3 youths given 4-years terms in robbery try

"You boys are headed for serious crime."

Judge James K. Cullen gave this warning and four year sentences in the State Reformatory for Males Thursday in Criminal Court to three youths convicted of attempted to rob a Pennsylvania Ave. Tavern.

The three are Benjamin Augustus, 18, 2200 block W. Lanvale St.; Robert M. Blackwell, 19, 1900 block Braddish Ave., and Lascello Gallup, 18, 1800 block Eutaw Pl.

John Graham, a chef cook, of the 700 block Eisles St., told Judge Cullen the three jumped him as he entered the lavatory of the tavern about 11 p.m. June 24.

George E. Banks, 500 block Brice St., a special policeman at the tavern, testified he heard Mr. Graham's cry for help. He said he surprised the three youths, and held them at gun point until Northwestern District policemen arrived.

Young Augustus said he entered the tavern lavatory, and Mr. Graham attacked him. Gallup said he entered next and grabbed Augustus.

Blackwell contended he entered just before the special policeman.

PAUL WARTZMAN, assistant State's attorney, revealed that all three of the youths had records.

Blackwell said he was a Polystudent, eligible for a University of Maryland scholarship. He told Judge Cullen he had a lung ailment.

Some relatives of the boys left the court room crying loudly as sentences were given. Some of them were still crying in the outside corridors 15 minutes later.

Among them were some relatives and friends who, moments before, had laughed loudly in court when young Augustus had this exchange with Mr. Wartzman:

Q — You say Mr. Graham hit you and you hit him back. Weren't you afraid of him?

A — I ain't afraid of nothing.

Q — Mr. Graham is a big man. He weighs over 200 pounds. Didn't that frighten—?

A — He ain't so big.

Earl Thompson was 17 years old

In a story which appeared in the AFRO Late City edition of July 26, it was incorrectly stated that Earl A. Thompson who died on June 29 was 30 years of age and resided in the 1100 block of Appleton St.

The story should have read that Mr. Thompson was 17 and resided in the 800 block of Appleton St., The AFRO regrets the error.

Ernest Levy

A 63-year-old retired contractor died in University Hospital last Monday after spending the past month there.

A native Baltimorean, Ernest Levy, 3512 Woodbrook Ave., retired from his business 12 years ago, due to his failing health. He was the son of Sophie and David Levy of Calvert County, Md.

He was a member of Israel Baptist Church where the church was moved from the 1600 block of Presstman St.

HE IS survived by his wife, Mrs. Betsey Levy; three sisters, Mrs. Mamie Levy Johnson, Mrs. Fannie Hamilton and Mrs. Gertrude Winton.

Also surviving is a daughter, Mrs. Alice Johnson; three sons, Marcella, Moses, and Clarence Levy; 10 nieces, five nephews and six grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at Gillis Memorial C. C. Church Friday. Burial was in Arbutus Memorial Cemetery.

Frissell Lemon

Frissell Lemon, 45, 1806 N. Monroe St., died suddenly in Johns Hopkins Hospital Sunday at 8 p.m. after being rushed there a half-hour before when he collapsed in his home.

Born in Goucester, Va., Mr. Lemon lived in Baltimore the past 25 years. He worked as a gardener, chauffeur and handyman for a private home in the 1800 block of Druid Hill Ave. for a number of years.

He was an avid sports fan and enjoyed watching boxing and baseball on television. An Oriole booster, he tried to attend most of their games.

HE IS survived by his wife, Mrs. Violet Lemon; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Lemon, 2327 W. Lanvale St.; three children, Frissell, 11, Maria, 2, and Vivian, one; and two sisters, Mrs. Clara Bickford of Gloucester, Va., and Mrs. Edith Fowlkes of Baltimore.

The car was owned by Norman E. Miller of the 800 block W. 34th St. The truck belonged to a waste-paper firm.

A reckless driving charge was also filed against Cleophus Moore Jr., 26, of the 1500 block W. Moreland Ave., following a collision at Druid Hill Ave., and Eutaw St., last Thursday.

The second car was owned by Benjamin S. Joffe, 41, of the 7000 block Concord Rd.

'Tree man' gets suspended fine, 'pals' go free

A 70-year-old man who earlier in the week was accused of assaulting a blond woman near his home, a tree in Druid Hill Park, was given a $10 suspended fine Tuesday afternoon in Northern Police Station.

The defendant, Freeman Johnson pleaded guilty to having a can of beer in his possession in the park, and not guilty to disorderly conduct.

In connection with the arrest of Freeman, Orion R. Benson, 49, and his wife, Mrs. Emiley Johnson, 40, of the 1500 block Park Ave. were found not guilty of disorderly conduct.

The woman and her husband were arrested at the spot where the alleged attack took place in company with Freeman.

All were sitting around the hollow tree which Freeman called home.

Matron screams, intruder flees

Mrs. Corine Smith, 33, 1900 block W. North St., has told Northwestern Police she awoke Wednesday morning to find a man standing beside her bed.

She said he told her, "don't scream or I'll hurt you," but she screamed anyway and he ran out.

Mrs. Smith told police three young children were in the room with her when the man came in through an open window.
