Ind. Governor Won't Discuss J.C. Guard

INDIANAPOLIS (ANP) — Gov. Ralph Gates is unwilling to meet with Urban League and NAACP officials to discuss the opening of the "State National Guard to all citizens without racial discrimination."

In a letter to Joseph C. Chapman, executive secretary, Gary Urban League, and Willard H. Ransom, State NAACP president, he called the problem one "national in scope," and stated "it would be better to await results and developments."
