GRAND OPENING SALE

To-Day, Saturday, March 8, 1913,

AT THE

UNITED BARGAIN HOUSE

Cross Street, Chestertown, Md.

A full line of Merchandise which will be sold at ONE-THIRD off the regular price. Also a full line of Ladies' wear. We want to call your attention especially to which will surprise everybody that will come and see them. There are a few of our introductory prices of Merchandise.

Our 5c and 10c Counters

Regular 25c and 35c Ladies' and Gents' Underwear at 19c

12½c Ladies' and Men's Hosiery at 8

Regular 25c Men's Ties at 14

Men's Working Shirts, regular price 50c, at 39c

Men's Dress Shirts at 50c and 75c Values. 39

Men's Linen Collars—regular 10c values—at this sale 2 for 5

A Few Articles in Our Ladies' Department:

Regular 50c Corsets at 39c

Ladies' Belts at 25c, 50c and 75c values. 10c

We have a few Fine Tailored Ladies' Suits which we will offer at this opening sale—regular $12 values—at $4.49

A few Blue Serge Dresses of the latest styles at $4.49

An assortment of Stylish Skirts at Regular $1.50 and $2.00 values. 98c

Many more Bargains which we have not space to mention.

Don't Fail to Attend the Opening Sale.

Full assortment of Derby and Soft Hats at manufacturers' prices.

$2 Derby at 98c.

UNITED BARGAIN HOUSE,

Cross Street, Chestertown, Md.

©Maryland State Archives msa_sc3326_scm8217-0530