a Buick motor, the metal shining brightly, was mounted upon a table, and served later in the evening as a topic for a speech by one of the company's officials. Automobile tires with Buick pennants draped within the circles, were suspended upon the walls and served to enhance the "Buick" effect.

But the decoration of the dining room was the crowning achievement of the evening. There also Buick tires encircling Buick pennants hung from the walls with guard chains looped strikingly between them. The Buick colors, blue and white, everywhere predominated and a large festoon effect from the ceiling joined the miniature Buick limousure in the center of the table. A Buick "honk-honk" substituted for the usual electric table bell. The favors were miniature leather Buick tool kits and Buick chauffer's caps, which, opened, revealed a dainty confection iced with the Buick trade-mark.

The service and the various courses were all distinctive by some original use of the Buick trade-mark. The ices were in the form of Buick automobiles, carrying passengers, and "Buick" was everywhere introduced in novel ideas.

Speeches were made by all those present, and the guests arose from the table at a late hour. Those present were: Olin Davis, of Davis Bros., Elkton; Harry Graham, of Graham & Clements, Chestertown; Jacob Covey, of Covey & Williams, Federalsburg; Charles Dean, of Queen Anne's; Airy Brannock, Cambridge; Ormond Downs, Denton; P. S. Russell, manager Buick Motor Company, Philadelphia; Edw. Wilkie, sales manager of Buick Motor Company, Philadelphia; S. Harry Shannahan, Elwood Peters, John Mitchell, Emory Lednum, E. McNeal Shannahan, of Easton.

Betterton Literary Club.

The Musical and Literary Club met at the home of Mrs. Ernest Briscoe on Thursday evening of last week. A large attendance was present. Arrangements for the banquet which is to be given by the club were talked of, which committee on such held a meeting at the home of the president, J. H. Gooding, on Monday evening. The banquet was held on Feb. 21, 1913. After all the business was completed the following program was rendered: Piano solo, Miss Irene Crownhart; duet, Mrs. Gooding and Mr. Raymond Herbert; reading, Miss Crowhast, on the life of Lincoln, was enjoyed by all; violin solo, Mrs. Jones; reading on the national hymns, by Miss Lillie Crownhart, which piece was both beautiful and inspiring; Mr. Harry Willis gave an interesting reading on the "Sociability of Town and Country Folk;" Miss Hazel Crew gave a reading on one of Lincoln's speeches that, with the rest, bordered on the observation of his birthday, Feb. 12, 1909; reading, Mr. Kelley; chorus, by the club, of one of the national hymns; reading, Mrs. Lewis. The evening was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Refreshments were served and all departed to their homes.
