110,000 BUICK USERS!

Every One a Buick Booster

There is a certain prestige that owning your own motor car gives you in your community.

There is a certain satisfaction in knowing you own a car that will take you anywhere and bring you back. It is this quality of dependability which has put 110,000 Buicks on the road, and it is this same quality on dependability which has made every one of those 110,000 Buick users a Buick booster.

The Buick overhead valve motor has more power per cubic inch of piston displacement than any other type of motor ever built. It costs us more to make it but cost you less to run it.

Mr. Hartley Weer, of Sparrows Point, Baltimore, is fast recovering from his late attack of pneumonia. He accompanied his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Weer, home on Sunday afternoon last, in Kennedyville, and is able to be taking exercise in the open air, to the joy and gladness of his numerous friends.

Mr. Frank A. Roeder, of the Likes, Berwanger Co., of Baltimore, and wife were guests of the latter's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Atwell, from Sunday evening until Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Weer had the pleasure of a visit from the latter's brother, Mr. L. J. Hayes, of Dover, Del., from Friday evening last, until Saturday. Mrs. E. A. Jones, of Warwick, sister of Mrs. Joseph Weer, was also the guest of said home in Kennedyville from Saturday until Monday.

Mrs. Acca Crew and Miss Mary Fulton, the former's company, spent Saturday evening and night with Mrs. Crew's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas VanDyke, and took dinner with the sister, Miss Lulu VanDyke on Sunday.

The splendid entertainment under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Protestant Church, of our village, Mrs. Dr. Urie, Mrs. Joseph Weer and other efficient trainers in the lead, is attracting marked attention in the community. It goes without saying, that this popular play to continue in Weer's Hall for an hour and a half or over, with fine quartette of music, male voices, will be one of the most humorous and entertaining ever held in said hall. All home talent and of the best. The date will be given in next issue and in the church announcements of next Sunday. You cannot afford to miss it. A full house is assured.

A large number attended the Grange meeting on Monday night, when a large amount of business was dispatched, followed by a most entertaining program under the direction of the popular and efficient worthy lecturer, Mr. W. M. Clendaniel, Jr. Among the rest was a captivating oration on the life and services to his country, of George Washington, by Mr. M. H. Landing, a senior student of Washington College. Mr. Landing displays wonderful oratorical talent.

Mrs. W. M. Clendaniel accompanied her husband to Baltimore on Monday afternoon. Mr. Clendaniel is still under treatment at the Mount street hospital.

Pomona Items.

The supper served at Bond M. E. parsonage on Friday night was a complete success. The table was daintily arranged and everything served was of the best. Mrs. McCann in an ideal hostess, and she was ably assisted by the following ladies: Mrs. Loud, Mrs. DeFord, Mrs. C. G. Hadaway, Mrs. W. F. Wink, Mrs. Frank Shinn, Mrs. Wm. Brown, Mrs. S. T. Weller, Mrs. Hattie Brown and Misses Belle Emory, Rose and Clara Walbert, Bessie Burris. Mrs. Plummer delighted the folks with several selections on the piano and also with her singing. In addition to the above, Milton McCann had a "Fish Pond," and it afforded much fun for the smaller folks. The ice cream was furnished by the Royal Lunch Rooms, and every one was pleased with the service. The pastor of the church and his wife are heartily in favor of social gatherings, and aim to make them a pleasant feature of their religious work.

The funeral of Mr. W. T. Edwards was one of the largest ever held in Quaker Neck. Mr. Edwards was well-known and liked by everyone in this section. Early in the month he and Mrs. Edwards were getting ready to celebrate their 38th wedding anniversary, when one of the daughters was taken sick and it was postponed. Mr. Edwards was a friend of the ministers, and many of them will remember him for his many acts of kindness. The floral offerings were beautiful and covered the casket.

Mrs. W. S. Trew was a visitor in Baltimore for several days last week.

We regret very much that death has entered the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Philips and removed his mother. Mrs. Philips arrived here on Friday evening from the east and was taken very suddenly ill on Sunday night, and never recovered.

Major Cree has one of the most up-to-date chicken farms in the Neck, and his farm is well-stocked with the choicest breeds of chickens.

Rev. E. B. Taylor, a former pastor of Bond Church proved himself a hero on Sunday night, when he closed his services and led his congregation to fight a fire near the chrch, but the efforts were in vain, as two men who occupied the shanty along the shore at Charlestown, Cecil county, were burned to death.
