Kappas Plan Gay Doings for Regional Convention

with Lula Jones Garrett

Come this week end and Kappa Alpha Psi men will take over as they host the regional conference, hereabouts.

They will get going on Friday night; when the annual Kappa Sweetheart Ball will be offered at Morgan Center, with a cocktail-ere the dancing and breakfast afterwards, the former at the Asco club, and latter at club Barbecue, and some other choice bits of entertaining, including a stag for themselves and a cocktailer for their "wimmin" on Saturday night. The latter affair is the offering of the Kappa Silhouettes, whose party will begin at the Asco Club at ten, with the evening planned to last until 2.

The Silhouettes met on Wednesday with Elizabeth Williams and smoothed out plans for this affair and for a card party on May 1.

About were:

Vera Williams, Beatrice Tucker, Bayonne Jones, Carolyn Norris, Gwendolyn Lynch, Marion Webb, Elizabeth Stewart, Gladys Johnson, Carolyn Willis, Etna Blackwell.

Elizabeth Williams, Catherine Frisby, Beatrice Lancaster, Lydia Mussenden, Mary Jacobs, Henrietta Dougherty.

Iola Minton, Grace E. Green, Marion Pearle, Anita Henson, Mary McPherson, Margaret Ewing, Bernice Watson, Bernadine Harrison; Frances Wood and Mattie Coasey.

NURSES TO DANCE

Friday night will be one of those tucker-out-eves, what with two other major groups holding forth. The nurses' sorority, Chi Eta Phi, dancing at Morgan Hall, and the Shriners holding "Ladies Night."

FIRESIDERS HOSTESSES

The Firesiders invited their friends in to "Sip and Chat" and dance Friday night in the Blue Room.

Amid soft lights, and lace cloths, red candles and flowers. Sandwiches and her d'evers were served at 12. Formerly known as "The Perplexing Seven," the club was organized during their junior high school days.

Julia McDaniel president of the group, was very svelte in black, trimmed in sequins, her hair pinned high. Dorothy Brown, secretary, wore midnight blue and Frances DeMann, treasurer, was in pink with navy insets.

Ada Weaver, fitted beige with side drapes and bustle; Evelyn West, wore ice blue lace, Eula Watkins, Helen Cotherne, Madeline Harding, and Milburn Brown, were in black.

Bea Nixon wore pink and black block print, Irma Dancy was in a carnation print; Ida Smith wore a navy ballerina dress with print top and bolero to match, Iris Carpenter-selected, an off-the-shoulder gown in black and white; and Inez Reed, a block print.

From Washington came Arthur and Cecilia Bowlag, and Placido Bondara and Tommy Roberts.

Completing the group were: Messrs. and Mesdames Pat Diggs, M. Clayton, Ernest Johnson, Arthur Bowers, Percy Brinkley.

Baltimore Teacher in Bridal Role

Miss Campbell, E. Westcott Wed

Miss Beulah Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Campbell became the bride of Edwin E. Westcott, son of Mrs. Bascomb Henderson, Friday, at Sharon Baptist Church.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. James Moore.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by Mrs. Lucretia Datcher, as maid of honor. Best man was Wesley Brown, the bridegroom's cousin.

Reception Held

The reception was held directly after the wedding. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Narvel Wiggins of Kilmarnock, Va.

The bride is a teacher on the faculty of School No. 101 and the bridegroom is a student of tailoring at the New York Technical Institute.

reminiscences of the good "old days" at their Alma Mater.

Then Linwood Koger presented the speaker, who felt quite at home among so many fellow-alumni. In his informal address, Mr. Smith urged the group to maintain a keen interest in the school's activities and he predicted a greater football season for Howard next year since only two members of the present team will graduate, besides a large freshmen class.

JACK AND JILL CLUB MEETS

The Jack and Jill Club met at the YWCA, Monday night and elected Sadie Marshall and Blanche Hughes, delegates to the national convention to be held in Washington, May 15th.

Mary McPherson will be hosting National Treasurer, Edna Seay of Buffalo that week and other national officers are expected to stop over.

The Child Study Association will entertain the children in the 5-10 age group with Friendship Records and games on Thursday. The Camera Club meets on Sunday at 1:30 at the home of Elizabeth Hood.

Jack and Jill will be May 9th. An operetta, "Adventures in Mother Goose Land" by Ellen Russell will be presented to family and friends at the YWCA at 4 p.m. Grace Burkett is General Chairman. All groups within Jack and Jill will have some part on the program including the Violin and Harp groups, Rhythm Band, dance group and chorus.

Music for the affair will be under the direction of Mercedes Douglass, Lucy Jones, and Jean Turpin with Grace Burkett accompanying the cast and chorus.

The script will be handled by Ellen Russell assisted by Mahlon Oswell, Tony and Cordell Jackson, Ethel Covington is chairman of the pantomie committee, Bernice Chatman has charge of dramatics. The scenery is to be handled by a committee headed by Ida Smith and stage properties by Gaynelle Spaulding and committee. The Teen-Agers will act as ushers under Sadie Marshall and Hilda Higgins has charge of the Stage Directors.

Present at the meeting were:

Mesdames Vernice Wynn, Blanche Hughes, Doris Tarter, Elizabeth Hood, Nellie Moore, Sadie Marshall, Mary McPherson, Grace Burkett, Ethel Covington, Charlotte Shervington, Charlotte Hackett, Mercedes Douglass, Zoria Powell, Marguerite Daniels, Zadie Koger and Ida Smith.

OMEGA WIVES PLAN

The Omega Auxiliary will, so to speak, roll out the barrel at their oyster roast on Monday eve, when they hold forth at Old Fellows' Hall. They will provide television so that their masculine guest won't miss their favorite sports and tuck in a musical program with the Morgan Omega Quartet, Rivers Chambers, and Blanche Calloway Jones, who will come out of retirement, to do numbers for them. The organization is headed by Mrs. Ruby Gill and Mrs. Clarence Monroe is chairman of the supper project.

The Frontiers Club will be host to the national convention, here, in August, and to this end the Baltimore unit is planning an organization of the wives of members to whip up social affairs for the meeting. W. Emerson Brown Sr. is in charge of the convention arrangements. Incidentally Dr. Miles W. Conor, president of Coppin College, was drawn into their fold on Tuesday.

KELSONS ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Kelson Sr. had as their guests at dinner, Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. West Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Oscar West, Mr. and Mrs. James Harley, Mr. and Mrs. George Crump, Walter C. West Jr., Misses Elizabeth and Nadine West, all of Washington; and Madison Allen, J. C. Nelson Jr., Miss Hilda E. Thomas of Frederick, Md., Samuel Fowler Sr. of New Haven, Conn., and Thomas E. Kelson Jr.

HOWARD ATTORNEYS HOSTS

Last Friday evening, city lawyers, who are alumni of Howard University, played host to the Baltimore Howard Alumni and several of the prominent D.C. Howardites

Emory Smith, attorney of the Capital city as their guest speaker. The meeting took on the air as a sort of "experience" meetings as several of the members gave MERRY MAD CAPS—met with Mrs. Clara Colona at 1428 N. Eden St., last week, and made plans for a dance to be held at Elks' Hall, on April 24. Miss Lizzie Mae Inman is president of the group; Mrs. Hansen, treasurer; and Miss Marie Johnson, reporter.

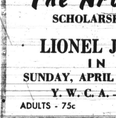
Miss Janie Miller Is "Long" On Fashion



Miss Janie Miller adds her heartiest approvals to the "long fashions" of the day. The charming Miss Miller is 5'7" tall and carries the long look with a grace that certainly enhances the new mode.

Miss Miller is equally enthusiastic about the store that she considers to be the "best shop in Baltimore." . . . Hendin's! Janie Miller says that the charge account which she has enjoyed for the past 3 years at Hendin's enables her to buy Hendin's Hollywood Fashions and pay for them conveniently.

The new navy blue cape-coat that Miss Miller recently bought at Hendin's is a very fine example of the unusual fashions that are found only at Hendin's. Janie Miller's coat can be worn either as a cape . . . or the big puffed sleeves are snapped together . . . and Presto, it's a coat!

HENDIN'S invite you to enjoy their stunning Hollywood Fashions, and the convenience of a HENDIN CHARGE ACCOUNT . . . just as Janie Miller does!

GRAY HAIRS need worry you no more

Wm. J. Brandt's EAU DENNA Liquid HAIR COLORER

will cover gray hair in 10 to 20 minutes so that you would not know it ever was gray. It is liquid. One application with a tooth brush or swab does it. No pack. No mess.

ANYONE CAN PUT IT ON

No one will suspect your hair has been dyed. Leaves it soft and lustrous. Avoid color-streaks—no spots—just a uniform color if properly applied.

WILL NOT TURN REDDISH

It will not rub off. It does not accept daylight. Shampooing, sea bathing, sun, permanent wave, curling or straightening iron, nothing takes it off. You can cover any gray, no matter how stubborn or new cause. "BLACK stays BLACK. All colors stay put.

WONDERFUL FOR TOUCHING UP

Few pints will do all others needed. Can be used over other dyes or where powdered henna has been used. Women and men use Eau Denna to advantage.

DOES NOT INTERFERE WITH PERMANENT WAVING

Full directions in each box in English and Spanish. "CAUTION: "Use as directed on label. Colors—Black, Dark Brown, Medium Brown, Light Brown, Dark Blonde, Auburn. (In ordering, please state color desired.) Price per box $3 cash with order or $3.28 C.O.D. (including Federal Tax). Cut this ad out now and save for future reference.
