Kindley, of Baltimore, a member of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, but who at the present is general secretary of the Sunday School Association of Maryland, was present and preached in the afternoon at 3 o'clock and in the evening at 7.30 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. O. H. Connelly, made a special effort at each service to collect money to pay for a new carpet which was put down in the church last week. The total cost of the improvements amounts to about $135. Of this amount $115 has been paid in cash and good subscriptions, and the remainder will probably be paid before the session of the annual conference at Crisfield. The choir rendered some very beautiful and well-chosen selections at both services to large congregations. Much credit is due the faithful members of the church. The improvements have been needed for a number of years.
