Mr. Earle Duyer, who is employed in a large printing establishment in Baltimore, has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse G. Duyer, during the week. Mr. Duyer was on his way to Dover to see his wife, who, we regret to state is in poor health.

Mrs. Ida Wright, of Baltimore, was the guest of Mrs. P. J. Cooper this week.

Mr. Nettleton, of Connecticut, was the guest of Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard over Sunday.

BASE BALL NOTES.

In a game in which neither side enjoyed over a two run lead the Washington College team of ball tossers defeated the nine representing the Baltimore Polytechnic Institute, of Baltimore, last Saturday afternoon on Washington field by the score of 5 to 4.

Despite the closeness of the score the contest aroused but little enthusiasm, and good plays were few and far between. Biddle, who was on the mound for the local collegians, pitched masterly ball and had the visitors at his mercy at all times. Had it not been for several costly errors he would have had a shut out credited to him. The pitching of Reynolds was also of the nigest calibre. Wallace at short of W. C., although he made two costly errors, was undoubtedly the individual star of the game. Anderson played a good game at first base for the visitors.

THE SCORE.

| | | R. | H. | E. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| W. C. | 2 0 0 1 0 1 1 0 x | 5 | 6 | 4 |
| B. P. I. | 0 0 0 2 0 1 0 0 1 | 4 | 4 | 2 |

The batteries—For Washington, Biddle and Pearson; for Polytechnic, Reynolds, Neal and Gobre.

The Centreville High School baseball team got sweet revenge last Saturday on its home grounds when it defeated the local high school squad by the score of 9 to 8. By winning this contest the Centreville team is now on an even basis with the locals in a three game series. The decisive setto will be played on the local diamond in the near future. Usilton held down the pivotal sack for the locals and acquitted himself well. At the bat he hit the ball on the nose landing it safely twice out of three times up.

Tucker, besides pitching a steady game for the Queen Anne's team, hit the ball opportunely.

The batteries were: For Chestertown, Sparks, Brown and Robinson; for Centreville, Tucker and Holmes.

Blacks defeated Kennedyville baseball club last Saturday by a score of 8 to 1. It might have been a shut out if Morris hadn't made a wild throw when Redmile was coming home. Biddle and Logan were batteries for Blacks and Wilbanks, Whitely and Jones for Kennedyville.

Ill in Police Station.—Tottering into the Northeastern Police Station, Baltimore, Friday night, Mrs. Fairy Elburn, of Piney Neck, Rock Hall, sat down in a chair in the assembly room without saying a word to any of the officers on duty. Lieutenant Lastner had her removed in the Northeastern district ambulance to St. Joseph's Hospital, where it was found that she was suffering from chronic gastritis. She said her husband was employed on a boat and made $5 a week. She came to Baltimore in the hope of obtaining free treatment in a hospital. She was taken ill while near the station.
