LOCAL MATTERS

Kent County Boy Making Good.—Mr. John Whiteley, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Whiteley, of Kennedyville, has recently been made the manager of a large store, 8th & Filbert streets, Philadelphia, and in a letter to his father and mother this week, he states that he is in a position to make good, and go still higher. It is always gratifying to learn that our boys are doing well, and John's friends in Kent will be delighted to hear of his good fortune.

A Fine Offer.—The Farm Journal is one of the best farm papers in the country. You can get it for four full years for 25 cents, if you will read their advertisement on page 6. You can get the TRANSCRIPT for one year and the journal for four years and any one of their advertised books for $1.25. What better offer of two of the best papers published do you want than that? Send us your order and we will send your name directly to the Farm Journal.

Celebrates 88th Birthday.—Mr. J. Welch Crew, one of the county's oldest and most highly esteemed farmers, quietly observed his 88th birthday at the home of his son, Mr. T. E. W. Crew, near Lankford, on Tuesday. Mr. Crew was the recipient of numerous remembrances from friends in all parts of the state, among which was a shower of post cards, and a pair of fine red head ducks from a friend in Harford county. We are glad to state that Mr. Crew is enjoying good health for one of his advanced years, and we trust that he may live to see many more birthdays.

Banquet by the Sassafras J. O. U. A. M.—In honor of its fourteenth anniversary. Sassafras Council of the Jr. O. U. A. M., tendered a splendid banquet to its members and friends, Tuesday evening, Feb. 25. Oysters were served in every style with an abundance of other good things, and the long table with its floral decorations looked very attractive. There were visitors present from Chestertown, Middletown and other points. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Tarbutton and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Atwell, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Johnston, Mrs. Jno. Ernest, Mrs. R. Stradley, Mr. Scott Knight and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Startt. Mr. S. T. Othoson and many others.

Morris K. Barroll Appointed to a Cadetship at West Point.—Congressman J. Harry Covington has sent to the Secretary of War the name of Morris K. Barroll as a cadet at West Point. Young Mr. Barroll is the son of Col. Morris K. Barroll who at present is in command of Fort Hancock, N. J. Col. Barroll was born in Chestertown where he lived until he himself was appointed a cadet at West Point in 1885. He has always been a registered voter of Kent county and his friends, who have heard the news with much satisfaction, predict for his son a brilliant future. Young Mr. Barroll is in every way qualified to fill the position with credit to Congressman Covington and frequently visits his uncle, Hope H. Barroll, Esq., at Chestertown.

Inte-Class Meet at Washington College.—The different classes of Washington College will compete with each other in a twelve-event contest, in the college gymnasium on Saturday night, March 15, for a fine trophy which goes to the winning class. The meet will consist of the following events—1 mile race, 50 yd. dash, 100 yd. dash, 220 yd. dash, ½ mile race, 1 mile relay race, standing broad jump, running broad jump, standing high jump, running high jump, shot put and a tug of war. Coach Porter believes that a rare treat is in store for the public in these events, since a close and exciting contest is expected. Considerable enthusiasm is developing in the various classes which are out training hard for the coming events.

Farmers' Institute.—The Annual Farmers' Institute will be held in Chestertown on Tuesday next, March 11th, at 10 A. M., 1.30 and 7.30 P. M., and at Kennedyville on Monday, March 10th, at 10 A. M. and 1.30 P. M.

First Aid to The Injured.—Dr. M. J. Shields, of the First Aid Dept. of the Nat. Red Cross, paid us a visit on Feb. 27th, 1913. A meeting was held in Fraternal Hall at 8 P. M. for the benefit of the employees of the C. & P. Telephone Company. All the male employees in Kent county were present, also a number of invited guests. Dr. Shields gave us a practical demonstration of saving life in case of electric shock, broken limbs, etc. His talk was very much enjoyed by all and we have no doubt it will bring forth very good results. We wish him success in this work.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Mr. John S. Vandegrift was engaged during the inauguration in the tonsorial parlors of Congress Hall.

The temperature registered 17 degrees yesterday morning, almost as cold as any morning this winter.

Mr. J. F. Thompson's big new gararge on High street is about ready for occupancy.

Don't forget Mr. Robert J. McWhorter's big sale of horses, mules and cattle at his livery stables next Saturday afternoon.

Some one stole seven of the eight fine chickens belonging to Mrs. Harvey Culp on Washington avenue last Saturday night.

The Board of County Commissioners on Tuesday appointed Town Officer Beverly Hyland a constable for the Fourth District.

Our farmers have been shipping quite a number of early lambs to market. The crop in the county is unusually large for this season of the year.

Contractor A. M. Culp is remodeling the interior of Stam's Hall. When completed it will be one of the most up-to-date auditoriums on the Shore.

Mr. Arlington L. Sparks is having the interior of his big department store attractively papered and painted. Mr. Wm. L. Fowler and force are doing the work.

Mr. Harry B. Rote, one of our Jewelers, sold a Chestertown lady an $85 diamond ring and a Chestertown gentlemen a $150 diamond ring last week.

The Second Basketball Team of Washington College, under the captaincy of Mr. Joseph Branham, went to Easton yesterday to play the quint of that town.

The United Bargain House on Cross street opens its doors to the public today. You must look up their announcement in this issue to see what they have to offer. They want two lady salesmen.

Mr. Jacob Allen, wheelwright for Davis & Satterfield, cut the end of the forefinger on his right hand very severely on Monday while working a joiner machine and has been unable to be at his post this week except in a supervising capacity.

Fairlee Grange held a very interesting meeting on Wednesday evening initiating 31 new members in four degrees. The Grange now numbers 200 members, and their meetings are always full of interest and profitable entertainment.

Active preparations are being made by those in charge for the three nights Society Vaudeville to be given by the Ladies Town Improvement Association probably during Easter week. It will be one of the best entertainments seen in the town in years. One of the evenings will be given over to a sumptuous supper. More next week.
