MILLINERY AT ITS BEST

When the prevailing styles in Hats tend to the smaller sizes and the more graceful shapes, with not an abundance of trimmings, then it is that the young ladies and "older" ones, too, take great pleasure in selecting what really is a handsome hat.

The styles this season are just right, and when you see a splendid assortment of the very new shapes and exquisite trimmings as are represented in our Millinery Parlors, the desire to buy two instead of one hat will possess you. A new shipment of the most popular shapes arrived for to-day's selliug. Come look at them.

WE ARE HEADQUARTERS

FOR THE J. & K. SHOES.

The famous shoe for young women—the shoe of individuality. We have them in all styles, all leathers, to fit all feet and all fancies. The "J&K Englisher," with its low heel and stylish lines, is one of their latest creations. Button Oxfords in all Leathers will be strong this season, as well as the Strapless Pumps. The Low Heel seems to have the preference.

If you come early you have a selection from widths A to D, which means you can get a fit in the same stylish shoes which the very best dealers are showing in the large cities.

EGGS WANTED

We allow the highest market price for Eggs in trade. No limit to the number we can handle.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

MRS. RACHEL E. TEMPLE.

Mrs. Rachel E. Temple, widow of the late William E. Temple, died early Sunday morning in the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. W. Carmine, Chestertown, of paralysis and other afflictions, aged 76 years. The deceased has been an invalid for several years, during which time she had the loving and devoted attention of her daughter and family. She is survived by two children—Mrs. A. W. Carmine, Chestertown, and Mr. Wm. E. Temple, of Cambridge. Funeral services were held on Tuesday morning last, conducted by the Rev. L. E. Barrett, D.D. Interment was in Church Hill Cemetery. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd in charge. The pall-bearers were Milton N. Baker, Walter U. Lusby, Edwin S. Valliant, Wm. A. Wallis, Levi Pippin and Dr. J. E. Graham.

MRS. JOEL C. SLAUGHTER.

Mrs. Joel C. Slaughter, wife of Mr. Joel C. Slaughter, who for years was a prominent steamboat man and former Register of Wills here, residing where Mr. and Mrs. Joel R. Clements now live on Hight street, died recently. Mrs. Slaughter will be remembered by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances have, her family having occupied a conspicuous place in the social and religious life of the town for years. The deceased was a sister-in-law of Mrs. Catlin and Mrs. J. E. Graham, of this town. She is survived by her husband and two daughters. Mr. and Mrs. Slaughter had been living in Dallas, Texas.

WILLIAM FAULKNER TOWNSEND.

William Faulkner Townsend, son of Mr. and Mrs. Britton Townsend, of near Cliff's, Quaker Neck, died at Mercy Hospital, Baltimore, last Monday, aged 22 years. The remains were brought over on the steamer B. S. Ford Tuesday, and funeral services were held Thursday at the home of the deceased's parents, Rev. O. B. Rice officiating. The interment was in Chester Cemetery. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd in charge. The pall-bearers were: James, John and George Townsend, Elmer Goodman, Edgar Walbert and Frank Hadaway.

MRS. E. EVA WRIGHT.

Mrs. E. Eva Wright, wife of Rev. Thomas H. Wright, a well-known member of the Maryland Conference, died at the home of her sister, Dr. Julia V. Downes, 1617 Madison avenue, Baltimore, on Monday night. The deceased was well-known in Chestertown, where she lived for years and was a beloved teacher in the Chestertown public school. She was a sister of Joseph L. Downes, and leaves a husband, and two sons by a former marriage, Herbert and John P. Price.

MRS. MAREB PRICE.

Mrs. Mareb Price, wife of Mr. Wm. G. Price, and daughter of John H. and the late Hattie Zink, of Baltimore, died at Rock Hall on Sunday, aged 24 years, 10 months and 15 days. The remains were taken to Baltimore on Monday morning and interment was made on Wednesday in Melvale cemetery, Elkridge.

MRS. ANNIE M. POTTS.

Mrs. Annie M. Potts, wodow of William A. Potts, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Annie Burke, in Philadelphia, late Tuesday evening. Until the death of her husband three years ago Mrs. Potts has resided in Baltimore for 20 years, being associated with him in the management of the amusements at Tolchester during the summer season.

MR. ALONZO S. VANNORT.

Mr. Alonzo S. Vannort, a former postmaster of Fort Deposit, died at his home in that town on Sunday, in the 67th year of his age. Mr. Vannort was one of the best-known Republican workers in Cecil county, and was a relative of the Vannort family in this town.

Christiana M. Dickerson, infant daughter of Jown W. and Carrie Dickerson, of near Cliff's, Quaker Neck, died Sunday of whooping cough, aged 8 months. Funeral was held Tuesday. Interment at Bond Chapel. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd in charge.

Jessie W., infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Jessie T. Latham, died Sunday morning. Funeral services were held Monday by Rev. Dr. Barrett. The interment was in Chester Cemetery. Charles L. Dodd undertaker.

The Chestertown Federated Club.

Chestertown has recently formed a Club, to be known as the Chestertown Federated Club. It will be composed of sections with a chairman for each section, modeled after the State Federation.

Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard was elected President: Mrs. P. A. M. Brooks first vice-President; Mrs. Herbert Perkins, second vice-President; Mrs. J. D. Bacchus, Recording Secretary; Miss Louisa Urie, Corresponding Secretary, and Miss Blanche Constable, Treasurer.

The following are some of the questions they will attempt to solve:

The servant problem, Mrs. Brooks being made chairman of this section.

Home economics, of which Mrs. Marjorie P. Finley was made chairman, and under this section they wish specially to look into the milk problem, as the ladies have been informed that the laws concerning diseased cattle are much more lax in Maryland than in Pennsylvania and Virginia and that Maryland has been made the dumping ground for tuberculous cattle.

The ladies also wish to have a section for the prevention of cruelty to animals and also to enforce the ten hour law, and the child labor law and the proper care and prevention of tuberculosis.

A meeting was held at the home of Mrs. W. W. Hubbard on Monday evening. Mrs. Benjamin Corkran, of Baltimore, addressed the meeting. Mrs. Corkran's personality and enthusiasm over the great and good work that women are doing so impressed the ladies that a great many new members were added to the club, making it about sixty-two in all. After Mrs. Corkran's address refreshments were served. Mrs. Corkran was a Miss Lloyd, and is a cousin of Mrs. Clarke, the wife of Prof. E. J. Clarke, of Washington College.

Gold Metal for School Children.—A gold metal to the school boy or girl between the ages of 10 and 15 who writes the best composition, not to exceed 800 words, on the repair and maintenance of earth roads, is to be awarded by Logan Walter Page, Director, office of Public Roads, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. All compositions must be submitted to Mr. Page before May 15, 1913, and the medal will be awarded as soon thereafter as the compositions can be graded. The composition may be based on knowledge gained from books or other sources, but no quotations should be made.
