R.H.COLLINS, T.D.BOWERS
EDITORS.

FORMER Attorney-General Isaac Lobe Straus has committed political Hari Kari.

DON'T forget, Mr. Tax-payer, that the one great cry of the Organization is for MORE MONEY.

THE indebtedness of Kent county under the Organization control is $110,000. Under the Antis it was $37,000. Is that not enough to make the people know how to vote in the coming primaries?

KENT COUNTY was partially if not actually bankrupt under Organization management. Why, then, should the management of the Democratic party be handed over to the Organization by the election of their candidates for the State Central Committee?

THE editor of the Kent News will not be required by Mr. Bowers to apologize to him for his unjust attacks upon him, except to the people. That is the best way he can atone for his wrong-doing. He has not only accused Mr. George E. Noland of lying, but he keeps up his attacks upon Mr. Bowers.

THE correspondent of the Kent News in the Fifth District is a Republican, and he is an officeholder, too. They have forsaken their Democratic friends in the Fifth and are depending upon a Republican officeholder to keep them posted as to how Mr. R. A. Shallcross, their candidate for the Legislature, is running in the Fifth.

IF A MEMBER of the State Central Committee should make bills and employ runners and messenger boys without the knowledge and consent of the other two members of the committee, and then present these bills to the committee for payment, he should be made to spend his money for acting without due authority.

IN VIEW of the fact that none of the gentlemen who were called upon two weeks ago to furnish evidence against the Democracy of the Kent News have responded, the public is satisfied that the TRANSCRIPT'S charges are correct. If they had not been the Kent News' columns would have been full of letters last week. We shall bring other witnesses to light before long.

SENATOR SMITH has signified his intention not to oppose the appointment of Col. Serlock Swann as postmaster at Baltimore, and the appointment will be confirmed. Why should Senator Smith oppose any of the President's appointments? He voluntarily told the President that he is in thorough accord with his principles and policies, and this is taken to include the President's appointments.

JUDGING from the attitude of the people in every district in this county towards the Organization and their candidates, a mint of money and a regiment of messenger boys can't nominate their ticket this time. The people are opposed to such extravagance as the Organization practiced when it had control of the commissioners' office, and they don't intend to let the county get back in debt where it was under the Organization.

THE friends of Mr. John Grant in the Fifth District are very indignant at the Organization leaders for throwing him down for the Legislature. Mr. Grant had been promised by the Organization workers in his district their support for the Legislature, but the Chestertown leaders turned him down for Mr. R. A. Shallcross. And now Mr. Grant and his friends are wondering with the rest of us, how much sincerity there is in Organization promises.

THROUGHOUT the State there is a determination on the part of the people to put the old political Organizations out of power. The latest development is in Anne Arundel county, where an Anti-Organization or Progressive Democratic element of formidable proportions has been organized to fight the Organization under the leadership of Dr. George Wells. There is a similar movement on in Worcester county, and Cecil county got into the game last year. And so Kent is not the only county where the people are up against the Organization.

A NEW DISEASE.

A new disease has made its appearance in Chestertown. It is known as LIARPHOBIA. The editors of the Kent News have had this disease in a malignant form for about three months, and it is believed that the malady has become so deep-seated that it has reached the chronic stage. The disease seems to be contagious only among a certain element of our population, but we are glad to state that the cases are pretty well segregated.

THE friends of President Wilson are in control of the State Central Committee for this county. Messrs. George E. Noland and James Elwood Morris have kept the party machinery in splendid shape, and during their term of office the party has won its victories by larger majorities than for many years. A change of the members of the committee to the control of the Organization faction would put the committee in the hands of the friends of Senator John Walter Smith and the Road Engineer. Let the people uphold the principles of the President by keeping his friends in control of the party machinery.

AT LAST CONVINCED.

The publication of an eight-column paid advertisement by Isaac Lobe Straus in the Baltimore American on Saturday, just after the dinner at the Belvedere Hotel by Mr. Charles H. Grasty, editor of the Sun, in honor of Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan, is an acknowledgment that Mr. Straus and the friends of Senator Smith are at last convinced that not only is President Wilson interested in the Maryland Senatorial situation, but that Mr. Bryan is also concerned for the welfare of the people of the State. It looks as though some one else has been guilty of misrepresentation, and all the former paid advertisements by Mr. Straus are losing whatever effect they may have had.

ORGANIZATION CATECHISM.

Q.—Who saddled upon the people of this county in the last year of their control a tax rate of $1.85?
A.—The Organization.
Q.—Who ran the expenses of Kent county from $110,000 to $166,000 in one year?
A.—The Organization.
Q.—Who spent $35,000 on the roads and bridges in Kent county in the last six months of their term in 1909?
A.—The Organization.
Q.—Who introduced two bills in the last Legislature calling for the expenditure of $68,000 of the tax-payers' money without giving the people the right to say whether it should be spent or not?
A.—The Organization.
Q.—Who passed a road law for Kent county that provides for the greatest waste of the people's money under the most incompetent management this county has ever had?
A.—The Organization.
Q.—Who expended the sum of $25,000 on the roads and bridges of this county in 1912, when the law provided only $18,000?
A.—The Organization.
Q.—Who exhausted the fund of $21,236.00 on the roads and bridges in this county from June, 1912, to May, 1913, and has not a dollar of that appropriation left to work the roads when they most need work?
A.—The Organization.
Q.—Who has been clamoring for more money to waste on the roads when the $21,000 that has already been spent has left our roads in the worst condition they have been in in the history of the county?
A.—The Organization.
Q.—Who forced upon the tax-payers a new assessment of property at a cost of some $12,000, just after there had been a reassessment of personal property two years before?
A.—The Organization.
Q.—Who is authorizing the work now being done on the roads after the Road Engineer has advertised that no more work shall be done on the roads, owing to the exhaustion of the road fund? And who is paying for this work?
A.—The Organization.
Q.—Who has no right to ask the people to put their candidates in office after such a record as this?
A.—The Organization.

ANTI-ORGANIZATION CATECHISM

Q.—Who reduced the Organization tax rate of $1.85 in 1910 to a rate of $1.22 IN ONE YEAR, notwithstanding the extra expense of half the cost of a new assessment which the Organization forced upon the tax-payers?
A.—The Anti-Organization.
Q.—Who reduced the tax rate from $1.22 in 1911 to $1.05 in 1912, notwithstanding the extra expense of the other half of the new assessment?
A.—The Anti-Organization.
Q.—Who prevented the passage of those laws in the last Legislature calling for spending $68,000 of the tax-payers' money without giving them the right to say whether it should be spent or not?
A.—The Anti-Organization.
Q.—Who endeavored to repeal the present unsatisfactory road law in the last session of the Legislature, but were prevented from doing so by the Organization?
A.—The Anti-Organization.
Q.—Who reduced the indebtedness of the county from $110,000.00 under the Organization Board of Commissioners to $37,000—a reduction of $73,000 in three years?
A.—The Anti-Organization.
Q.—Who should refuse to pay those road bills that are now being discounted an i taken as collateral security for work that is now being done on the roads after the engineer has advertised that there shall be no more work done on the roads?
A.—The Anti-Organization.
Q.—Who warned the people about the way their money was being wasted on the roads by the Organization?
A.—The Anti-Organization.
Q.—Who prevented the Organization Road Engineer from wasting any more of the tax-payers' money on the roads after he had exhausted this year's appropriation of $21,236.00 in eleven months?
A.—The Anti-Organization.
Q.—Who HAS a right to ask the tax-payers to keep their officers in power upon such an excellent record as this?
A.—The Anti-Organization.

"WE TOO WILL HAVE A BABY CONTEST."

DON'T vote for the Organization candidates for the Legislature. They are both for Senator John Walter Smith, who is dead up against the farmers and tax-payers' interests. If the Organization elect their legislators they will pass laws in the next session that will make it easier for them to carry the county for Smith in 1914, and get control of the commissioners' office. They have Beck in the Senate you know, and if they get two legislators, they can do as they please with the people's interests. Elect the two Anti legislators to hold the Organization in check.

LIKES MR. HARRIS' RECORD.

A gentleman who is not allied with either faction of the Democratic party, and a large tax-payer, said recently: "The tax-payers of this county owe Mr. James G. Harris a debt of gratitude for the splendid record he made in the last Legislature by refusing to allow those Organization money bills to become a law, unless the people had a right to vote on the spending of their own money. A man who will protect the people's interests in such a manner as that deserves to be re-elected, and I mean to vote and work for Mr. Harris' renomination and re-election.

THE Kent News has not said a word about Mr. Marbury's Democracy since the light has been turned on its own past record. If Mr. Marbury is not a better Democrat than the Kent News was from 1895 to 1903, we are willing to apologize to the Democracy of Maryland for giving Mr. Marbury our hearty support. But why should the Kent News attack Mr. Marbury's record when some of the candidates whom they have indorsed for local offices have publicly stated that they have voted the Republican ticket on more occasions than one, and one of their candidates in particular has voted the Republican ticket in every nati nal election for years, and is reported to have voted the Republican ticket locally prior to 1903?

AIN'T President Wilson a convincing fighter? He went to Jersey in the interest of jury reform, and he had scarcely returned to Washington when he learned that he had won another fight against Jim Smith and his machine. The President also succeeded in pouring oil on the troubled waters in California through his Secretary of State, Hon. William Jennings Bryan. And now if the President shall deem it necessary to assist the people of Maryland in electing Democrats to the United States Senate, who are in thorough accord with his policies and principles, we advise Senator Smith and the Kent News to seek shelter, for he will come as a conqueror, just as he went to Jersey. And he'll do it, because he is determined that the people of this country shall enjoy their rights so long as he is their servant.

MR. STRAUS INCONSISTENT.

When Mr. Straus announced his candidacy for the United States Senate for the long term, he not only attacked the record of Senator Smith in the most scathing manner, and stated that Smith's re-election to the Senate would be a PUBLIC CALAMITY, but he claimed that he is a Wilson Democrat, and that he is in thorough accord with the principles and policies of President Wilson. And yet, when President Wilson intimates that he wants the people of Maryland to send to the Senate a man who IS in accord with his principles and policies, Mr. Straus repudiates the President and delivers a scathing attack upon the President in an eight-column advertisement in a Republican newspaper. This position is about as consistant as is the attitude of Mr. Straus towards the candidacy of Mr. Marbury. A few days prior to Mr. Marbury's announcement of his candidacy for the Senate, Mr. Straus told Mr. Marbury if he would run that he (Mr. Straus) would get out of the fight, and that he would do everything he could to help elect Mr. Marbury, and yet, almost the very day after Mr. Marbury announced his candidacy, Mr. Straus attacked Mr. Marbury's Democracy in a paid advertisement in all the Baltimore city and many of the county papers, and since that time Mr. Straus has been furnishing editorial matter for a number of county papers attacking Mr. Marbury's Democracy. We submit that such a position is a very unenviable one for a man who professes to be a Progressive Democrat to occupy, and is a most inconsistent position, to say the least.
