Baltimore award to Ernie Banks

Ernie Banks, the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1958, will receive the Sultan of Swat crown awarded by the Maryland Professional Baseball Players Association at its annual "Tops in Sports" banquet, on Monday evening, January 12, at the Lord Baltimore Hotel.

The 6-foot-1-inch, 180 - pound Chicago Cub shortstop, who will be only 19 days short of his 28th birthday on the 12th of next month, led the senior circuit in home runs last season with a total of 47, thereby establishing a new all-time major league record for most home runs in a season by a shortstop.

THE SLENDER star from Dallas, Texas, also led the National League in runs batted in with 129.

Banks is one of the few players in the history of baseball to begin his professional baseball without benefit of minor league experience. He was playing in the Negro American League in 1953 when the Chicago Cubs purchased the 23-year old shortstop's contract from the Kansas City Monarchs near the end of the season.

ERNIE BANKS

Banks named for 2 more Chi awards

CHICAGO — The Chicago Cubs' Ernie Banks, busy on the banquet circuit making acceptance speeches these days, has been chosen for two more trophies — the newly-named Will Harridge Award as the achievement of the year and the Chicago Player of the Year award.

The announcement was made, December 13, by Ed Prell of the Tribune, chairman of the nineteenth annual Diamond Dinner, the climactic social event of the hot stove season here, which is sponsored by the Chicago chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association of America.

• • •

BANKS, the majors' homer and RBI king (he also led in total bases and slugging percentage), will be honored with an unprecedented double trophy presentation at the Palmer House on Sunday evening, January 18. More than 800 persons are expected to attend.

The Harridge trophy is one of three major awards given annually by the Chicago scribes.

Pompey DQ'd

BIRMINGHAM, England (ANP) — Johnny Halifihi of Tonga was awarded a bout with Yolande Pompey of Trinidad after Pompey was disqualified in the tenth round for a low blow.

The light-heavyweight bout had been scheduled for twelve rounds.

Tan stars await NFL playoffs

Seventeen colored stars were awaiting playoff games in the National Football League as the AFRO observed its early holiday press time Saturday night.

Ten were involved in the division playoff between the New York Giants and Cleveland Browns at Yankee Stadium, slated for Sunday (21st). They were to compete in the battle that was to decide which of the two clubs would meet the Baltimore Colts next Sunday (28th).

• • •

THE OTHER seven were standing in the wings along with their Colts teammates, awaiting the result of the Giants - Browns scrap for the Eastern Division crown. Baltimore had already clinched the Western Division title and is scheduled to take on the Giants-Browns winner for the pro championship.

That game of December 28, will be played in the home park of the New York-Cleveland victor.

• • •

SET FOR the Giants-Browns test were four players with the New York entry, and six with Cleveland.

Competing with the Giants were fullback Mel Triplett, tackles Roosevelt Brown (offense) and Roosevelt Grier (defense), and defensive halfback Emlen Tunnell.

Competing with the Browns were the great fullback, Jim Brown, halfbacks Leroy Bolden and Bob Mitchell, tackle Willie McClung, and ends Willie Davis and Frank Clarke.

• • •

WAITING FOR the Giants and Browns to settle their differences were the following colts stars:

Halfbacks Lenny Moore, Milt Davis, Lenny Lyles and John-Sample; and tackles Gene (Big Daddy) Lipscomb, Jim Parker and Sherman Plunkett.

BANKS HAS been named to three All-Star teams during his five-year career.

He has slammed a total of 183 home runs in a little more than five major league seasons, averaging more than 36 a year. He has his lifetime total of runs batted in - is 518, better than 100 a year.

Banks is the first National League player to win the Sultan of Swat award, which is a gold crown, engraved with the batting feats of the winner, and studded with diamonds. Two years ago New York Yankees centerfielder Mickey Mantle received the crown and last year Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox won the award.

Last ten grid title tilts mixed

Colored faces have appeared in each of the last ten championship games of the National Football League.

Sunday's (28th) battle between the Baltimore Colts and the winner of the playoff between the New York Giants and Cleveland Browns for the Eastern Division title, will include 11 of the players if the Giants are the opponent, and 13 if the Browns are the opposing club.

CONSECUTIVE COLORED participation dates back to 1949, when the Los Angeles Rams with Dan Towler, Tank Younger, et al) met the Philadelphia Eagles in a game won, 14-0, by Philadelphia.

The 1950 game pitted the Rams (Towler, Younger, Bob Boyd and Harry Thompson) against the Cleveland Browns (with Marion Motley, Lenny Ford, Bill Willis, et al). The Browns won, 30-28.

In 1951, the Rams were back to beat the Browns, 24-17, the old guard of Towler, Motley, etc., being joined by Horace Brown.

THE INTEGRATED Browns lineup lost the 1952 game to the Detroit Lions, 17-7, also the 1953 battle to the same Lions, 17-16, though joined by Sherman Howard.

In 1954, the Clevelanders ran roughshod over the Lions, 56-10. They collected the spoils in 1955, beating the Rams, 38-36, although the L.A. outfit was fortified with the addition of Gene Lipscomb, Woody Lewis and Dick Lane.

THE NEW YORK Giants, with Roosevelt Brown, Bobby Epps, Mel Triplett, Roosevelt Grier, secured a 47-7 triumph over the Chicago Bears and C. Caroline, Bobby Watkins et al, in 1956.

Last year, John Henry Johnson helped the Lions wallop the Brown (with Jim Brown, Harold Bradley, etc., 59-14.

Stilt hits 28 for Trotters at Uline

WASHINGTON

The famous Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain breezed into town Wednesday night for his Washington debut with the Harlem Globetrotters. To celebrate the occasion, the baseball funnymen defeated the Hawaii Surf riders, 86-76, at Uline Arena as Chamberlain scored 28.

Chamberlain did most of his scoring on inside hook shots, but the 7-foot ex-Kansas player found time between antics for some fancy, long shots that brought the more than 4,600 fans from their seats.

AS FOR the antics themselves Chamberlain seems to fit in well with the Globetrotters style of comedy. But the show-stealer Wednesday night was Meadowlark Lemon.

Lemon, reminiscent of the former Trotter comic, Goose Tatum, brought laughter from the crowd as he tormented players and referees alike with tricky ball handling, fancy dribbling, and just plain monkey business.

At one time Lemon so upset one of the referees that the Harlem star was chased off the court and into the lap of packed grandstands, much to the amusement of the crowd.

Near the end of the game, the Trotters, with a 10-point edge, abandoned basketball tactics and went into an exhibition of football, kicking a 'field goal' into the stands as the puzzled Surfriders looked on.

By the time the opposing team and the spectators had gotten used to the uncanny transition, the famous funnymen had switched positions and eased into a baseball formation, with Chamberlain on the 'mound' tossing the ball across the "plate" as each teammate took a swing at it.

The Trotters may have had a couple of more antics up their sleeves but the clock was running out and suddenly the contest was over.

In an earlier game, the Texas Cowgirls turned back Carroll - Hall - Press and TV All-Stars, 37-18.

In Memoriam 1

COX—In loving memory of our dear son and brother,
RALPH, H. who passed away December 16, 1955.
No one knows the aching heart-aches
Only those who ask and wait
Not a day goes by dear Ralph
But we loved, so dearly.
Loving
MOTHER, FATHER, BROTHERS & SISTERS

FREDERICK — In loving memory of my daughter, LOUISE DIX, who passed away December 19, 1944:
Sweet is the memory
Aiding the road of yesterday;
Sweet is the thought, to see you
Gamble
Sweet to you a little while
I do love to linger along the way
Memories are treasured that no one can take
Your death was a heartache that nothing can heal
I do not forget you, now that you are dead
But memories will remember you
Forever and ever
LOVING MOTHER.

HALL — In loving memory of our dear son, ROBERT HALL, who passed away December 19, 1956:
Gone dear mother, gone forever
Left us miles your eyes to sever
But you left us to remember
Your loving ways in your place
A happy home we once enjoyed,
But now a vacant chair is filled
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.
Daughters
BEATRICE STEPHENS
AND FOUR GRANDCHILDREN

SANGLEY — In loving memory of our dear daughter and our dear sister, PHILLIS ANN SANGLEY, who passed away December 19, 1957:
Sad and sudden was the call,
Nothing said but came and went
A bitter grief, a short, severe
