Washington Celebrates.

Washington's birthday was celebrated at Washington College last Saturday in a most appropriate manner. As an innovation in this function, the oratorical contest for the Oates medals was shifted from commencement week to February 22d, and it proved a most enjoyable feature of the celebration on Saturday. President James W. Cain, in his usual happy manner, "prefaced" the contest with an appropriate address for the day. The three contestants and their subjects were as follows:

Wendell DeWitt Allen, "Washington and the Twentieth Century."

Marion Howk Landing, "Immortal Washington."

Clyde M. Stouffer, "Virtue and Courage."

Each oration was full of sound thought and was constructed nicely, and each was delivered in fine manner. The judges, Hon. James A. Pearce, John D. Urie and Prof. J. S. W. Jones, awarded first prize to Wendell DeWitt Allen and second prize to Marion Howk Landing, with honorable mention to Mr. Stouffer.

The college orchestra furnished splendid music, and the orations were interspersed with the singing of the national airs by the audience.

MT. VERNON BANQUET.

The annual closed banquet of the Mt. Vernon Literary Society was held at the Voshell House on Saturday evening. Fifty-five members and guests were present, and Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson, proprietors of the hotel, outdid themselves in the splendid preparation and excellent service of the following tempting menu:

Chincoteague Oysters on half shell
Gerkins Olives Oysteretts
Consomme Royale Cheese Straws Saltines
Roast Turkey Giblet Sauce
Hominy Browned Sweet Potatoes
Cranberry Sauce Celery
Pineapple Punch Cherries
Smithfield Ham baked with wine
French Peas Creamed Asparagus
Cold Slaw
Chicken Salad Mayonnaise Dressing
Maryland Biscuits French Rolls
Harlequin Cream Assorted Cakes
Assorted Nuts Raisins
Mints
Coffee Tea
Cigars Cigarettes

Mr. Andrew W. Pardew, the president of the society, was toastmaster, and he presided with dignity and introduced the speakers in a very pleasant manner. Those who reponded to toasts were:

Prof. W. Raymond Moody, "The Society and the Individual."

S. Scott Beck, Esq., "The Board of Visitors."

Prof. Wm. Frazier Russell, Jr., "The True Mt. Vernon Spirit."

Wendell D. Allen, "The Future of Mt. Vernon."

The officers of the Mt. Vernon Society, which is one of the oldest college fraternities in the east, are:

President—Andrew W. Pardew.
Vice-president—W. Lester Baldwin.
Treasurer—Herbert F. Davis.
Historian—W. Holton Parr.
Recording Secretary—G. Conrad Reier.
Correspondent Secretary—Allen B. Harris.
Sergeant-at-arms—Merle Lether.
Critic—Marion H. Landing.

Hicks' Forecasts for March.

There is a reactionary storm period central on the 1st, 2nd and 3rd. This is at the exact center of the great Jupiter period, with the Mars and Earth equinoctial periods in full combined force. Storms all the way from tropical in the south, to boreal gales and blizzards northward should surprise no one at this or any other period during this month. A very cold wave will spread over most parts of the country from about the 3rd to the 6th, sweeping from northwest to southwest.

A regular storm period is central on the 8th, involving the 9th to the 11th. New Moon on the 7th, and Moon on the celestial equator on the 8th, with the Venus period adding its influence to Earth, Mars and Jupiter, violent storms and other disturbances will be natural and certain, from about Friday the 7th to Tuesday the 11th. Blizzards from the notrhwest will meet these tropical storms, all ending in high, destructive gales and a March cold wave. A marked seismic period extends from the 5th to the 12th, being central on the 7th.

A reactionary storm period covers the 13th, 14th and 15th. The Moon will be at greatest north declination at this time, hence wind currents will be from southerly points the temperature will be higher, the barometer will fall, followed by rain and wind, ending in rising barometer and change to much colder for several days following.

A regular storm period involves the 17th to the 23rd. The center of Earth's equinox falls on the 22nd, within two days of the center of the Venus equinox on the 24th. The Moon will be in opposition with the Earth and Sun, at an eclipse node, on the 22nd, and on the celestial equator and in perigee on the 21st.

A reactionary storm period is central on the 24th, 25th and 26th—coincident with the center of the Venus period. The probabilities are that a prolonged spell of hard, stormy weather will merge the storm periods at this time but storms will be more pronounced and general on the reactionary days—24th, 25th and 26th.

A regular storm period covers the last three days of March, and the first three days of April. The Mercury equinox is added to those of Vulcan, Venus, Earth and Jupiter at this time, so that it is reasonably sure that March will be rough and stormy to the end.

Who Were These People?—A carriage driven by a Mr. Manlove, of near Cecilton, was struck by an automobile about two miles west of that town one evening last week. Although the vehicle was badly damaged, the automobile did not stop, and Mr. Manlove was compelled to go to Middletown and secure another carriage in which to return home. Such joy riding as this should be punishable by a heavy fine.
