LOCAL MATTERS

To Lecture on Forestry.—Prof. Besley, State Forestor, will give an illustrated lecture on "The Preservation of Timber Lands" in William Smith Hall, Washington College on Wednesday evening next at 8 o'clock. The farmers of the county are interested in this lecture, and they should attend.

A Fine Mare.—Mr. John Moffett, one of the best judges of horses in the county, took his friends by surprise on Saturday morning when he drove to town behind a handsome bay mare, and had her shod by Mr. Jack Hackett, the experienced horseshoer. Inquiry of Mr. Moffett lead to the statement that he had fallen in love with the mare while at the recent annual sale of race horses at Madison Square Garden, New York. The mare's name is Arliss, record 2.20¼ with a trial record of 2.12½. Arliss is eight years old, and as handsome as a picture being a strongly built blood bay, with white hind legs, and a pretty star in her forehead. Her sire is the celebrated Walnutt Hall. Her dam is by the great racing sire Allerton, and her granddam is by Robert McGregor, one of the greatest racing sires of this country. Arliss has all the blood lines necessary for great speed, and she is built along lines that show remarkable speed. Her owner refused $2500 for her last year, and Mr. Moffett paid a snug sum for her. He expects to train her for the summer and fall campaign.

Pen Pointers

Nothing is so bothersome as a leaky, scratchy fountain pen even tho' it may be "mightier than the sword." We have been particularly careful to buy only dependable pens.

Pen Troubles

disappear when you get a fountain pen that fits the hand. Our pens give satisfaction under the hardest possible usage. They never fail you, but write without any shaking or coaxing. They are easily filled.

Pens from $1.00 up

We guarantee every pen we sell by returning money or exchanging it if not pleased. Call in and look over a big stock of fine fountain pens today—it will pleasantly surprise you.

Sent a Handkerchief.—Mrs. William F. Russell, Chairman of the fancy table at the bazaar now in progress in Firemen's Hall, wrote to Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the President, asking for a donation. Mrs. Wilson made a fitting reply and sent a dainty handkerchief, which is on sale and is attracting much attention.

Saffrage Meeting.—Notwithstanding the very inclement evening, a good audience heard Mrs. Donald R. Hooker discuss the question of woman's suffrage in the court house on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Hooker made a very favorable impression upon her audience. She was entertained at the home of Miss Louisa Urie during her stay here.

Hand Badly Crushed.—Frank George, of Galt's, was taken to the Homeopathic Hospital in Wilmington on Tuesday with a hand crushed, every bone in it being broken. Two fingers were amputated and an effort is being made to save the hand. Mr. George is a machinist, and his hand was crushed beneath a portion of a house he was assisting in moving, when the jack slipped.

Raided a Crap Game.—Sheriff Mckee and Constable Hyland raided a crap game in John Munson's house on Calvert street last Sunday morning and arrested Munson and five others. At the trial before Justice Kendall, four were fined $10 and costs, and in default were sent to jail for 30 days, while Munson was fined $15 and costs. Good work, officers, keep it up. The public will commend you for it.

Thrown Out in a Runaway.—While Mr. T. B. Newcomb, the practical painter of Lynch, and men, were returning home from work in Chestertown his horse became frightened at a bicycle, which resulted in the breaking of one rein and was he thrown out and hurt considerably. He was taken home unconscious, but is improving very nicely. The men escaped injury. Anyone wishing to know just how hard the State road is, ask Mr. Newcomb.

Church Notes.

Other Church Notes on page 6.

Rev. S. J. Smith, D. D., one of the most prominent ministers in the Maryland Conference, M. P. Church, died at his home, Pittsville, on Wednesday. The deceased had been in failing health for several years, but had fought bravely to stay the ravages of the disease. The deceased was one of the most brilliant ministers in the conference.

A beautiful Easter service was held in Lynch M. P. Church. The church was tastefully decocrated with lilies, ferns and potted plants, truly emblematic of the "flowery festival." The sermon by the pastor, Rev. G. A. Morris was an able portrayal of the Resurrection. Special music was arranged. Mrs. A. N. Stavely and Mrs. E. C. Bowers sang "Christ is Risen," R. Wrcth Stavely rendered "Calvary."

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor.—Services on Sunday and preaching by the pastor at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M., Sabbath school 2.30 P. M., Junior meeting at 6 o'clock, Christian Endeavor service 7.45 P. M. Probationers' Union will meet Wednesday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Mid-week service Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

The following music was splendidly rendered in Sacred Heart Church Easter Sunday Rev. Father Kleider celebrant; High Mass: Kyrie, Leonard 3rd B b; Gloria, Leonard E b; Credo, E b; Offertory, Haec Dies Borderei; Sanctus, Leonard E b; Agnus Dei, Leonard E b; Regina Coeli, Roswig; O Solutaris, Werner, Sanctum Ergo, S. B. H.; Holy God We Praise Thy Name. Mass 10 o'clock Sunday March 30.

¶A change of schedule of the Chester River Line goes into effect on Monday. See time table in another column.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

¶Maryland Day was fittingly observed in the schools throughout the county on Tuesday.

¶The heavy rains of the week have greatly handicapped the farmers in getting their potatoes planted.

¶Remember the bazaar and entertainment given by the Ladies' Town Improvement Association this afternoon and evening.

¶Mr. A. L. Sterling has resigned his position in Toulson's drug store to take a course of medicine in Philadelphia, for which city he left this week.

¶There will be a meeting of the Equal Suffrage League at the home of Mrs. H. Benge Simmons on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. All welcome.

¶Fishermen caught a five-pound bass and a large shad as far up the Chester river as Mill Branch near Millington, on Saturday. This is unusual for this season of the year.

¶Mr. C. W. Kibler, representative of the Baldwin Cannery here, is contracting for tomatoes at $9 per ton. It looks as if this will be the prevailing price in this section this season.

¶Mr. Arnold Fox, of Washington, N. J., has accepted a position as jeweler and optician with Mr. Samuel Kreeger, to succeed Mr. Nile, who will open a jewelry store at Friendsville, Md.

¶The season for trapping muskrats closes Tuesday. It has been a fairly prosperous season with some and a failure with others. Mr. Rust who rented Morgan Creek marsh says his venture was not a financial success.

¶Mr. Fling, demonstrator for the Buick Automobile, of which Graham & Clements are the agents, has been in the county and town during the week demonstrating the merits of the 1913 Buick.

¶Mr. Walter Simmons has resigned as book-keeper in the People's Bank on account of his health, and Mr. Harry Coleman, for several years foreman in the Enterprise office, has been appointed to the vacancy.

¶Following a terrific rain and wind storm on Thursday, the mercury dropped below freezing yesterday morning, and ice formed to a thickness of a quarter of an inch. As a consequence there are grave fears for the safety of fruit and blooming flowers.

¶The firm of Graham & Clements this week received a large carload of "Iron Age" potato machinery, consisting of planters, sprayers, diggers and cultivators which they have delivered to customers in Kent and Queen Annes counties.

¶Mr. Lemon, an experienced prescription clerk of Baltimore, has accepted a position with the Stam Drug Company to succeed Mr. Herman Hancock, who has gone to Cambridge, where he has purchased a large drug business, as we announced last week.

¶If you want to see a pretty pair of three-year-old twin colts, sired by John B., the handsome Bedworth Jr., colt owned by Capt. Wm. C. A. Thompson, look on page 2. These colts are the property of Mr. J. K. Brown, of Queen Annes and they are perfectly matched.

¶Mr. Webster McIntire, of the firm of McIntire & Son, went to Baltimore on Wednesday morning, accompanied by his physician, Dr. Frank B. Hines, for special treatment to one of his knees. His physician thinks he has a floating cartilage, and recommended the X-Ray treatment.

¶The weather prophet, Rev. Mr. Hicks, has struck it good and hard for March. He predicted all the terrible storms of wind and flood which have occurred in various parts of the country with such accuracy that careful observers have become impressed with his knowledge more forcibly than ever.

¶Washington College will open its base ball season to-day at Homewood, Baltimore, with a game with Johns Hopkins University. The college has a strong team this year. It is said that there are two or more candidates for every position on the team, and Coach Porter is up against a hard proposition in the selection of a first team.

¶About 150 persons enjoyed the supper in Firemen's Hall on Thursday evening given by the Ladies' Town Improvement Association. The matinee and vaudeville yesterday were fine, and the matinee this afternoon and the play to-night by home talent, with music from the Johns Hopkins Glee Club, of Baltimore, will be fine. Don't miss this entertainment.

¶Mr. J. Cordray Loud and Mr. Chas. H. Jefferson have had attractive cement steps laid in front of their homes on High street from the new road to the pavement, and Mrs. Ruth A. Cahall has had the terrace sodded in front of her property. Other improvements in contemplation, will make this one of the most attractive blocks in the town.

¶The flower yards of the town are beginning to assume their usual spring and summer loveliness. Mrs. Hope H. Barroll's grounds are a mass of gorgeous blooms. There are more than 100 different varieties of magnolia, beautiful flowering almond and beech trees, as well as other beautiful blooms. They make a most gorgeous appearance. Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard's grounds are also beautiful, the grass plots and rare shrubbery being especially attractive.

¶The King's Daughters of Emmanuel P. E. Church is a splendid organization. It is always doing something for the benefit of those in need. They will hold a Pie Bake in the Eliason building next Saturday afternoon, April 5th, beginning at 12 o'clock for the benefit of the Silver Cross Rest Room in Baltimore, where the working girl may obtain cheap board and lodging. Don't make any deserts that day. Patronize the Bake.

¶Arrangements have about been completed for the purchase of the Chestertown ice plant by the Electric Light Company. Judge James A. Pearce, Messrs. Merrick Clements and Geo. D. Lofland were asked by those concerned to appraise the value of the ice plant, and the appraisement has been made. The transfer will be made in time for the summer season, and the plant will be removed to the company's plant on the old Thompson wharf property, where a commodious plant will be erected.

Kennedyville Items.

Mrs. Annie Johnston and daughter, Miss Flora, returned home on Wednesday after a month's visit with relatives in Washington.

During the Easter holidays Miss Flora Johnston entertained her sister, Miss Sue, of Palmyra, Master Dewitt Walton, of Philadelphia, Master Wm. Faulkner, Willie, James and John Johnston.

Miss Kathryn Hessner and friend, Miss Scott, of Philadelphia, spent the Easter holidays with her mother.

Mrs. F. C. Miller is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Domar, in Thurmont.

Mrs. William Clews returned to Washington with her sister, Miss Williams, for a short visit.

Mrs. William T. Hague and Charles Bedwell visited Sassafras on Sunday.

Mr. Cohen, proprietor, says when you patronize the United Bargain House you patronize your pocketbook.
