Hampton last foe as Bears wind up

The Morgan State College Bears, rejuvenated by their 69 - 0 scoring splurge against the Union Pathers Saturday, close EIGHT BEARS will be playing their last home game for Morgan in the up-coming contest.

They are: co-captain Larry Buffalue, tough little fullback from Norfolk, Va.; Loyal Evans, quarterback from Pleasantville, N. J.; Arnold Harris, halfback, Chapel Hill, N. C.; Clarence Hawkins, tackle, Rock Hall, Md.; James Haywood, tackle, Delray Beach, Fla.; Ernest Mayo, fullback, Columbia, S. C.; Robert White, guard, Utica, N. Y.; and Dolphus Williams, guard, Trenton, N.C.

Tout their home season tomorrow against the Hampton Pirates of Hampton, Va.

The last home game will kick off at 1:30 p.m.

Hampton, under the coaching of young Ben Whaley, has become within the year a greatly improved team and boasts for the current season an overall record of 6 - 2 - 0 and a record of 5 - 1 - 0 in CIAA competition.

GETTING its offense to click again this Saturday will be the big job the Morgan eleven faces. Concentration on offense apparently paid off in Morgan's blitz of the Panthers, but coach Eddie Hurt emphasizes that "we were not really 69 points better than Union, and we can't be overly optimistic because we scored so heavily."

He explains that Union was down for the game, having lost its homecoming game to Virginia State prior to the Morgan meeting.

Morgan's team should be in good shape. The Bears came out of the Union game with only one injured player, tackle Theodore Napper who suffered a shoulder injury.

Tan stars top 3 NFL divisions

Colored athletes were at the top of three departments in pro football as the major league teams headed into the crucial days of the 1958 campaign.

The fabulous Jim Brown was at the head of two of these and rookie Len Lyles was in the lead in the third.

BROWN, sophomore fullback of the Cleveland Browns, was setting the pace in ground gaining, with an awe - inspiring total of 1,011 yards, nearly twice as many as his nearest rival, teammate Bob Mitchell, Brown also held the lead in individual scoring with 90 points on the strength of 15 touchdowns.

Lyles, halfback of the Baltimore Colts, stood well ahead of the rest of the field in the matter of returning kickoffs. Len has run back 367 yards — the longest for 103 yards — for an average of 40.8 yards per try. His nearest rival is Leroy Bolden, Browns' rookie, with a 29.9 average.

FIVE OF the nine players behind Jim Brown on the ground gaining department, are colored. And the two men closest to the Cleveland fullback in scoring also are tan.

Mitchell, who is second in ground gaining, is followed by Joe Perry of San Francisco (4th), Willie Galimore of Chicago Bears (6th), Tom Wilson of Los Angeles (8th) and Ollie Matson of Chicago Cardinals (10th).

IN SCORING, Brown is followed by Galimore and Lenny Moore of the Colts.

Cleveland's Leroy Bolden is runner - up to Lyles in punt returns, with Matson eighth in his department.

Moore, R. C. Owens of San Francisco and Woodley Lewis of the Cardinals, are fifth, sixth and seventh in pass receiving.

Football equipment worth $1000 stolen from D.C. Teachers

WASHINGTON

Football equipment belonging to the D.C. Teachers College team was stolen from Cardozo High School Stadium locker room, police reported. The equipment is valued at $1,000.

The theft took place between 4:30 p.m. Monday and 10 a.m. Tuesday but police were not able to determine how the locker room, located beneath the stands, was entered.

Dr. Phillip Fox, D.C. Teachers College coach, told police that the team practiced on the Cardozo field and stored their gear in the locker.

HOMETOWN TRACK

Jockey Sammy Boulmetis, who has several stakes mounts during Pimlico's autumn meeting, first saw the race track as a young teen-ager selling newspapers after school. Boulmetis was born near Pimlico in 1927.

Colts hope to extend spell over Bears Sunday

CHICAGO — With three successive triumphs over the Chicago Bears and a 7 - 4 bulge in the series that coccened in 1953, the Baltimore Colts will look for their second time in quest of the Bruins in Wrigley Field here Sunday.

The Colts' most recent success was a 31 - 38 decision in Baltimore in the second game of the current season. In this clash, the home team jumped off to a 27 - 3 lead in the first quarter, protected a 34 - 10 half-time margin, then staved off the Bears' furious second half assault.

* * *

HALFBACK Lenny Moore delivered the vital blows for the Steeds in this contest, scoring four touchdowns, two on the ground as he netted 71 yards, and another via pass receptions, accumulating 118 yards.

Last fall, the Colts capitalized on remarkable defensive play, with a total of 29 yards in a 21 - 10 victory at home, and intercepting five aerials en route to a 29 14 verdict in the Windy City, to forge ahead in the series.

* * *

DEFENSE ALSO paid Baltimore handsome dividends when the scrapping started five years ago. In their first NFL campaign after a two - year lapse, the Hosses hammered out tight-fit, 13 - 9, and 16 - 14 wins, the second being accomplished in Wrigley Field.

While the Colts have had their share of success in the Chicago hall yard, they have also suffered two lopsided defeats there, being crushed by a 38 - 10 count in 1955 and 58 - 27 a year later.

Race track fire at Pimlico

Two stables at Pimlico Race track were purposely set afire recently to demonstrate a newly developed fire retardant paint.

The scale model stables were filled with straw both ignited at the same time.

The first, painted with ordinary paint, was completely destroyed in 15 minutes.

The second, coated with the newly developed fire retardant, showed no damage to the wood at all.

On this one, the fire retardant paint bubbled up about four inches thick, hardened, then charred, thereby protecting the wood.

* * *

THE DEMONSTRATION was conducted by Dr. Leroy W. Sluger of Baltimore and witnessed by persons from Baltimore and the surrounding counties, local architects, most of the race track owners in Maryland, and representatives of various organizations.

Prompted by the recent tragic fire at Marlboro Race Track where 28 thoroughbreds were destroyed, the new paint has been tested by the Fire Underwriters' Laboratory and received the highest ratings to be awarded in this country.

Maple Glen Midgets face Catonsville

The Maple Glen Midgets, unbeaten and unscored - on for the season, will tackle the Catonsville Colts in a Buddy Young Little League football game at Maple Glen Field tomorrow (Saturday) at 1 o'clock.

Last Sunday, the Glensmen journeyed to Francis Junior High Playground in Washington and romped over the Francis Midgets by a 45-0 score.

Lincoln, Morgan deadlock in CIAA cross-country race

WASHINGTON

Hewitt Joiner, 18-year - old Delaware State College freshman, outran a field of 45 harriers Tuesday to capture the second annual CIAA cross-country championship run.

Joiner, always near the front, took over the lead about the three - quarter mark and never headed as he broke the tape in 17 minutes, 29 seconds.

The lean, brown - skinned Delaware State freshman had a 50-yard margin on Lincoln University's Jim Kimani, native of Africa, as they closed out the race on the cinders of the Howard Stadium.

* * *

THE RACE STARTED and ended in Howard Stadium, with the runners covering the three and one - half mile course through the Washington Hospital Center grounds and the New Soldiers Home grounds. This was a new course, replacing the old course which stretched through and around the Reservoir on the east side of Howard.

Joiner's victory failed to help his team, however, as Morgan State College and Lincoln University deadlocked for the team title with 40 points each.

Cheyney State Teachers College, last year's team victor, was third with 72 points, while other teams finished as follows: Delaware, 114; Bowie State Teachers College, 120; and the host Howard team, 125.

JOINER'S TIME will stand as a record for the new course. The 19 - year - old frosh runner hails from Boston, Mass., where he was a track standout at Roxbury High School. This was his first race in CIAA circles.

At Roxbury, he scored a second in the State cross-country championship and third in the New England title race two years ago, but was out of competition most of last season because of illness.

He did compete long enough, however, to gain the city cross-country scholastic championship and to win the State scholastic mile championship, negotiating the distance in 4:30.

* * *

MORGAN PLACED three men in the first six, with Ronald Merriweather, third and Ellis Nicholson fourth behind Lincoln's Kamani. Another Lincoln runner, Eddy Williams edged out Walter Cole, other Lincoln harriers, Robert Betz and Dave Walker copped seventh and eighth places.

Ronald Sullivan was Cheyney's first man across the line, in ninth position, while Howard's initial finisher was Eugene Tillman in tenth.

Morgan's Lee Martin and Johnny Myles closed behind each other in 13th and 14th positions to give the Bear harriers, coached by C. C. Jackson and Bob Berry, the latter last year's winner of the race, 40 points for the first place tie.

With four men in the first ten, Lincoln's coach, Tom Jones, was on edge as the Lions barely edged into the finished in the 18th spot, also winning deadlock as Ray Betz for 40 points.

* * *

THE FIRST TWENTY runners to finish were:

1. Hewitt Joiner (Delaware)
2. James Kimani (Lincoln)
3. Ronald Merriweather (Morgan)
4. Ellis Nicholson (Morgan)
5. Eddy Williams (Lincoln)
6. Walter Cole (Morgan)
7. Robert Betz (Lincoln)
8. Dave Walker (Lincoln)
9. Ronald Sullivan (Cheyney)
10. Eugene Tillman (Howard)
11. Ceasar Chandler (Cheyney)
12. Earl Ross (Cheyney)
13. Lee Martin (Morgan)
14. Johnny Myles (Morgan)
15. Freeman McMillan (Howard)
16. Nathaniel Jones (Cheyney)
17. James Miller (Bowie)
18. Ray Betz (Lincoln)
19. Robert Miller (Lincoln)
20. Carlton Green (Bowie)

Bisons face M'house, then Lions

WASHINGTON

Howard University will be out to extend its winning streak to four games when it travels to Atlanta Saturday to meet Morehouse College.

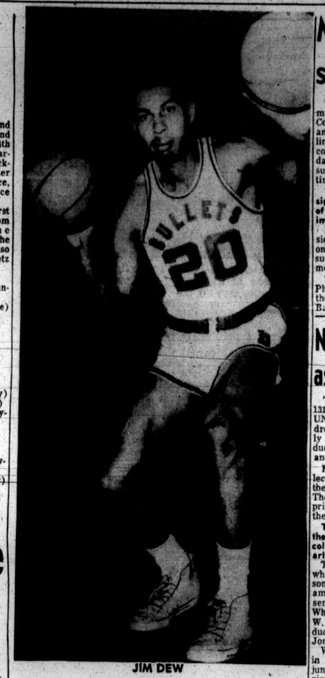
In their last outing the Bisons upset Hampton Institute of Virginia, 18-12. The win gave Howard a 5 - - 0 record to date, and assured the Bisons of their first winning season since 1952, when they finished with a 6 - 2 - 1 mark.

This is the ninth meeting of the two teams. In 1957, Morehouse defeated Howard 10 - 0 at Howard Stadium. Howard still leads the series however, with four wins against three losses and one tie.

* * *

HOWARD'S ATTACK is expected to be led by sophomore quarterback Charlie Smith. Smith has hit on 33 passes for a total of 528 yards, including six touchdowns. Five of his touchdowns have come in the last two games.

Howard will return to the home grounds at Howard Stadium on Saturday, Nov. 22, when they clash with their traditional year-end opponent, Lincoln University. For years this contest was played on Thanksgiving Day, but this year, as it was last year, it will be held on the Saturday preceding the Turkey Day.



JIM DEW

New Baltimore 5 set for pro debut

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. — Baltimore returns to professional ranks tomorrow (Saturday) night when the newest edition of the Bullets, this time competing in the Eastern League, makes its debut here against the defending champion Wilkes Barre Barons.

The Bullets don't open at home until Thanksgiving night against Sunbury.

Coach Buddy Jeannette, who piloted the old Bullets to the 1948 National Basketball Association prize, has returned to take over the tutoring role and will be banking on six-foot-ten Jim Dew, giant pivotman from Alabama State, and Morgan's push shot threat, Jackson Rozier, to help the Bullets get off on the right foot.

"Dew's coming along slowly," Jeannette declares. "He still has a lot to learn, but he's hustling and getting the ball off the backboard for us. When his shots start dropping, he'll feel better.

"Rozier has been a real surprise. He's a good one-hander and can hit from way out, too. Roby's a tremendous leaper and a big help to those rebounds."

In addition to Dew and Rozier, others fighting for the nine jobs are Maryland's John Nacincik, Bob Everett and Bob O'Brien; Jim Zinn, of Florida; Seton Hall's Richie Regan; St. Bonaventure's Ken Murray; Buzz Wilkinson, of Virginia; Ralph Beard, of Kentucky; Idaho's Red Morrison; and Ron Shavlik and Lou Dickman, both of North Carolina State.

Eastern League teams may carry an unlimited roster for the first three weeks. After that the clubs can carry only nine active players and three on the inactive reserve list. Other teams in the league are Scranton, Rochester, Williamsport, Hazleton, Allentown and Easton.

Meeting on youth scheduled for Monday

The Baltimore Youth Commission and the Maryland Commission for the Prevention and Treatment of Juvenile Delinquency will sponsor a special community meeting on Monday, Nov. 17, on the major issues affecting the youth of Baltimore.

The programs will be designed to stimulate discussion of issues which are of critical importance to young people.

Highlight of the morning session will be a panel discussion on "What Are the Major Issues Affecting Youth of Baltimore?"

The panel will be led by Philip H. Sachs, a member of the executive committee of the Baltimore Youth Commission.

Among the panel members will be the Rev. Marcus G. Wood, pastor of Providence Baptist Church.

Following this will be a luncheon program at which the speaker will be Dr. John H. Fischer, superintendent of schools.

A second panel discussion will be concerned with the subject of state wide issues affecting the youth of Baltimore.

Thomas J. S. Baxter, chairman of the Maryland Commission for the Prevention and Treatment of Juvenile Delinquency, will lead this panel.

No. 131 pupils assist UNICEF

The students of School No. 131 presented an excellent UNICEP (United Nations Children's Fund) program recently as part of a project conducted by Mrs. Ethel Covington and Mrs. Mary Johnson.

For a few weeks pupils collected pennies for UNICEF in their small UNICEF boxes. They were spurred on by the prize offered the boy bringing the most money.

The programs were made in the social study classes and collections handled during arithmetic period.

The day of the program, which consisted of plays and songs, the money which amounted to $39.71 was presented to Mrs. Violet Hill Whyte by the principal John W. Wood. William Birch conducted the music. Mrs. Eliza Jones was also a guest.

Warner Sappington brought in the highest amount in the junior high school special curriculum group, $5.40 and Albert Roseman $2.71 in the primary opportunity class.
