It makes no difference when a Senator for the long term in the United States Senate will be elected, next fall, or next fall a year, Mr. William L. Marbury, the progressive Democratic candidate will continue his campaign of education in behalf of the people's interests.

More Newspaper Comment on Senator Smith.

This is the way the newspapers are viewing Senator Smith's candidacy for re-election to the Senate:

From the Marylander and Herald, Princess Anne.

It is our belief that Senator Smith is going to find the struggle for continuance in office a very difficult one. We can scarcely venture an opinion at this time as to the outcome of the Senatorial race, but we adhere to the opinion that one of Senator Smith's most unwise proceedings was his failure to retire from the field and thus indicate his recognition of the remarkable change in political condition and at the same time secure for himself repose and peace of mind.

It is important to remember that the "old guard" system has been forced into retirement to make way for popular approval. This fact is playing no small part in our State and national elections. The weight of favor is thus transferred to the men whom the people claim as of their own way of thinking. As Senator Smith has again assumed the role of candidate, it is for him to discover if he measures up to the new standard. In becoming a candidate he has entered an arena where the running is vastly different from that of former days. He may expect opposition; he can expect nothing else from those stimulated by the zeal of President Wilson, who wishes national legislation to conform to the spirit of the day. The danger of his campaign is thus intensified.

From the Denton American Union.

Mr. Marbury's reception on the part of a member of leading Democrats, was not as cordial as the one accorded Mr. Smith a few days ago, but, there was no lack of enthusiastic supporters, showing that the regulars will have some trouble to hold the county in line for Smith at the primaries.

THE RELIGIOUS WORLD.

Presbyterian services: Georgetown, 10.30; Kennedyville, 2.45; Worton, 7.30. The pastor and people of the above churches cordially invite all to their services, and especially those who have not yet identified themselves with any church. All such will find a hearty welcome. The pastor will endeavor to preach short, sharp, interesting and restful sermons, and will also strive to make the music attractive. Next Sunday the subject for the sermon will be, "Right and Wrong Motives for Being a Christian."

Preaching at Salem M. E. Church at 10.45 A M. and 7.30 P. M., at Worton 3 P. M.

Rev. Dr. J. S. Bowers, president of the Maryland Annual Conference, paid his official visits to Wesley Chapel and Chestertown on Sunday and preached able and forceful sermons at each place. He was accompanied by his wife.

The members and friends of Christ M. P. Church gave the pastor, Dr. Graham and his family a splendid donation at the parsonage on last Friday evening. Mr. Charles L. Dodd, president of the Board of Stewards, made a splendid presentation address to which Dr. Graham responded in a feeling manner. The pantry was filled with all sorts of good things, and a substantial purse of money was given the pastor. Refreshments of cake and lemonade were served, and there was a splendid attendance of the membership.

At I. U. Church Sunday, the 28th, at 10.00 A. M., and Betterton (Idlewhile Inn) at 3.00 P. M., Rev. S. S. Hepburn, instead of the usual sermon, will speak upon a subject which has now become of nation wide importance, "The Country Church, its Present Condition and Future Prospects." It is hoped that regardless of church affiliation, all who can possibly attend one or the other of these services will do so. Thinking men, both clerical and lay, are already greatly agitated over this question which has now come so prominently to the front.

Rev. G. A. Morris and family left on Thursday for his new field of labor at Trinity, Somerset county. They carry with them the high regard of hosts of friends who wish them success and happiness. Rev. Mr. Jester and wife, successors to Mr. Morris and family at St. James, arrived yesterday, and were given a rousing welcome by that loyal people. Mr. Jester will conduct services at St. James' and Lynch's tomorrow (Sunday).

The fund for building a Manse in Kennedyeille is growing steadily without any special or pressing appeal being made. Presbyterians are profoundly loyal to their church, and when they see a need exists, they certainly supply it if human agency can do so. Such is being done; and this fact is very gratifying to the pastor. But not only are Presbyterians sending in their gifts, but Methodists, and those who have no church connection. This speaks well for the spirit of harmony existing. Soon there will be a Manse, a house of which the people of Kennedyville and the immediate vicinity may well be proud. The session will meet at the home of Mr. Clews on Thursday of this week at 3 P. M. Next Sunday a Sunday school will be organized at Georgetown. Let us all do our best to make this a success.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., Pastor—Services next Sunday April 27th, as follows: 10.30 A. M., preaching by the pastor; 2.15 P. M., Sabbath school and pastor's bible class; 7 P. M.; Epworth League song service; 7.30 preaching by the pastor. Wednesday evening 7.30 Prayer service. All invited.

BETTER than SPANKING

Spanking will not cure children of wetting the bed, because it is not a habit but a dangerous disease. The C. H. Rowan Drug Co., Dept. 2523, Chicago, Ill., have discovered a strictly harmless remedy for this distressing disease and to make known its merits they will send a 50c package securely wrapped and prepaid Absolutely Free to any reader of the Transcript. This remedy also cures frequent desire to urinate and inability to control urine during the night or day in old or young. The C. H. Rowan Drug Co. is an Old Reliable House—write to them to-day for the free medicine. Cure the afflicted members of your family, then tell your neighbors and friends about this remedy.
