Betterton Literary Club.

The Musical and Literary Club gave its banquet at Owen's Cottage Feb. 21, 1913. The scene presented to the members of its heavy laden table and their friends was one of beauty and the ambition of the club sociability. About forty-nine persons partook of the good things. All persons at leaving signified their pleasure of the evening. The menu consisted: Sea food, raw oysters, oysters on toast, fried oysters, fowl, roast turkey; meats, roast ham, salads, chicken salad, potato salad, tomatoo salad with mayonnaise dressing; bread, cold slaw, jellies, olives, pickles, celery, crackers and cheese, Maryland biscuits, fruits, nuts, coffee, ice cream. Toasts to which responses were ably given. Silent toasts given to the host and hostess were drunk also to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Briscoe for their untiring efforts to make the banquet the success of the evening. All members deserve much credit. After the regular proceedings a programme consisting of: Piano duet, Miss Hazel Crew, Mrs. Brice; recitation, Miss Ada Hurlock; solo, Mrs. J. H. Gooding; diologue, Miss Hazel Crew, Miss Hailey Bryce, Miss Ireno Crownhart, Miss Marie Brice; violin solo, Mrs. Jones; solo, Mr. L. Bank Statement That All Can Understand

STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF

THE THIRD NATIONAL BANK

OF CHESTERTOWN, MD.,

At the Close of Business, February 4th, 1913.

RESOURCES

Loans and Discounts

This item represents loans made to farmers, merchants and others in this locality, said loans are secured by first-class Stock or Bonds or strong personal endorsement. They aggregate $476,987.94

Overdrafts

Small number of accounts overdrawn 61.21

United States Bonds

You have no doubt heard the remark "as good as a Government Bond." Well, this bank has seen fit to invest largely in these securities. We own United States Bonds amounting to 51,000.00

Bonds, Securities, Etc.

The policy of investing a good portion of a bank's funds in first-class bonds, is now regarded with favor by all conservative bankers. This is our policy. Our investments of this character are all in high-class bonds and aggregate 146,846.25

Banking House, Furniture and Fixtures

This bank owns the property and building in which its business is conducted. The original cost was much greater, but we have allowed for depreciation, and carry it on our books at 11,000.00

Due from National Banks and Bankers

(Not Reserve Agents)

These items consist of the balance due us from all other banks with whom we carry reciprocal accounts, exclusive of our regular reserve. They amount to 350.84

Due from Approved Reserve Agents

This item represents the amount of money we have on deposit with banks in Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, subject to our check at any time. The government requires this that banks may always be prepared with funds to meet the demands of depositors. We have on hand with these approved banks 73,938.18

Cash in Bank

This item requires no explanation. It is part of our Reserve Fund, and amounts to ... 35,478.69

Redemption Fund

All National Banks are required to keep on deposit with the Treasurer of the United States, a sum equal to 5 per cent. of their circulation. Against this deposit is charged all notes redeemed by the U. S. Treasury 3,500.00

Our total resources aggregate $799,163.11

LIABILITIES

Capital Stock Paid in

Divided into 500 shares with a par value of $100 each, and held by the representative business men and citizens of the community. The amount of capital assures financial strength. The capital of this bank is $50,000.00

Surplus

Surplus is a certain portion of the earnings set aside as a safeguard against possible loss or shrinkage in values. The government concedes a bank to be sufficiently protected when its surplus equals one-fifth of its capital. Our surplus is three-fifths of our capital, giving us a strength far in excess of the government requirements 30,000.00

Undivided Profits

This item includes all the net profits of the bank to this date, excepting the sums carried to surplus account and paid out in dividends. Our undivided profits are 14,136.70

National Bank Notes Outstanding

Showing the amount of bank notes that have been issued by the government, and are in circulation. Our money is guaranteed by the United States Government. It amounts to 50,000.00

Due to Other Banks

This item shows the aggregate of the balance due by us to banks with whom we carry reciprocal accounts. We owe these banks 102.71

Individual Deposits

This item consists of more than two thousand accounts. Some of the accounts are the largest, strongest and most influential business houses in Kent county and vicinity. A large portion, however, are small accounts, for we welcome alike large and small accounts, and take a special interest in new and growing accounts. Our deposits, subject to check, amount to 653,923.70

United States Deposits

We take special pride in this item. Never before did any bank in Kent county have on deposit belonging to the United States Government. It speaks for itself. Of course it proves that the United States officials have confidence in the management of this institution. This deposit amounts to 1,000.00

Our total liabilities aggregate $799,163.11
