SOUTH BALTIMORE NOTES

The urgent need of a recreation center and additional playgrounds in South Baltimore was discussed last Wednesday night at a mass meeting in the John Wesley Methodist Church.

Speakers at the meeting included Elmer Henderson, assistant superintendent of schools; Mrs. Vivian Cook and the Rev. F. J. Frye.

Mrs. Lucy Hunter of 2533 Ridgely St. and Mrs. Louvenia West of 2600 Pierpont St. are recovering at their respective homes after brief illnesses. Both are members of the Star of Bethlehem AME Church.

Mrs. Nettie Gardner raised the $78 in the Bethlehem rally recently and not Miss Helen Travers, as was stated in this column April 9. The AFRO regrets the error.

Many Attend Birthday Party

William Lawson of 919 Russell St. was honoree at a birthday party given by his wife, Mrs. Carrie Lawson, last Saturday.

Guest included:

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses Randolph Little, Mrs. C. Ware, Mrs. Mabel Brown, Robert Johnson, Alfred Johnson, Miss Marian Little, Miss Betty Burley, Miss Frankie Bryant, Miss Lucy Hammond, Miss Annabel Hawkins and Mrs. Mary Alice Hawkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooke, Mrs. Jennie Cullion, Mrs. Rita Greene, Mrs. Mary Leary, Miss Edith Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Washington, Mr. and Mrs. L. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Harper.

Woman's Day Celebrated

The First Baptist Church of Mt. Winans observed its tenth annual Women's Day with services last Sunday.

The sponsoring committee included Mrs. Sarah Mobley, chairman; Mrs. Addie Littles, co-chairman; and Mrs. Belle Wise, secretary. The Rev. Herbert S. Moore is pastor of the church.

The Dinty Duchess Saving Club met recently at the home of Mrs. Rosalee Scott, 502 W. Conway St., and discussed plans for a seafood supper, to be given at the Sharp St. Elks Home on Saturday night.

Southside Personality

One of South Baltimore's most popular young women is Miss Shirley Levi, of 2520 Hollinsferry Rd., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Levi. Shirley is a senior at Douglass High School and a member of Mt. Winans Methodist Church.

She is pianist at the church Sunday school, a member of the Youth Fellowship Choir and a featured soloist at many church affairs.

The outdoor type, Miss Levi says she enjoys watching football games, and likes to play basketball and tennis. She plans to further her music studies at Howard University upon graduation from Douglass.

SHIRLEY LEVI

Elks Group Fetes 2 Other Councils

The Past Exalted Rulers Council No. 27 of Elks played host on Sunday to the Peace and Harmony Council No. 2 and F. E. W.-Harper Council No. 429. Linwood Frazier, chief ruler, made the main address.

Other speakers included: Charles Walker, vice chief ruler; Mrs. Clara Foreman, loyal daughter of Harper Council; Mrs. Annie Wharton, daughter ruler of the Catonsville Temple; Laurence Dorsey, exalted ruler of the Monumental Lodge; Mrs. Pearl Brown, daughter ruler of Great Southern Temple.

Edward C. Wooden, A. Oliver Hill, president of the Tri-State Association; Julius Walker and Andrew Hardson. William Timmons was chairman of the program and George D. Tyler, master of ceremonies.

Man, 42, Accused of Fleecing Sailor

Robert Jenkins, 42, of 603 W. Hoffman St., was held under $2,500 bail for the grand jury, Wednesday, on a charge of fleecing a seaman out of $1000 last August.

The victim, Lonnie Bradley, who gave his address as that of a Pennsylvania Ave. hotel, told Central district police, he accidentally met Jenkins and another stranger on the waterfront last summer.

He said the three started a friendly card game after which he drew some money from a bank to prove he had as much cash as they had.

The money was pooled in a handkerchief and later handed to the seaman. After the strangers had left the seaman, he learned the handkerchief contained only old newspaper.
