TOURIN' TURNER STATION

By E. S. McDANIEL

George B. Gwynn, president of the Baltimore County Council of Parent-Teacher Associations, is recovering from injuries received recently when his car went out of control during a rainstorm. He had to have required several stitches.

Mr. Gwynn is back on his job at this time. He is the husband of Mrs. Daisy Gwynn, nurse at Sollers Point High School.

George Delk, 209 Main St., is confined at the Fort Howard hospital. He is the husband of Mrs. Carrie Delk who is well known in the community. The Delks are members of the New Shiloh Baptist Church.

BRENDA JONES, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Jones, and granddaughter of Deacon and Mrs. Pearlie Jones had a delightful vacation this summer as she had a whirl of trips.

She attended the Y-Teen Conference at Albright College in Reading, Pa. The purpose of the conference was to establish a worldwide fellowship of women and girls. After the conference she went to New York where she visited the United Nations, Rockefeller Center and other places of interest.

Accompanied by two of her friends, she was off again to York, Pa. to visit with some girl friends that she had met at the conference at Reading. All of the girls had a wonderful week end of fun without paying attention to the fact that they were of different races.

Elderly gent held in death of 'rich' widow

An elderly man, who allegedly told police he may have placed his hands around the neck of a lady friend before she died from strangulation, was ordered held for a psychiatric examination Tuesday.

The case of William Corbin, 54, of the 2200 block N. Howard St., was referred to the criminal court by Magistrate Standley Richardson.

Mr. Corbin is accused of choking Mrs. Mary Houston also of the 2200 block N. Howard St., to death on August 11th.

The slim gray-haired defendant was arrested at his home two days after the death of the 47-year-old woman.

• • •

DETECTIVE ROBERT GOE testified that Corbin had signed a statement admitting that he, Mrs. Houston and some friends were involved in "a drinking episode that lasted several days" before the slaying.

The officer also testified that money used to buy the drinks came from the dead woman's bank account which amounted to almost $5,000.

Dective Goe explained that Mrs. Houston had received the money following the death of her husband.

Bank of Ghana puts in $$ order

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (ANP)—Ghana's new bank made a preliminary order of $154 million of new currency, $136 million in notes and $28 million in coin.

Although Ghana's new currency became legal tender July 14, no date has been set to begin to exchange the West African Currency Board notes and coin for the new money.

Both currencies, according to Ghana's diplomatic sources, will remain in circulation for some months.

Minister attacked by irate husband

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — An irate husband, Friday, chased the Rev. Ralph Abernathy two blocks before wounding him with a hatchet.

The minister said that the man, 26-year-old Edward Davis, accused him of "carrying on an affair" with Davis' wife. The cleric denied the allegations.

Two city patrolmen stated in their reports that they arrived on the scene just as Davis threw the hatchet which struck the Rev. Mr. Abernathy in the back.

DAVIS WAS arrested and jailed on a charge of "assault with intent to murder."

Mrs. Davis also was jailed on a disorderly conduct charge after investigating officers J. D. Shows and J. E. Burt said she abused them during interrogation. Both were released on bond.

Davis, who is unemployed, was discharged from the Air Force three months ago. He also said that his wife was a member of the Rev. Mr. Abernathy's church until he made her get out several months ago.

THE REV. MR. Abernathy, pastor of First Baptist Church and a leader in the year-long bus boycott, told police that Davis came to his church office about 5 p.m. He quoted him as saying:

"I guess you know why I've come here. I've been wanting to kill you for a long time. In fact, I started to shoot you last night . . . Then I got to thinking about your little girl and I didn't.

"You are a no good — but for some reason I thought you might help somebody else be somebody. You've been going with my wife and I've come to make you confess."

AT THAT point, the minister said Davis pulled a hatchet and struck him with the handle. The minister said he reached for the telephone and Davis pulled a gun.

"I thought he was going to kill me anyway," said the Rev. Mr. Abernathy, "so I ran for the door."

Miss Alfreda Brown, the minister's secretary, said that Davis had been in the pastor's office for "only a few minutes before the Rev. Mr. Abernathy came running out screaming, 'He wants to kill me.'"

The arresting police found a gun in the street where Davis threw the hatchet at the pastor.

Clara Ward confirms gospel singers' split

EXPLAINING the situation, Mrs. Ward said that their tour of gospel singing group were fired and immediately replaced this week when they announced to Clara Ward and her mother, Mrs. Gertrude Ward, that they would not accompany the group on a two-week tour of the midwest.

The surprising action took place just a few hours before Clara Ward's entourage was scheduled to depart for a two-week tour of twelve midwestern cities. The move was made by four gospel singers, Marian Williams, lyric, Frances Steadman, contralto, Katherine "Kitty" Parham, soprano, and Esther Ford.

QUICKLY replacing the four, Mrs. Gertrude Ward obtained the services of the Imperial Gospel Singers of Philadelphia to assist in fulfilling engagements scheduled for the Ward Singers. Meanwhile, Clara Ward, leader of the internationally acclaimed gospel group has been auditioning numerous singers anxious to join the popular Ward organization.

In a statement issued from her hotel suite in Chicago Miss Ward said "The country is loaded with gospel singers looking for work with a name group and my phone here has been ringing constantly ever since the news leaked out that four of our singers are no longer with us."

LAST WEEK'S rift is the latest of a series of personnel changes in the Ward operation. Previously, a sister of Miss Ward, Mrs. Willamae Moultrie, organized the Gay Charmers jazz trio.

The others including Miss Williams, Mrs. Henrietta Waddy, Miss Parham, Miss Steadman and Miss Esther Ford are now organized as the Philadelphia Stars of Faith.

900 Gray wives on VA pensions

Nearly 900 widows of Confederate soldiers have filed for Veterans Administration pensions, the VA has announced. Applications have come from 20 states and the District of Columbia.

Some 1,400 widows are eligible for the pensions, authorized by a measure signed into law in May. Government officials are searching for the remainder who have not applied.

The state with the largest number of widows applying to date is Georgia, with 180. Texas is second with 130, and Alabama and Virginia are third with 114 each.

To be eligible, a widow must have been married to a man who served at least 90 days in the Confederate forces during the Civil War, or who was discharged for disability. She must not have remarried.

Wilson case gains support in Buffalo

BUFFALO, N.Y. — A "save Jimmie Wilson" delegation is gaining momentum here, and has secured the intervention of Gov. Averill Harriman, who wired governor Folsom, urging a stay of execution for Wilson and a new trial.

The delegation sent a group to visit Mayor Frank Sedita, urging him to intervene in the Wilson case also.

Was boy killed, thrown in pond?

CAMDEN, S.C. — Was an eight year old boy killed and thrown into a pond off Dicey Creek?

That is what Coroner C. C. Padgett thinks was the fate of Wayne Anderson of 112 Doby St., whose lifeless body was found floating face down about 3:45 Sunday afternoon. At the spot the water was 60 feet deep.

The fully clothed body indicated it had been beaten.

Mrs. Lillie Anderson, the mother, reported the son missing from home since Saturday morning.
