CANDIDATE FOR TREASURER.

About one month ago, after being urged by many of my friends all over the county, I gave my consent to serve as a candidate for Treasurer, and take this method to further announce my name for that office.

LOCAL MATTERS

Mr. Clements Will.—The will of the late Aiday Clements was probated on Tuesday. It disposes of an estate of an estimated value of $250,000. Under the will the widow and eldest son, Mr. Merrick Clements, are made executors. The real estate is devised as follows: Mr. Merrick Clements is to receive the home farm; David, the Hurtt or Merchant farm; and George the farm near Chesterville. Each of the three daughters also is left a farm, the brothers to pay cash consideration to equalize values in farms. The personalty, consisting of stocks, bonds, etc., in addition to farm equipment, is divided equitably.

Big Fire at Rehoboth.—A conflagration which destroyed 30 cottages together with the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Atlantic Hotel, swept over Rehoboth last Saturday, causing $150,000 damages. The fire started from an explosion of gasoline in a garage, and fanned by a stiff breeze from the ocean rapidly spread from one building to another, and the meagre fire protection of one small chemical engine was totally unable to cope with the blaze. Rev. R. H. Adams, of the Wilmington Conference, was a heavy loser, his loss being three good size cottages. An investigation of the cause of the fire is being made.

To Build Road.—A delegation of Still Pond and Betterton residents along the route of the proposed new road from Betterton to Still Pond Station appeared before the Board of County Commissioners on Tuesday and put up their note for the (fund $2000), which they guaranteed before the road could be built. The commissioners advised the delegation that they will take the matter up immediately, and would advertise for bids for the erection of the road. The road will be a trifle over four miles in length, and will cost approximately $20,000. Of this sum the citizens along the route pay $2000, the county pays $8000 and the State $10,000. The road will be built under the provisions of the Shoemaker Act, and under the supervision of the State road engineer.

Making Machinery for Panama Canal.—Mr. William Welch, son of Mrs. Harriet Welch, of this town, who is employed with the Bucyrus Company, of South Milwaukee, one of the largest machinery manufacturing concerns in the country, sends us a clipping from one of the Milwaukee papers stating that his company has been awarded the contract with the United States government for two of the biggest bucket dredges to be used on the Panama Canal to remove the dirt that will come down in the famous slides which occur from time to time in the Culebra Cut. Mr. Welch states that his company has built most of the machinery for the canal, and that they are at work on the dredges. You can't get ahead of the Chestertown boy. He is bound to be on top, it makes no difference where you put him, and friend Welch is rapidly pushing to the front in his profession.

Horse Broke Its Neck.—A valuable horse belonging to Mr. Hicks Loller, of near Fairlee, got its foot caught in a dangerous hole in the public road near Mr. Harry Rash's home one day this week and fell in the road, breaking its neck. This is quite a loss to Mr. Loller, but under the present road law no one seems to be responsible for such losses.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

The spring schedule of the Tolchester Company to take effect March 7th and 8th, appears in this issue. Look it up and get posted on leaving time.

The Capt. Wm. Crouch place, on Lankford Bay, has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hudson. Mr. Pierson Jewell will occupy the property this year.

We are authorized to say by Mr. Robert G. Nicholson, proprietor of the Chestertown Ice Plant that there will be no raise in the price of ice in Chestertown, and if anything ice will be cheaper this summer than last.

It was so warm on Saturday evening that the frogs in the bogs began to croak, and on Sunday morning the crow blackbirds, the harbingers of spring, made their appearance in the trees. They disappeared with the chilling blast of Sunday.

Mr. A. M. Culp has rented his Cross street store room to the United Bargain House, of Philadelphia, who will open on Friday March 7th, with a full line of general merchandise, including groceries and 5 and 10 cent goods. Mr. Linthicum, Treasurer of Anne Arundel county, and Mr. Thomas, of the same county, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Parrott, at Still Pond, a part of the week. While here they visited the farm of Mr. Lewin U. Skirven, near town, and Mr. Linthicum purchased a pair of those fine mules which Mr. Skirven is advertising in the TRANSCRIPT.

The clothing firm of Bordley & Sons has recently installed three handsome plate glass show cases with marble base, which adds much to the beauty and attractiveness of one of the handsomest stores on the peninsula. These cases are filled with a fine assortment of spring and summer shirts, ties, etc., of the latest styles and colors. Go in and look at them.

We are indebted to Mr. E. R. Matthews, of St. Petersburg, Florida, for several copies of the Evening Independent, which gives a splendid account of a great Washington's Birthday Pageant, in which 1500 children participated. We are glad to state Mrs. Matthews and her family, including her father, are well and enjoying prosperity in their sunny southern home.

A largely attended meeting of the tomato growers of the county was held at Still Pond last Saturday. Growers were present from all parts of the county. Mr. Harry Davis presided and Mr. Samuel J. Comly was secretary. Reports from all parts of the county were to the effect that growers are standing together in their efforts to secure the same price that they received last year, at last.

Mr. A. S. Turner's big warehouse at Worton station has about been completed by the well-known and absolutely reliable contracting and building firm of Stavely & Bowers, Lynch. We are informed that Messrs. Stavely & Bowers have had the best winter business in the history of their firm and they are now booking contracts that will keep them and their large force of 20 or 30 men busy all season. This firm sells immense quantities of lumber and building materials, and their goods are reliable and moderate in price.

After the ceremony they where driven back home, where a feast of refreshments was served, and all had a delightful and enjoyable evening. A number of their friends were present.

Wolfe, of Wilmington, Del., known as the "marrying preacher." The certificate was from the M. P. Church, of Hebron, Md., where Rev. Mr. Wolfe has held membership since he has resided in Wilmington. It is understood he will make application for admission into the Christian Church Conference, with the view of taking up the work of the ministry in that denomination.

Not in many years have the people of Christ Church been treated to a more timely and practical sermon than that preached by Rev. W. L. Seabrook, of Westminster, last Sunday morning. Mr. Seabrook came to Chestertown last Saturday to assist in the organization of a new P. O. S. of A. Camp here, and knowing the pastor, Dr. Graham, very intimately, he came to hear him preach. He got "caught" himself, and like the good christian man that he is, he consented to relieve the pastor, who had been ill, of the duty of preaching, and it seemed like the dispensation of Providence that Mr. Seabrook should come to bring such a timely message. The congregation was delighted with the sermon. Rev. W. M. McCann, of Pomona, occupied the pulpit at night and preached a splendid sermon. Bro. McCann has the thanks of the entire church for his splendid assistance to the pastor in his meetings.

The entertainment given in Firemen's Hall on Tuesday evening under the auspices of the ladies' of Christ M. P. Church by Miss Harriet P. Marine, an elocutionist of Baltimore, was attended by a good audience. Miss Marine proved herself an elocutionist of merit and pleased her audience with her interpretation of her selections. Miss Marine makes no claim to being a professional, but she has the capacity of making one of the best elocutionists on the modern stage. Splendid music was furnished by the Chestertown orchestra under the leadership of Prof. T. Kemp Bordley, with Mrs. Fred Hirons at the piano. The net proceeds were about $18.

On next Tuesday, March 4th, the Rev. Wm. A. McClenthen, rector of Mount Calvary Church, Baltimare, will preach in Emmanuel Church at 7.45 P. M.; and on Thursday, March 6th, the Rev. Richard W. Hogue, rector of Ascenston Church, Baltimore, will preach at 7.45 P. M.

Wheatley next Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

One hundred and more of the converts at the recent great revival held in Christ M. P. Church, assembled in the lecture room of the church on Wednesday evening under the leadership of the pastor, Rev. Dr. Graham, and organized a Probationers' Union, which will meet every Wednesday evening. Those who have recently been taken into church membership are taking a deep interest in church work, and the union is designed to keep active this interest and also to foster a denominational spirit.
