Telephone Line Completed.—The C. & P. Telephone Co. have completed the lines to Swan Point, to Smithville via Hanesville and to Eastern Neck Island. There are 10 subscribers on the Swan Point line, 10 on the Smithville-Hanesville line and 13 on the Eastern Neck Island line. The new lines open up a large territory and give access to the entire lower section of the county.

Horse Killed.—A horse belonging to Mr. James Newnam, in Queen Annes county, near Chestertown, was killed Wednesday night near Washington College by being run into by a team driven by Lester Butler, colored. Mr. Newnam's son was driving up the road when he was met by Butler and another team who they say were racing. The shaft of Butler's carriage struck Mr. Newnam's horse in the breast penetrating it about 15 inches. Dr. Jarman was sent for but the horse died in a few hours. Butler was arrested by Sheriff McKee and is now in jail. The name of the party who was in the other team that was said to be racing could not be learned.

Washington Camp, No. 90, P. O. S. of A.

On Saturday night, April 5th, there was another camp of the Patriotic Order Sons of America instituted in Kent county. This time the institution took place at Piney Neck, near Rock Hall. The degree was conferred by the State Camp degree team, assisted by the visiting brethren. There were thirty-two names on the application, twenty-four of whom received the degree. The camp was organized by W. G. Davis, State Trustee, and John R. Diehl, District President, both of Camp 37, of Rock Hall. The order is fast becoming a potent factor on the Eastern Shore for civic righteousness, as there are now over fifteen hundred registered voters in our ranks on the Eastern Shore alone.

Harry T. Richardson Wins His Case.

The Court of Appeals reversed the action of the Talbot County Court in the suit of Harry T. Richardson for injuries to his horse on the public roads of Kent county. Mr. Richardson sued the Commissioners and road engineer Gibbs. The Court of Appeals holds that Mr. Gibbs, however negligent or incompetent he may be in keeping the roads in repair, is not liable to suit. But the tax-payers are always responsible for his neglect or incompetency, no matter how bad he may leave the roads or in what condition or how unsafe, the County Commissioners will have to pay any judgment which may be recovered for the bad condition of the roads. This is an illustration of "Gibbsism" and what it means to the people of this county. If the Commissioners were to levy $50,000 what tax-payer thinks the roads would be in any better condition this time next year than they have been for the last two years? The case is now sent back to Talbot county for a new trial.

IN MEMORIAM.

CARROLL WOODROW EVERETT.

In loving remembrance of our darling, Carroll Woodrow Everett, who departed this life 4 months ago, the 2nd day of April.

When we see the precious blossom,
That we tended with such care;
Rudely taken from our bosom—
How our hearts almost despair.
'Round its little grave we linger,
'Till the setting sun is low,
Feeling all our hopes have perished
With the flower we cherished so.
—MOTHER.

The bud the Gardener gave us—
A pure and lovely child;
He gave it to our keeping.
To cherish undefiled.
But just as it was opening
To the glory of the day;
Down came the Heavenly Gardener
And took our child away.
—FATHER.

'Tis hard to break the tender cord,
When love has bound the heart;
'Tis hard, so hard, to speak the words—
"We must forever part!"
Dearest brother, we have laid thee,
In the peaceful grave's embrace;
But thy memory will be cherished,
'Till we see thy heavenly face.
—SISTER MARGUERITE.

AUDREY S. CARTER.

In memory of Audrey L. Carter, daughter of George W. and Nettie M. Carter, age 6 months and 14 days.

The little cradle is empty now,
The little clothes laid by;
A mother's hope, a father's joy,
In death's cold arms doth lie.

Our lovely babe, so young, so fair,
Called hence by earthly doom,
Just came to show how sweet a flower,
In Paradise would bloom.

Sleep on sweet babe, happy, blessed,
Rest, in peaceful slumber rest,
Early rescued from the cares
That increase with coming years.
—G. W. C.

ALVAH EVERETT BENSON.

In lowing memory of Alvah Everett Benson, who died Feb. 17, 1913. Gone, but not forgotten.

How slender is life's silver cord,
How soon 'tis broken here;
Each moment brings a parting word
And many a falling tear.
As the stars o'er head are gleaming,
Oftimes we sit alone;
In our hearts there is a feeling
That my darling must come home.
Oh, Alvah, could you but speak to us,
And could you live again,
Our aching hearts would then be healed,
But this we wish in vain.
Again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled,
And in Heaven with joy to meet thee,
Where no farewell tears are shed.
—MOTHER.

When they ask us do we miss him,
How it fills our hearts with pain;
But his voice seems sweetly calling,
Courage—we shall meet again.
—SISTER PAULINE.

S. ABIGAIL TURNER.

In memory of S. Abigail Turner, who died one year ago April 6, 1912.

'Tis hard to break the tender cord,
When love has bound the heart;
'Tis hard, so hard, to speak the words—
"We must forever part."
Dearest Abigail, we have laid thee,
In the peaceful grave's embrace;
But they memory will be cherished,
'Till we see thy angel face.

A mother's pride, a father's joy,
Is buried with our darling girl;
Farewell, dear Abigail, is an anful word,
Which pierces a parent's heart,
But oh, it is the will of God,
Our dearest ones must part.
—MAMMA AND PAPA.

JOHN ELBURN.

In sad, but loving remembrance of my dear husband and our father, John Elburn, who departed this life one year ago April 11, 1912.

Though a year has passed my heart's still sore,
As time flies on I miss him more;
He sleeps—I leave him in peace to rest—
The parting was painful but God knoweth best.

Our home is sad and lonely,
The loss to us no tongue can tell;
One we loved has died and left us
For the dark and silent tomb.
—BY HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN.
