draw the men together; and often does.

Situation Natural One

The whole situation is a natural one, according to a parties concerned, some of whom expressed themselves as follows, when asked to comment on the change in the neighborhood:

Mrs. Grace Affayrour, 1003 Payson St.—"Our new neighbors are congenial and refined. Most of them have fixed their homes up from top to bottom; and the neighborhood really looks better."

Mrs. Violet Hines, 1005 Payson St.—"We get from our neighbors the kind of friendliness you find in the country. It may be a bunch of flowers, an exchange of recipes or a helping hand when you are sweeping off your sidewalk."
