Mrs. Edwards retires at Meade

Seventeen years of "loyal and faithful" service were honored Monday at Ft. George G. Mead when Mrs. Rachel Edwards, of Waterburg, Md. an employee of the Post Quartermaster Laundry here since 1941, was presented a retirement plaque by Major H. A. Barrante of the office of the Post Quartermaster.

At the same time, Mrs. Edwards was presented a gift of luggage by fellow employees of the laundry.

The presentation was made by Mrs. Hazel Sewall, Mrs. Edwards' supervisor in the pressing department. O. L. Johnson, Post Laundry Officer, acted as master of ceremonies.

Judge and Mrs. E. Everett Lane homeward on 40-day cruise

...with Lula Jones Garrett

Judge and Mrs. E. Everett Lane will dock in New York, Monday, after a 40day trip that has taken them to the Arctic Region and back through Europe . . . each minute of which say they, has been interest-packed.

But read the most recent letter from Kitty (Mrs.Lj): Says she:

"I had thought that on a cruise there would be ample time to write,but actually when we are at sea there is something to do every hour.

"First, there is the food. Aside from three full course meals each day, Smorgasbord is served at noon and at 11 in the evening. Added to this, tea is served at four in the afternoon and cocktails at 6:30.

"Also there is formal dancing and a recital each night. During the day there are lectures, movies, cards and private cocktail parties. So it goes.

"This has been a revealing experience for us, though. The Arctic Region was fascinating with it's 24 hours of daylight, and the trip through the fjords was magnificent.

"As to cities, we visited Bergen, Oslo, Stockholm, Helsinki and Copenhagen. We called Anne Brown while we were in Olso, but she was singing in Paris and London. However, we had a long chat with her husband, Thor Leif Schielder-up.

"Everyone in Norway knows both of them. Anne had made a fine life her herself here, and is respected as a person and as an artist. Curiously enough, the Commodore of our ship said that when Anne came to Norway to be married, she crossed on his ship.

"After leaving Hamburg, we shall be in Holland and Belgium. I have a tentative date at the World's Fair with Annis Duncan, who teaches at Springarn High School in Washington.

"Last week I received a cable gram from my sister, Anna Julian, but otherwise I've had no word from home. Ev just said he'd give four German marks for a copy of the AFRO.

"We get long news bulletins each day and when we are in port we get the London papers and the Paris edition of a New York paper. Home news is nil.

"Tonight we are going to a series of night clubs and beer stubes in Hamburg, but neither of us needs a drop of beer as we are so fat that we look like two beached whales. I suppose this is the price (and worth it) we must pay for travel on a luxury liner. Bentalou Street was never like this.

"Next week we sail for home. We expect to dock in New York on August 11. Everett hates the prospect of the heat. I have worn suits and a winter coat ever since I left home."

ON SUNDAY AFTERNOON at four thirty Maizie Barbour and Robert Rea will be married in the Douglas Memorial Church, with the Rev. Marion Bascom officiating.

Because of the recent death of the bridegroom's mother, the ceremony will be closed to members of the families and a small reception will follow in the parlor of the church.

Miss Barbour is the daughter of Mrs. Orinon John Barbour and the late Mr. Barbour, a graduate of Howard University, a member of the faculty of Carver Vocational High School. Mr. Rea, son of the late E. B. Rea, former theatrical editor of the AFRO-AMERICAN, and the late Mrs. Rea, is district circulation manager of the AFRO.

Sentiment with a capital S will be the keynote of the wedding. Actually, the bride had to buy a piece of lingerie to be sure she would wear something "new" at her wedding.

Her wedding gown of ivory satin is the same worn by her close friend, Blanche Day Hargrove. Her veil of hand made Belgian lace is an heirloom worn by several brides of her family.

Her jewelry will include a diamond lavalier, an anniversary gift from her grandfather to her grandmother, which she inherited; and the pearl earrings she will wear are a gift that came from her father.

The gown is made on princess lines with unpressed box pleats flowing into a cathedral train. Its yoke of illusion is outlined with a double strand of seed pearls. She will carry a bouquet of butterfly orchids and stephanotis.

The bride will be given in marriage by her uncle, Clarence Barbour, of Charlottesville, Va., and will be attended by Mrs. Melvin Johnson.

Mrs. Johnson will wear turquoise silk organza, ballerina length and a small hat of turquoise velveteen trimmed with pearls and worn with a half veil. Her bouquet will be of yellow chrysanthemums.

Mr. Rea will have as best man, Bernard Baker, and ushers will be Robert Hackett and Titus Garnett.

For her wedding trip, Miss Barbour has chosen a radiant blue silk chemise, a hat in shocking pink (which Net Sheridan has created for her) and navy accessories. Upon their return the couple will occupy an apartment on Callow Avenue.

SATURDAY'S WEDDING will be that of Mrs. Ruth Mills, of the faculty of School No. 135, and Kenneth Fauntleroy, postal clerk.

The ceremony will take place in St. James Protestant Episcopal Church at high noon, with Father Cedric Mills performing the ceremony, and William Parrott at the console.

Miss Mills is the niece of Mrs. M. Alice Harris, who, if you recall is the widow of Dr. William E. Harris. The bridegroom - to - be; the son of Mrs. Margaret Fauntleroy, is a widower.

Mrs. Mills has selected an all - pink ensemble for her wedding. Her street - length gown has a net bodice and a very wide skirt of voile. Her hat, in the same shade of pink, has a brief flirtation veil, and her shoes and gloves match the gown. She will carry a white orchid on a Prayer Book.

Mrs. Lillian Wilson, attendant, will be gowned in muted blue, with matching hat, shoes and gloves, and her bouquet will be of garden flowers.

Denver Blackwell will serve as best man.

Following the ceremony the couple will receive guests at their new home on Oakhurst Rd. They will be assisted by Mesdames Rosa Lewis, Margaret Beaman, Marie Berry and Myrtle Blackwell; and Mr. Beulah Tolson, serving as reception hostesses.

After a wedding trip to Canada, the couple will be at home at the end of this month.

MRS. ALICE LOCKERMAN MACBETH of Los Angeles Calif., visiting relatives here, has been about the most feted lady on the local heath, this week.

Mrs. Lillian Parrott entertained for her at luncheon, Saturday. She has been the guest of honor at dinner of Mrs. Mildred Seaborne, at lunch of Mrs. Florence Wright and at dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cornish.

And of course, there was the reception which her brother and sister - in - law, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Lockerman gave for her on Saturday night.

In the receiving line with hosts and honoree also, was her sister - in - law, Mrs. Joseph Saunders.

Mrs. Lockerman set the tone for her party in a beautiful empire gown of green print, the high waist marked with a dark green belt and a front bow, the neckline a becoming off - shoulder.

For the affair Mrs. Macbeth chose an Indian print in green and pink; and Mrs. Saunders, NEWLYWEDS—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Collins who were married recently at the Riggs Ave. home of the bridegroom's cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hurt. Mrs. Collins is the former Miss Martha Gordy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Gordy of Parsonsburg, Md. He is the son of George Collins and the late Mrs. Phoebe Collins. The bride is a graduate of Cortez Peters Business School. Mr. Collins is a Social Security clerk. They are at home at 2354 Eutaw Place.

Owenses like life near water

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Owe 1214 Whitelock St. and the children spend each summer and as much time as possible at their waterside home on Beechwood Forest Rd. on the Magothy.

They own a small cabin "Cruisalong" cruiser and go on as many cruises as possible during vacation.

Mrs. Owens (Dorothy) is a fifth grade teacher at Elementary School No. 140 while Mr. Owens is a placement officer at the Maryland State Employment Service.

Their son Franklin, III is eight years old and is quite a sailing fan while daughter Margaret is 16 and also enjoys fun aboad the cruiser.

Mr. Owens is Commodore of the Neptune Yatch Club and the family looks forward to several cruises before August is over.

The Owenses plan to celebrate their 18th wedding anniversary on Aug. 22 and although plans are indefinite, they feel sure the occasion will be marked with a cruise aboad their boat.

Monday Evening Book Club to discuss 'Must You Conform?'

The Monday Evening Book Club at Baltimore Fellowship has selected for the next book "Must You Conform?" by the late Dr. Robert Lindner, noted Baltimore psychiatrist and author.

The group which meets on Monday evenings at 8:30 at Fellowship House, 21 W. Preston Street, is open to the public as well as to the members of the Fellowship. In addition to reading and discussing the selected book, members are encouraged to read other books by the same author or kindred works by other writers. Refreshments are served following the 2-hour discussions.

• • •

MRS. REBEKAH J. MITCHELL is chairman of the club and Miss Ruth Fegeley is director of Baltimore Fellowship.

The Club will attend the lecture by Kaka Saheb Kalelkar, of India, which will be held in the Mondawmin Center lecture room Monday, Aug. 11. The talk will be on Ghandi and non-violent resistance, which is of particular interest to the Book Club this year, been studying Louis Fischer's "Life of Ghandi."

The regular Monday night meetings will be reasumed Aug. 11.

Dry, Scaly Skin Apt To Darken Fastest

Q.—Dear Mabel: Can you recommend something to help dry skin? Mine is so dry it feels rough and stiff and looks ashy. Please rush your advice . . . Mrs. A.J.S.

A.—Many of us are troubled with dry skin, especially people of light coloring. The first step is to use as little soap and water as possible. Next is to give your skin rich creaming. You can do this and keep it bright and fresh at the same time by using the enriched formula NADINOLA Bleaching Cream. It comes in the black carton and flat jar. You get cosmetic oils in this NADINOLA formula and you get gentle bleaching too. Use NADINOLA twice daily and in a little while you'll be thrilled with results. Get the 69c or $1.25 size and apply morning and evening. I like to tell friends that NADINOLA is the first cream of its kind and the finest — Mabel Collins . . . NADINOLA, Paris, Tennessee.
