THE LADIES' STORE,

Opposite Stam's Hall, CHESTERTOWN, MD.

SPRING MILLINERY READY FOR YOU.

The burning question for the ladies is: Where shall I get my new HAT? The question is a burning one because Easter is almost upon us. The place of purchase is important in that both you and we are vitally interested. We have tried our best to do our part by giving the millinery parlors a very prominent part of our store, and by placing therein for your convenience and selection the best and largest display of Fine Millinery ever attempted to be shown in Chestertown. New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore's best houses have contributed to this gorgeous array. Will you not visit us and test the correctness of these statements?

HUMIDOR LINENS

HUMIDOR LINENS

Some people go so far as to judge the general tone of a housewife's tastes by the kind of linen she uses in the home. If you wish to have splendid judgment passed upon you, use Humidor Linens, Strawbridge & Clothier's brand, and sold exclusively at this store. When the stamp "Humidor Linen" appears you will know it is pure linen, whether it be Table Linen, Napkins, Towels, Roweling, Crashes or any kind of Dress Linen.

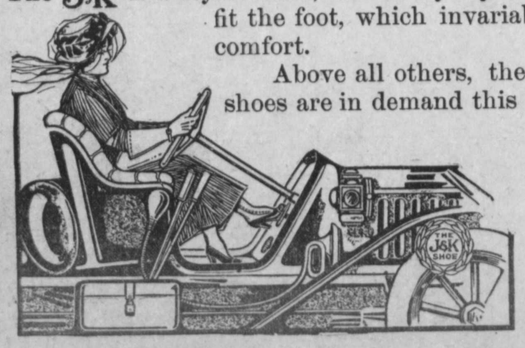

Exclusive Patterns---Guaranteed Wear.

SHOES THAT Are in Demand.

THE J&K SHOE — FITS THE ARCH

The J&K Shoes are making friends all the while, and "there's a Reason." Ask some of their wearers about them, or better still, come in and get fitted with a pair. The second pair will be a matter of course. The J&K is a style-leader, and every style is made to fit the foot, which invariably measn comfort.

Above all others, the tan high shoes are in demand this month.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

WILLIAM S. GODWIN.

Mr. Wm. S. Godwin died at his residence, Hilltop, near Fairlee, Tuesday, of heart trouble and dropsy, aged 61 years. He was a well-respected farmer of Fairlee. Funeral was held Thursday at 2 P. M. from his late residence, Rev. T. N. Given officiating. The following were the pall-bearers: Messrs. Wm. E. Keyser, A. M. Kendall, Walter Sparks, Harry P. Jones, John P. Nicholson and James Brambie. Charles L. Dodd undertaker. The deceased is survived by a widow, Mrs. Mary E. Godwin, who conducts the summer hotel known as Hilltop, and one daughter, Mrs. Samuel G. Maslin, near St. Paul's.

HESTER ELIZABETH BOLTON.

Hester Elizabeth, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Bolton, of near Middletown, Del., died suddenly on Sunday morning at three o'clock, aged four days. Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at four o'clock, with interment in Still Pond cemetery. Prof. and Mrs. J. L. Smyth and Miss Carrie Bolton, who is a sister of the deceased, attended the services at the grave.

WILLIAM ATKINSON.

Mr. William Atkinson, who had been in the barbering business at Crumpton for years, died at his home in that village on Saturday, aged about 66 years. The deceased was well-known throughout the upper sections of Kent and Queen Annes counties.

MRS. HENRIETTA MANLOVE

Mrs. Henrietta Manlove, wife of Howard B. Manlove, of near Cecilton, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rowan, died suddenly of paralysis of the heart on Sunday afternoon about four o'clock, aged about forty years. Besides her husband and parents, she is survived by six small children, three sons and three daughters, also by one sister, Mrs. Eugene Pearce, and three brothers, Messrs. John, Harry P. and Armistead Rowan. The sorrowing family have the sympathy of everyone. Funeral services were held from her husband's home on Wednesday, March 19, at 2 o'clock, interment being made at Cecilton. The deceased was a niece of Mrs. Joanna Knight, of this town, whose daughter, Miss Emma, attended the funeral services.

MRS. MATILDA CHRISTOPHER.

Mrs. Matilda Christopher died at her home in California recently, Mrs. Christopher was the daughter of the late Simon Welch, of this town, and she was well and affectionately known by many of our older residents. She was an aunt of Mrs. Wm. E. Moody, of Washington avenue.

MRS. WM. F. WATSON.

Mrs. Wm. F. Watson, wife of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's county died at the residence of her husband, Mr. Wm. F. Watson, near Centreville, Thursday morning, March 20th, after a lingering illness of over a year.

Rock Hall Items.

Mrs. Mary Ashley was in Baltimore this week selecting a stock of spring millinery.

Mr. J. L. Gale and wife held a family reunion at their home near Rock Hall one day this week. Their sons with their families were present as follows: J. E. Gale, of Washington, D. C.: Wilber F. Gale and wife, of Baltimore; Wm. F. Gale, wife and little Louise, of the Dale farm.

M. Kramer extends an invitation to the public to visit his store and inspect his big stock of spring goods. The largest display ever. His goods and prices will be a surprise to all.

Max Alexander has a lady milliner at his store for his spring trade in ladies hats. Although a large box of hats were lost from the steamer a few days ago, he has a very pretty line.

Mr. Kramer received over one hundred rolls of matting at his store. This is quite a sight in a little town.

The Adventist Church has been remodeled on the inside. Hard wood floors have been laid and a beautiful carpet for the pulpit. Also a new organ, especially made for church purposes.

Quite a pretty sight to see the marshes and brush burning around this section at night, though it no doubt causes some uneasiness on account of being so near the town, with very slight fire protection.

Prof. Greenhawk spent the week-end in Dover visiting friends, and also schools of that section. The high school has a very pretty manual training shop, nicely equipped, but is doing no better work than our schools of Kent.

Lank Prettyman, of Toddville, spent the Easter holidays in Rock Hall with his parents at the parsonage.

William Taylor, of Baltimore, made a short visit to his parents this week while his boat was being overhauled at the dry dock.

Gritt Urie was in Baltimore this week in connection with his amusements, which he has placed in several of Baltimore's summer resorts. Mr. Urie is quite popular in the amusement line.

Underwood Kelley, of Dames Quarter, who visited Prof. Greenhawk after the Christmas holidays, has accepted a position with his uncle in Baltimore.

Rev. Mr. Prettyman will attend the annual conference of the M. E. Churches, held in Wilmington next week.

You should keep posted upon the many bargains offered every Tuesday in the TRANSCRIPT by Marion T. Miller. They are worth buying.

Betterton Notes.

The fishermen are catching a good many rock and perch also a few shad. Prices are low as they usually are when the men are making good catches.

Mr. Roton Crew is having the front of his property terraced and it makes a beautiful sight from the bay. Mr. Alex Mair is doing the work.

Rev. S. S. Hepbron has been holding special lenten services at Col. A. H. Suplee's home.

The entertainment held at the home of Mr. Wm. H. Crew was a success in every particular. The sum realized was twenty-eight dollars and five cents which is to be used for the new church.

Mr. F. S. Groves spent Friday at the Grove's Cottage; he had as his guest, Mr. Emory, a civil engineer, looking over the situation about putting water in Mr. Groves' bungalow.

Mr. C. E. Wright, superintendent of the Ericsson line was at Betterton the past week looking after the company's property. Which always needs repair in the spring.

Mrs. G. W. Moore and Mrs. Fountain Crew spent a fews days in Baltimore the past week.

Mrs. H. B. Moore was in Baltimore Tuesday.

Mrs. W. A. Crew and daughter, Hazel, spent Wednesday in Baltimore.

Mrs. Dr. Mac Donald and children, of Baltimore, are spending the holidays at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harvey Brice.

Mrs. L. A. Hickman visited Baltimore on Friday also Misses Grace and Myrtle Tull.
