Money-making Secrets WITH THE Farm Journal

Is this cock properly held? "Poultry Secrets" tells how to carry fowls, and other secrets far more important.

FARM JOURNAL ("cream, not skim milk") is the great little paper published for 36 years in Philadelphia by Wilmer Atkinson. It is taken and read by more families than any other farm paper in the WORLD. Its four million readers (known as "Our Folks") are the most intelligent and prosperous country people that grow, and they always say the Farm Journal helped to make them so. Their potatoes are larger, their milk tests higher, their hogs weigh more, their fruit brings higher prices, because they read the Farm Journal.

Do you know Peter Tumbledown, the old fellow who won't take the Farm Journal? By showing how NOT to run a farm, Peter makes many prosperous. Nobody can go on reading the Farm Journal and being a Tumbledown too. Many have tried, but all have to quit one or the other.

The Farm Journal is bright, brief, "boiled down," practical, full of gumption, cheer and sunshine. It is strong on housekeeping and home-making, a favorite with busy women, full of life and fun for boys and girls. It sparkles with wit, and a happy, sunny spirit. Practical as a plow, readable as a novel. Clean and pure, not a line of fraudulent or nasty advertising. All its advertisers are guaranteed trustworthy.

The Farm Journal gives more for the money and puts it in fewer words than any other farm paper. 32 to 80 pages monthly, illustrated. FIVE years (60 issues) for $1.00 only. Less than 2 cents a month. No one-year, two-year or three-year subscriptions taken at any price.

The Farm Journal Booklets

have sold by hundreds of thousands, and have made a sensation by revealing the SECRETS OF MONEY-MAKING in home industry. People all over the country are making money by their methods.

POULTRY SECRETS is a collection of discoveries and methods of successful poultrymen. It gives Felch's famous mating chart, the Curtiss method of getting one-half more pullets than cockerels, Boyer's method of insuring fertility, and priceless secrets of breeding, feeding, how to produce winter eggs, etc.

HORSE SECRETS exposes all the methods of "bishoping," "plugging," cocaine and gasoline doping, and other tricks of "gyps" and swindlers, and enables any one to tell an unsound horse. Gives many valuable training secrets.

CORN SECRETS, the great NEW hand-book of Prof. Holden, the "Corn King," shows how to get ten to twenty bushels more per acre of corn, rich in protein and the best stock feeding elements. Pictures make every process plain.

EGG SECRETS tells how a family of six can make hens turn its table scraps into a daily supply of fresh eggs. If you have a back-yard, get this booklet, learn how to use up every scrap of the kitchen waste, and live better at less cost.

THE "BUTTER BOOK" tells how seven cows were made to produce half a ton of butter each yer year. (140 pounds is the average). An eyeopener. Get it, weed out your poor cows, and turn the good ones into record-breakers.

STRAWBERRY SECRETS is a revelation of the discoveries and methods of L. J. Farmer, the famous expert, in growing luscious fall strawberries almost until snow flies. How and when to plant, how to fertilize, how to remove the blossoms, how to get three crops in two years, etc.

GARDEN GOLD shows how to make your backyard supply fresh vegetables and fruit, how to cut down your grocery bills, keep a better table, and get cash for your surplus. How to plant, cultivate, harvest and market.

DUCK DOLLARS tells how the great Weber duck-farm near Boston makes every year 50 cents each on 40,000 ducklings. Tells why ducks pay them better than chickens, and just HOW they do everything.

TURKEY SECRETS discloses fully the methods of Horace Vose, the famous Rhode Island "turkey-man," who supplies the White House Thanksgiving turkeys. It tells how to mate, to set eggs, to hatch, to feed and care for the young, to prevent sickness, to fatten, and how to make a turkey-ranch PAY.

The MILLION EGG-FARM gives the methods by which J. M. Foster made over $18,000 a year, mainly from eggs. All chicken-raisers should learn about the "Rancocas Unit," and how Foster FEEDS hens to produce such quantities of eggs, especially in winter.

DRESSMAKING SELF-TAUGHT shows how any intelligent woman can design and make her own clothes, in the height of fashion. The author has done it since she was a girl. She now has a successful dressmaking establishment and a school of dressmaking illustrated with diagrams.

SHALL I FARM? is a clear, impartial statement of both advantages and drawbacks of farming, to help those who have to decide this important question. It warns you of dangers, swindles, and mistakes, tells how to start, equipment needed, its cost, chances of success, how to get government aid, etc.

These booklets are 6 x 9 inches, and profusely illustrated.

Farm Journal FOUR full years, with any one of these booklets . both for $1.00

The Booklets are NOT sold separately—only with Farm Journal.

Be sure to say WHICH booklet you want.

What Our Folks Say About F. J.

"I have had more help, encouragement and enjoyment out of it in one year than I did out of my other papers in ten years," says C. M. Persons.

"It is a queer little paper. I have sometimes read it through and thought I was done with it, then pick it up again and find something new to interest me," says Alfred Krogh.

"Farm Journal is like a bit of sunshine in our home. It is making a better class of people out of farmers. It was first sent me as a Christmas present, and I think it the choicest present I ever received," says F. E. LeValley.

"We have read your dear little paper for nearly 40 years. Now we don't live on the farm any more, yet I still have a hankering for the old paper. I feel that I belong to the family, and every page is as dear and familiar as the faces of old friends," says Mrs. B. W. Edwards.

"I fear I neglect my business to read it. I wish it could be in the hands of every farmer in Virginia," says W. S. Cline.

"I live in a town where the yard is only 15 x 18 feet, but I could not do without the Farm Journal," says Miss Sara Carpenter.

"I get lots of books and papers, and put them aside for future reading. The only paper I seem to have in my hands all the time is Farm Journal. I can't finish reading it. Can't you make it less interesting, so I can have a chance at my other papers?" writes John Swail.

"If I am lonesome, down-hearted, or tired, I go to Farm Journal for comfort, next to the Bible," says Mabel Dewitt.

"Farm Journal has a cheerful vein running through it that makes it a splendid cure for the "blues." When coming home tired in mind and body, I sit down and read it, and it seems to give me new inspiration for life," writes G. E. Halderman.

"We have a brother-in-law who loves a joke. We live in Greater New York, and consider ourselves quite citified, so when he sent us the Farm Journal as a New Year's gift we nearly died laughing. 'How to raise hogs'—we who only use bacon in glass jars! 'How to keep cows clean'—when we use condensed milk even for rice pudding! 'How to plant onions'—when we never plant anything more fragrant than lilies of the valley. I accepted the gift with thanks, for we are too well-bred to look a gift horse in the mouth. Soon my eye was caught by a beautiful poem. I began to read it, then when I wanted the Farm Journal I found my husband deeply interested in an article. Then my oldest son began to ask, 'Has the Farm Journal come yet?' He is a jeweler, and hasn't much time for literature; but we find so much interest and uplift in this fine paper that we appreciate our New Year's gift more and more," writes Ella E. Burkman.

"I received 'Corn Secrets' and 'Poultry Secrets,' and consider them worth their weight in gold," says W. G. Newall.

"What your Egg Book tells would take a beginner years to learn," says Roy Charvey.

"Duck Dollars is the best book I ever had on duck-raising," says F. M. Warnock.

"If your other booklets contain as much valuable information as the Egg-Book, I would consider them cheap at double the price," says F. W. Mansfield.

"I think your Egg-Book is a wonder," says C. P. Shirey.

"The Farm Journal beats them all. Every issue has reminders and ideas worth a year's subscription," writes T. H. Potter.

"One year ago I took another agricultural paper, and it took a whole column to tell what Farm Journal tells in one paragraph," says N. M. Gladwin.

"It ought to be in every home where there is a chick, a child, a cow, a cherry, or a cucumber," says I. D. Bordus.

THE RELIGIOUS WORLD.

Sixty-one persons were received into full membership in the Chestertown M. E. Church last Sunday by the pastor, Dr. Barrett. It was an inspiring sight.

Rev. F. H. Mullineaux, who has served Kennedyville charge faithfully and well for several years past, will ask for a change at the approaching session of conference.

Presbyterian services: Georgetown, 10.30; Kennedyville, 2.45; Worton, 7.30. The pastor and people of the above churches cordially invite all to their services, and especially those who have not yet identified themselves with any church. All such will find a hearty welcome. The pastor will endeavor to preach short, sharp, interesting and restful sermons, and will also strive to make the music attractive. The subject for next Sunday in the Presbyterian churches is "Life from Death." Special music will be rendered.

Services for the Methodist Protestant Church of Kennedyville for March 30th: Sunday School at 9.30 o'clock, topic, review of the past three month's lessons; 10.30, sermon by the pastor; Sunday evening at 7.30, C. E. service, led by the president, Miss Annie Weer, topic, Mission Work at Home and Abroad, a fifteen-minute address on the topic by the pastor. Music by a full choir will be an attractive feature of all these services. All most cordially welcome.

Dr. Barrett, pastor of the M. E. Church, is attending conference. There will be no service in that church to-morrow (Sunday) morning. Dr. Graham, pastor of Christ Church, leaves for the seat of conference at Lynchburg on Monday morning.

A meeting of the Sunday School Association was held in Olivet M. E. Chapel, Galena, Wednesday afternoon of last week for the puopose of electing officers of Galena District and adjusting other matters of importance. Delegates were invited from all schools included in the district, i. e., 2 Millington, 2 Sassafras, 1 Golt, 1 Still Pond, 1 Kennedyville, 1 Lynch, 1 Chesterville, and 1 Galena. Rev. Mr. Owens, Kent county president, presided. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mr. Jno. Medders, Kennedyville; vice-president, Mrs. Shepphero Morris, Sassafras; secretary and treasurer, Miss Anna Gale, Chesterville; Supt. of Elementary Department, Mrs. Jno. Tarbutton, Sassafsas; Supt. of Secondary Dept., Mrs. Walter Hadley, Galena; Supt. of Adult Bible Classes, Rev. F. X Moore, Still Pond; Supt. of Teacher's Training, Miss C. M. Dempsey, Galena; Supt. of Missions, Mrs. J. L. Smith, Millington; Supt. of Temperance, Mrs. Andrew Reynolds, Golt; Supt. of Home Visitation, Mrs. W. A. Felton, Millington.

The regular monthly meeting of the Town Relief will be held Tuesday, April 1st, at the home of Mrs. G. C. Rote. All members are requested to be present.

The joyous Eastertide was celebrated in all the churches of the town with appropriate sermons and music. The music in all the churches was above the usual standard of excellence, and many pronounced it the best rendered music by all the choirs for many years. Christ M. P. choir, under the direction of Mrs. W. Frank Jarrell, will repeat their music to-morrow. In the M. E. Church Sunday morning splendid singing was rendered by the Glee Club under the leadership of Miss Fannie E. Stuart. A male quartette by Messrs Jewell Armstrong, Colin Duyer, John E. Barnes and Walter Bennett. In the evening a quartette by Mrs. Merrick Clements, Mrs. Harry Anthony, Miss Hallie Toulson and Mr. Fred Hirons.

Rev. T. R. Woodford, who for the past 10 years has been the agent for the Methodist Protestant Book Concern in Baltimore, has resigned and will accept an appointment at the approaching session of conference, and will likely go to Fawn Grove. Mr. Woodford has done much to make the Book Concern a very profitable part of the church's publishing interests, but he prefers the ministry, and he will make good there also. Rev. A. N. Ward, now at Denton, will leave the active work to accept a position as assistant to Rev. Dr. T. H. Lewis, president of the college. Rev. G. A. Morris is mentioned for Denton.

Kennedyville Items.

Mrs. Hayes, of Galena, mother of Joseph Weer, who has been spending several weeks with her daughter in our village, is now in a very critical condition. She is being very tenderly cared for by her two daughters, Mrs. Weer and Miss Annie.

Master Bruce Dukes, son of Mrs. Lulu Dukes, is also very sick with typhoid-pneumonia. All these sick ones are in the care of Dr. J. W. Urie.

Rev. and Mrs. William Clews have the deep sympathy of the entire community in the departure, by death, of their little four-year-old daughter, Elsie, last week.

Mrs. M. Etta Lane, who formerly lived in Kennedyville, is the guest of friends here, and attended service at M. P. Church Sunday morning, where she holds membership.

Mrs. Clews accompanied her sister, Miss Marie, to Washington, D. C., yesterday.

Miss Ethel Salloway, a former teacher beloved, of Kent county, but now of Georgetown, Del., was the guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar R. Pennington the latter part of the past week and over Sunday. Her many friends were delighted to see and greet her at the Easter services at the M. P. Church Sunday morning, which service was attended by a very large congregation, in which there were a number of strangers or visitors. The music rendered by the full choir of talented musicians was very fine.

Rev. and Mrs. F. H. Mullineaux were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones on Monday, and of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Melvin on Tuesday of this week.

Piney Neck Items.

Rev. J. W. Prettyman, of Rock Hall, held the Easter service in our church on Sunday afternoon. The service was very impressive and greatly enjoyed by all present.

Rev. and Mrs. O. H. Connelly left on Thursday last for Galena where they expect to spend a few days before Conference. Mr. Connelly went to Conference on Monday with splendid reports of the work during the year, all missionary collections in hand and a cordial invitation to return for another year.

The comic entertainment given by the ladies of the church was a great success and enjoyed by all who attended.

Mrs. Ella Ward who has been quite sick for several weeks is now better and is able to be out once more.

The K. of P. Lodge entertained many friends at their anniversary held in the hall on Tuesday evening of last week.

We are glad to see the warm weather. Fish are more plentiful and some of our people have made some fine hauls.

Owing to the absence of the pastor there will be no services in the church on Sunday.
