CAN BLACK-DRAUGHT HELP A LOST APPETITE?
Yes, Black-Draught may help a lost appetite if the only reason you have lost your appetite is because of constipation. Black-Draught, the friendly laxative, is usually prompt and thorough when taken as directed. It costs only a penny or less a dose. That's why it has been a best-seller with four generations.
If you are troubled with such symptoms as loss of appetite, headache, upset stomach, flatulence, physical fatigue, sleeplessness, mental haziness, bad breath — and if these symptoms are due only to constipation — then see what Black-Draught may do for you. Get a package today.

Miss Edna Lomax Crowned at Kappas' Sweetheart Ball

Kappa Alpha Psi men, holding their regional conference, here over the week end, took time out to crown a pretty Delta as their "Sweetheart," Friday night.

She was Edna Lomax, Morgan College senior, who hales from Norfolk, Va., and who received her crown from the hands of the grand regent, J. Ernest Wilkins of Chicago. But it was Charles Johnson, polemarch of the campus chapter, who won her first dance after the Kappas had serenaded her. She was also serenaded by her "sisters," the Delta Sigma Thetas, who posed charmingly in a bouffant and bustled white moire frock, her own creation.

The dance was prettily staged, with colorful insignias decorating the walls, the "poor plebes" in Greek togas and the garb of "cats" acting as door men, and just about all the town on hand. The fraters had held forth at cocktails ere the affair, and had a breakfast set for afterwards, but the Barbecue, where the breakfast was scheduled, was so crowded that most of the Kappas ended up with a score or more of private parties, where the gentlemen donned aprons, and dished out bacon and eggs over their own gas burners.

FOUR COCKTAILS

Incidentally, the George (Arnetta) Lotters Jr., held forth with cocktails prior to the dance. Bobby Booker of Washington fetched Grace Byrd of Wilberforce, a senior in the dental school at Howard University, went up us all to wondering about those wedding plans set for the next few days to come . . . Others there were the Ed Watsons, Myles Harrisons, James Woods, Louise Gee, Myles Robinson.

After their stag on Saturday night, the brothers did amble down to the Asco Club, where the Silhouettes were having a gay time over estables, sippables and cards, fetched with them members of a dance team to entertain the girls, and ended with a serenade to the ladies.

Hosts at the dance included: Dr. Glenford Mussenden, Howard Collins Jr., Norman Uneles, Charles Lunch Jr., Robert F. Williams, Dr. Marcus W. Moore Sr., James S. Cooper Jr., Samuel D. Wilson, Thomas McPherson Jr., Melvin Johnson, Melvin H. Cade, Enoch Mason, Robert Minson, H. Russell Frisby, Maurice Jones, Dr. U. G. Bourne Jr., Wilbur O. Stewart, Marvin C. Davis, Lester S. Norris, E. Robert Umphery, R. Tucker.

Roland Henson, Queener E. Willis Sr., Vernon Trent, E. Jerome Todd, Stanley Williams, Raymond Carpenter, James H. Dougherty, Albert Jacobs, Rudolph Redd, J. Newton, James Wood, Lorenzo Felder, William Harris, Joel Newton, Ward Williams, William Birche, Jr.

Among their guests were: Eugene Whisher, Archie Lewis, Rivers Chambers, Walter Dixon, Yanet Whittaker, Douglas Roberts, Ira Mosely, Houston Jackson, C. E. Henson, George Waters.

School No. 122, Wednesday afternoon, she was entertained at a musical soiree at the home of William Meredith H. Birche Jr. that evening.

Among the guests were:

Mrs. Ruth Brunson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Showers, Mrs. Ann Wallace Hall, Mrs. India T. Silvers, Mrs. Clementine R. Canaan, Misses Gladys and Frances Wallace, Mrs. Eula M. Birche, who helped receive the visitors:

Messrs. Luther Mitchell, Richard E. Richardson, Samuel Kinstuck, G. Irvin Bryan, Luther Johnson, William Lee Holloman, Ernest Jenkins and Alfonso Mariano.

Cards and a musicale were followed by refreshments served a la buffet.

Bertha, formerly of hereabouts, is recently of the show, "Finian's Rainbow," and just appeared at Carnegie Hall in "Son of Man."

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Degraff and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. James Steward of Chevy Chase, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Thompson of Takoma Park, Md., and Miss Thelma Teal of Baltimore were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Farmer, Sunday.

List among the up-and-coming groups, the Maids and Matrons (no fair guessing which members represent what portion of the name).

Anyhow, the girls, eight of them, are planning a rummage sale for a Saturday in this month, proceeds from which will provide a "Camper-ship" for a deserving young girl who will go to camp two weeks this summer. The club will also outfit the girl if the rummage sale is that successful.

Most recent meeting was at the home of Ella Edemy, secretary-treasurer. Other members are: Harriet Peal, president; Jo Rogers, vice-president; Vera Cole, Kay Carter, Eva Creighler, Mae Morris, and Ann Calhoun.

Miss MAMIE EVANS HER VOICE IS HER FORTUNE

No doubt many, of you have already enjoyed hearing Miss Evans' beautiful soprano voice. Miss Evans sings in many of the churches throughout the neighborhood, with the 10 voice chorus called the "Female Co-operation Chorus." If you have not yet heard this inspiring chorus, then by all means, make it your business to do so. They sing at many, many halls and churches . . . so keep your eye open for them . . . and keep your ear open for Miss Evans' lilting soprano voice.

Also notice how quietly and smartly Miss Mamie Evans is dressed. Miss Evans has been a Hendin customer for the past 3 years, everything in her wardrobe was selected from Hendin's stunning Hollywood Fashions. Miss Evans feels that Hendin's carries the proper clothes for the larger figure . . . they fit to perfection . . . they slenderize . . . and Hendin's clothes are the smartest she's seen anywhere in Baltimore!
