IT TAKES GOOD TAILORING

not large quantities of printer's ink, to make good clothes. The CHARACTER of our tailoring is such that will bring hundreds of women to us this season for them.

WHY NOT BE AMONG THEM?

CHOOSING A NEW SUIT

is a matter of great moment to the women of to-day. The long, graceful lines are demanded by the present-day style, and it is purely a matter of choosing the correct tailor.

LOCAL MATTERS

Buys Farm.—Mr. George Hendrickson has purchased from the heirs of his father, the late Victor Hendrickson, the home farm situated near Brice's Mill. The price is private, but is said to have been satisfactory to all parties concerned.

To Deepen South East River.—The United States government steamer Sentinel dropped anchor off the mouth of South East river at 11 o'clock Tuesday with a party of engineers in charge of Lieut. Doyle, from the office of Col. Lansing H. Beach, of civil engineers U. S. Army, for the purpose of making a survey of S. E. river in response to a petition in the business interests of Church Hill and surrounding territory. It is proposed to remove the bar at the mouth of the river and dredge a 7-foot channel to within a short distance of Church Hill.

Novel Way to Move a Tree.—Mr. W. Frank Jarrell recently purchased from Mr. Robt. G. Nicholson a large shade tree in his pretty grove at the old electric light plant. Mr. Edward Newton and force dug the tree up by the roots, jacked it up on rollers and removed it to Mr. Jarrell's home on the avenue with a traction engine in an upright position. The tree and cost of removing and replanting will amount to about $35. The tree is about 25 years old, and its trunk is about a foot in diameter. This is the first tree to be moved in such manner in Chestertown.

Accepts Fine Position.—Mr. George Brice, one of our prosperous young farmers living near Lankford, has accepted a position as manager of a large kennel in New York State at a salary of $2,400 and expenses a year, together with a fine mansion in which to reside. Mr. Brice will have charge of one of the finest Kennels in this country. He will leave here about May 1. Mrs. Brice will supervise the farm work with the assistance of a competent foreman until January 1st, when the family expects to go to New York to live, and their fine farm near Lankford will be rented.

Buys Mercantile Business.—Mr. Marion Hadaway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Hadaway, of near Edesville, has purchased the business at Worton Station heretofore conducted by the Worton Merchandising Company in the A. S. Turner store house, and has assumed charge. Mr. Hadaway is a young man or excellent business judgment and fine moral habits. He learned the merchandising business under one of the best merchants in this county—Marion T. Miller, of Rock Hall, and is splendidly equipped for this business. He has purchased a full and complete stock of new goods, and will give every one a square deal.

Stole a Team.—Robert Brooks, a colored sport living at Golts, Md., got full of Middletown, Del., whiskey on Saturday night, the 19th inst. On returning towards his home through Townsend found Mr. Robert Ellsworth's team hitched in front of Mr. Mordecai Lurty's, and appropriated the same to his own use. An auto was procured from W. Harmon Reynolds and the pursuit was on. Robert was caught with the goods and taken before Squire John D. Carter, who committed Robert to the workhouse for next term of court in default of $500 bail. Robert's excuse was drunkenness, but the squire added nothing on for that.

TO LOAN ON MORTGAGES.

I have to loan on Mortgages at 6 per cent. $500, $600, $800, $1000, $1500, $2000, $2400, $2500, $3000, $4000, $5000, $7000, $10,000 and $20,000. Some of these sums can be placed for five years. On first-class mortgages where the loan does not exceed three-fifths the value of the farm, a large part of this money can be borrowed at 5 per cent.

HOPE H. BARROLL, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Chestertown, Md.

Grange Notes.—Fairlee Grange held a very interesting meeting last Wednesday evening. The lecturer had a program that seemed to please every one. A beautiful duet was sung by Mrs. Laurence Stevens and Mrs. Howard Reese. How can we enforce our local laws? Do modern conveniences tend to increase happiness? Is is wise to take many side issues in farming? A general discussion of the house fly. These questions were well handled and must result beneficially.

Saratoga Chip Factory.—Mr. Nathan Lieberman, the hustling Melitota merchant, has made arrangements to operate a saratoga chip factory in Melitota. While the work is more or less an experiment as yet, Mr. Lieberman has already made contracts for as many potatoes as he can handle this season, and he will operate on a more extensive scale later. The growing of potatoes as a new feature of farm work in this section has made possible this new enterprise, and Mr. Lieberman knows how to conduct this business.

Street Cleaning.—The Ladies' Town Improvement Association, the Board of Town Commissioners and the merchants of the town have in contemplation a system of street cleaning which will mean much to the health and cleanliness of the town. Plans are on foot for oiling the new road, and for the present the street cleaning feature will be operated on High street from the Voshell House to Queen street. The Ladies' Association and merchants are back of this movement, and if the experiment on High street proves a success, it will be extended to all parts of the town, and a general crusade of street cleaning will be on. It is to be hoped that every one will co-operate with the town authorities in this most needed enterprise, and help to make the old town a place of beauty and healthful environment. The work will begin this morning. The members of the Ladies' Town Improvement Society and all others interested are requested to meet at the residence of Mrs. Annie H. Sim Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock to discuss street cleaning and the sanitation of the town.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Mr. Philip G. Wilmer has had his Maxwell touring car repaired and attractively painted.

The quarterly meeting of the Teachers' Association was held in the High School building yesterday.

Mr. J. F. Thompson will begin his automobile route to Tolchester to-day. The charges will be $1 each way.

Worthless dogs got into Mr. Sewell Lee's flock of sheep on Monday night, killed a sheep and one lamb, and more or less injured the entire flock of 20.

The Kent County Pomona Grange will meet to-day in Still Pond Grange Hall. The County Lecturer, Mrs. Harvey Moore, has prepared an interesting program for the occasion.

Mr. William T. Crow has improved his pretty Washington avenue home by an attractive dress of paint. Mr. Thos. B. Newcomb and force, of Lynch, did the work, in a splendid manner.

Rev. G. A. Morris on Tuesday sold his fine driving mare to Mr. Harry C. Willis for exactly what Mr. Morris paid for her five years ago. She is one of the best driving mares in the county.

Washington College was snowed under by Lebanon Valley College on Thursday afternoon by the score of 9 to 0. The visitor's pitcher was invincible while Bowen and Biddle were easy marks for the visiting heavy hitters.

Ice formed in troughs and drinking utensils on Sunday night and there was a good size frost on Monday morning. Young fruit can't stand much of that kind of weather, and it is feared that much damage has already been done.

Growers around Townsend, Del., are fearful that the recent heavy rains have rotted the seed potatoes in the ground and they are thinking of replanting. We have heard of no reports to that effect from Kent county growers.

Graham Clements & Sutton have sold to Mr. J. Biddle Hossinger a new five-passenger Buick car, Model 31. Mr. Graham, accompanied by Mr. Hossinger and Mr. P. G. Wilmer, went to Philadelphia on Monday and returned in the car Tuesday.

The election for one member of the Board of Town Commissioners to succeed Mr. Merrick Clements, whose term expires May 1, takes place on Monday. The candidates are Mr. William B. Coleman, and Mr. Clements, who aspires to succeed himself.

County Commissioner T. Benjamin Crew, one of the largest peach growers in the county, says that he does not believe the crop is hurt any. He says he has the best prospect for a large crop of peaches he has had in years. Mr. James G. Harris also has a fine prospect for a big crop.

Mr. George Sutton, the well-known Worton track trainer, has a string of five promising horses at work every day. Mr. Sutton has the promise of 10 or 12 fine horses this year, and has employed Mr. Stafford, of Middletown, Del., to assist him. Sutton will be heard from down the circuit this year now you mark it.

Mr. Lewin U. Skirven received the latter part of last week six fine Percheron and Belgian horses from the West, which he purchased for use on his farm. Four are fine Percheron mares, and two are Belgian colts. It is said that Mr. Skirven paid $400 for the mares. That is the way to improve stock conditions in the county.

There was a severe electric storm early on Wednesday morning, accompanied by a heavy fall of hail and rain in Queen Annes. Lightning struck a large chestnut tree at the home of Mr. Rumsey Anthony, near his green house, tearing the tree to splinters. The chimney of the home of Mr. D. B. McMenamin, on the avenue, was also struck and damaged.

The hustling firm of Stavely & Bowers, Lynch, is selling more lumber this spring than for years. They are carrying a splendid quality and have purchased at prices that will enable them to sell on close margin. The firm has also booked numerous contracts for the summer and fall, and they have a very large force of men already at work. See them about your lumber and building.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor. Regular services on Sunday and preaching by the pastor at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. Sabbath School 2.30 P.M., Juniors meeting at 6 clock. Christian Endeavor service 6.45 P.M. The Probationers' Union will meet Wednesday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Mid-week service Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

Two young men, Clarence Holtzhan, of Betterton, and his cousin, George Holtzhan, of Philadelphia, had a thrilling experience in the Patapsco river, in a small launch on Saturday afternoon. They were caught at the mouth of the river in a 25-mile-an-hour gale, when their engine stopped on them and they narrowly escaped drowning. The launch was beached on Sollers Point, the young men waded ashore and they took an electric car back to Baltimore. They went to Baltimore to get some lumber.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

JOHN B. PARROTT.

Mr. John B. Parrott, a retired farmer and prominent citizen, died suddenly at his home in Still Pond Monday evening of paralysis of the heart, aged 55 years. Mr. Parrott had suffered periodical attacks of heart trouble for several years, and for this reason principally, was not engaged in active business, but instead was living quietly in the town of Still Pond where he had a splendidly appointed home. On Monday evening after eating a hearty supper and attending to some little chores about his premises, he started to walk to the store, a few hundred yards from his home. He had just reached his front gate and had placed his hand on the latch, when the fatal attack occurred. He was conversing with Mr. Ralph Robinson at the time.

With a single cry of pain, he threw his hands to his breast and fell to the ground. His wife and others rushed to his side only to find life extinct, death having been instantaneous. The death of Mr. Parrott caused a profound shock over the entire county. He was a man of strong character, wide popularity, and was in all respects a most estimable citizen. He had been President of the Board of Town Commissioners of Still Pond since its incorporation, and had done much for its improvement and development. Mr. Parrott was deeply interested in the welfare of his county, and though never having held political office, he was an active participant in Democratic politics, and worked for the interests of his party. He was a member of one of the oldest and most esteemed families in the county, having been a son of the late John B. Parrott. He leaves a widow, who was a Miss Baynard, and one sister, Miss Rachel Parrott, of Still Pond. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at one o'clock, conducted by Revs. F. X. Moore and J. H. Beauchamp. Interment was made in the family lot in Still Pond cemetery. Undertaker Wm. H. Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Howard Turner, Geo. E. Parrott, Wm. M. Bonwell, Robert A. Bowers, J. Raymond Bowers, Geo. L. Bowers, Elsworth C. Bowers and Harry Busick, of Baltimore.

MRS. MARGARET ANN THOMAS.

Mrs. Margaret Ann Thomas, widow of the late Rev. S. W. Thomas, D. D., was born in Chestertown, Kent county, Maryland, September 15, 1834, and departed this life March 13, 1913. By her death there was broken a line of historical continuity in ordained religious work that went back to Bishop Asbury. She came of godly parents and was the product of a home touched by the genius and spirit of early Methodism. Her mother, Mrs. Ann H. Wiley and her father, Rev. Nathaniel Wiley, were people of piety, culture and spiritual ideals. Her great-great-grandfather, a Mr. Gibbs, coming from the Episcopal Church, formed the first class on the Eastern Shore. With such traditions and ancestry she was well-fitted to be the inspiration of that notable man in our local Methodism, Dr. S. W. Thomas, and when he came to the conference in Philadelphia in 1854 she came as his bride. For 57 years she was his silent partner in all his manifold undertakings. Never obtruding in public life or events, she bore her full share of his burdens. No true estimate of his worth and work can fail to note the contributions made by this quiet, sustained, balanced gentlewoman. In her home she was queen and her sceptre was love. Three sons mourn her who gave herself to them so unstintedly. Harry N. Wiley and Geo. E. Thomas are all loyal and devoted to the heritage of such motherhood. She was the friend of Methodist ministers and shed tears for their hardships, and more than one brother found her a friend, understanding, sympathetic and kind. Trinity Church, of which she was a faithful member, mourns her and reveres her memory. The funeral services were conducted at her home, 1513 North Gratz street, on Saturday afternoon, March 15, and were participated in by Revs. J. Stringer, B. T. Callen, C. M. Boswell, Wayne Channell, H. E. Wahley and S. M. Thompson. She was borne by the same hands that bore her husband and by his side she rests in death, with whom she walked so faithfully in life.

MRS. ALICE SPICER.

Mrs. Alice Spicer died in Baltimore on Monday, of Bright's disease, aged 55 years. The deceased was the daughter of the late Robert Rouse, of near Kennedyville, and was a distant relative of the Rouse family in this county. The remains were brought to Chestertown on the steamer Corsica on Wednesday night and funeral services were held on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett. Interment was made in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Wm. Walter Cnapman, W. Bradford Copper, M. Wilbur Thomas, James T. DeCorse, James S. Bradley and Allan A. Harris. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MARRIAGE BELLS.

REMMINGTON—CREW.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Arthur Brice, in Betterton Tuesday, April 15. The contracting parties being Miss Elsie I. Crew, the youngest daughter of Mrs. Eben Crew, of Betterton, and Mr. Arthur Remmington, of Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. Remmington will make their home in Baltimore.

HODGKIN—TUNIS.

Mr. Harry Hodgkin, well-known merchant, and Miss Edna Tunis, an accomplished and popular young lady, both of Chestertown, were married on Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. T. T. Horn. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Henry B. Martin, only immediate members of the families were present. The young couple left on the 7.41 train for a short wedding tour, and upon their return will reside on Kent Circle in the residence formerly occupied by Mr. Harry B. Nicholson and family.

CLARK—ADAMS.

Joseph S. Clark, of Still Pond, and Miss Eleanor W. Adams were married in Annapolis Monday morning at the residence of Milton L. Tull, a cousin of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George S. Bell, pastor of First Presbyterian Church. The bride is the eldest daughter of Robert W. Adams, of Princess Anne. On returning from their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Clark will make their home at Princess Anne.

APRIL TERM OF COURT.

The April term of court convened in in the court house on Monday morning with Associate Judge Hopper on the bench. Chief Judge Albert Constable and Associate Judge Adkins arrived on the morning train and took their places besides Judge Hopper. Thomas S. The case of B. S. Sutton vs. the P., B. & W. R. R. Co. for recovery on a cargo of wheat was argued and given to the jury, which rendered verdict for the railroad company. The amount of money involved in this case was $205. Beck for R. R. Co., L. W. Wickes for Mr. Sutton.

The grand jury finished its labors, presented its report and was discharged with the thanks of the court. Their report is as follows:

TO THE HONORABLE, THE JUDGES OF THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR KENT COUNTY, MD.:

We, the Grand Jury for Kent county for the April term of 1913, beg leave to make the following report: We have been in session for four days. We have carefully considered sixteen cases. We have had six officers in and for Kent county before us. We have examined 40 witnesses for a few of whom we have issued summons. We have made 7 presentments and found 7 true bills. We made a visit to the county jail and inspected the whole premises and different cells inside. We found eight prisoners whose quarters were comfortable and clean. We also recommend to the County Commissioners that to encourage further cleanliness and neatness of the jail, that a few repairs be made, especially the cement flooring. We are of the opinion that the constant and flagrant violation of the local option law in Kent county, and particular Chestertown, has assumed such proportions that some drastic remedy must be applied to check it. We have been creditably informed that fifty or more persons of Chestertown alone, are in the habit of receiving consignments of intoxicating liquors, ranging in quantities from a gallon to a barrel, regularly every week, and sometimes oftener; and while we are morally sure that such quantities of liquor are bought for the sole purpose of being sold, and are in fact sold with the utmost impunity, we are unable, in spite of our best endeavors, to bring the offenders to justice. The repeated unsuccessful efforts of the present, as well as former grand juries, emphasizes the utter futility of ever hoping to accomplish satisfactory results without the aid of reputable detectives, and to this end, we earnestly request the Honorable Board of Commissioners of Kent county, to levy or appropriate a sufficient amount of money to be judiciously expended by the State's Attorney in the employment of such detective service as he may deem wise in assisting him to stamp out this flagrant abuse. We would also recommend that Caddie Oakley, a colored female, now confined in the county jail, be committed to an institution at Crownsville, Anne Arundel county, Md., that will be opened on and after May 1 for colored patients only, as we believe she is irresponsible. We thank the State's Attorney and officers of the court for their courtesy and assistance in the performance of our most responsible duties. On the whole we congratulate ourselves that we have done our best to bring to justice every violator of the law, whether the offence be a crime or misdemeanor.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS S. BORDLEY, Foreman.

FRANK V. SIMPERS, Clerk.

THURSDAY CONTINUED.

The case of Wm. J. Vannort vs. three directors of the Chestertown Steam Laundry—Jesse R. Copper, Wm. H. McKee, and Wm. G. Smyth, to recover on note of $2000 of which these three directors were indorsers was called for trial before a jury. Hope H. Barroll, L. Wethered Barroll and Lewin W. Wickes were counsel for the directors and Sidney P. Townshend for Col. Vannort. This case was on trial at the hour of adjournment.

FRIDAY.

Court convened at 9.30 o'clock, and the case of Vannort vs. the Chestertown Steam Laundry was resumed. The jury rendered a verdict for the defendants.

The England case was next taken up.
