LOCAL MATTERS

Knights of Pythias to Celebrate.—German American Lodge, K. of P., of Baltimore, are to pay Cheaspeake Lodge No. 68, K. of P., a Fraternal visit on May 24 at 8 o'clock. All K. of P.'s are invited. It is proposed to have a parade with appropriate music.

Kent Railroad Case Transferred.—The suit of the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company against the Public Service Commission to restrain the enforcement of the commission's order for the operation of the old Kent County Railroad, extending from Worton to Nicholson, three and three-fourths miles, was assigned for trial Monday in Circuit Court No. 2, Baltimore, but was transferred to the Circuit Court because Judge Gorter owns stock of the Pennsylvanna Railroad and was ineligible to hear it. It will come up before Judge Duffy next Monday.

Baby Contest.—If intelligent stock raising resulted in the highest priced stock on the continent, why couldn't intelligent fatherhood and motherhood result in the finest line of children in America? If a farmer saw his fat cattle and horses taking blue ribbons on one side of the grandstand, and his baby being disqualified, denied any sort of a ribbon on the other, wouldn't he begin to think that it was time to pay at least as much attention to his children as to his stock? Stock and poultry shows for years, have meant better cows and chickens. Baby health contests mean better babies and better health. On Children's Day, August 26th, at the Kent and Queen Annes fair, a baby health contest will be held. Remember this! More about it next week.

THE SOCIAL WORLD.

Miss Sallie Sheridan, of Baltimore, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Walter T. Morris, near Worton.

Reports from Mrs. Joseph N. Wheatley and Miss Gladys Aldridge, who are taking special treatment at Baltimore Hospitals, state that both are doing well.

Mr. Walter Morris has been in New York during the week attending a Convention of National Guernsey Dairy cattle owners.

Mrs. Harry B. Nicholson returned to her home in Baltimore yesterday accompanied by her daughter, Virginia. Little Miss Laura will remain with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Vansant, until school closes.

Miss Gallagher, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Clarence T. Newsome, of Betterton.

NOW IS THE TIME

To See About Your Painting.

I give my personal attention to every detail of every painting job. A large part of my success is due to the fact that we use only the best materials. Lewis & Masury's White Lead, Pure Linseed Oil, Varnishes, Barn Paints, etc., in fact everything in the paint line.
Always ready to show sample cards and quote prices. Let me estimate on your painting.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Mr. John Duyer and family will remove to the Duyer house on Cannon street near College avenue.

Mr. Walter T. Morris had the misfortune to lose one of his thoroughbred Guernsey cows on Wednesday.

The home of Hon. Joseph A. Wickes on High street, has been greatly improved by the remodeling of the brick wall in front of the home.

There was ice and frost in the county on Sunday and Monday morning, and the early tomatoes, potatoes and berries, as well as fruit are hurt.

Herring are reported to be so numerous in the Chesapeake & Delaware Canal that the progress of the Ericsson Line steamers is greatly impeded.

Mr. Arthur Bacon has resigned his position with the Prudential Insurance Company and has accepted a position with Mr. J.H.Sides' automobile garage.

The Jones will case, removed from Kent county to Queen Annes county, has been postponed until June, when a special session of the Queen Annes court will be held.

Mr. R. C. Williams, one of Queen Anne's hustling truckers, had the first home-grown strawberries in market on Tuesday morning. They sold for 15 cents a quart.

The fishing season at Betterton and Rock Hall is about over, and while shad and herring have been very scarce, the price has been very good and the season a profitable one.

Miss Lola Trax, of the Maryland Woman's Suffrage League, has been in Chestertown during the week arranging for holding meetings in various parts of the county.

We understand that the Federated Club of Chestertown, has rented Stam's Hall for the opening entertainment in June, and the attraction will be "The Paint and Powder Club," of Baltimore.

The matinee season of 1913 will begin at Radcliffe Park on Decoration Day, May 30th. Four big races are carded, and the peninsula's finest horses will be in the various classes.

A 175-year-old pear tree on the lawn of Charles Fitzgerald's residence, at Calvert, Cecil County, that never has missed bearing fruit, is covered with blossoms and gives promise of a large yield.

Real Estate Broker J. Waters Russell has sold for Mr. Grover Hadaway the 12-acre Harmon Taylor property in Quaker Neck to Mr. John Dorsey, of Baltimore. The price was said to be $1000.

The St. Paul's Dramatic Club gave two delightful little plays in Comegys' Hall, Millington, on Saturday evening last. The appreciation of the public was shown by the large number present and the many repeated enchores.

Mr. W. Gross Mingle, of Wilksbaire, Pa., arrived in town on Wednesday to take charge of the Rich Neck Farmers Exchange with headquarters in the large Davis & Satterfield building by the railroad.

Mr. Seymour Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Williams, of near Chester bridge, is spending some time in the Adirondack mountains, New York. One day recently Mr. Williams found the body of a little girl floating in a lake in the mountains. He promptly notified the authorities.

County Commissioner T. Benj. Crew and Mr. James G. Harris, two of the county's largest fruit growers, stated on Tuesday that their peaches were not hurt by the cold snap on Sunday and Monday. Mr. Harris also says there is a good crop on one of his father's farms. Mr. Walter H. Hadaway, of the Fifth, says his peaches are hurt.

The case of Griffith, Boyd & Co. vs. R. F. Parks & Son, for alleged violation of agent's contract was on trial in Centreville this week. Barroll & Barroll represent Griffith, Boyd & Co., and Lewin W. Wickes and R. Groome Parks represent R. F. Parks & Son.

Mr. W. H. Watkins, of Betterton, has accepted a position as solicitor with the Prudential Insurance Company, under Superintendent Geo. W. French in place of Mr. Marion Hadaway, who resigned to go in the mercantile business at Worton.

The home of Senator Garrett Foxwell on the avenue is being greatly improved by the laying of a cement walk around the house. Mr. A. M. Culp's men are doing the work. Mr. Wm. E. Moody's home has also been greatly improved by the removal of the fence.

James W. Chapman, Jr., Esq., of Baltimore, attorney, has sold the Comegys farm in Quaker Neck, belonging to the estate of the late Charles T. Westcott to a Mr. Baker, of New York. The price is private. The new owner will make the farm his home.

If there is anything in the old adage that a wet, cool May makes a good wheat crop, there should be a half crop this season, anyway. The cold weather has played havoc with small fruits and berries all over the peninsula, and young tomato plants have been ruined.

Messrs. James G. Beck and Clifton L. Jarrell, president and secretary of the Chestertown Driving Association, were in Easton on Tuesday inspecting the grand stand and exhibition halls at the fair grounds there, in order to formulate plans for the erection of similar buildings at Radcliffe Park.

The entertainment given by the Church Hill school, Prof. Galen Vansant, principal, in Guest's hall, last Friday and Saturday evenings, was a success financially, the net proceeds being about $80. Prof. Vansant is deservedly popular with the pupils and patrons of the school, and with the people of the Hill generally.

Base Ball Notes.

Washington College will have as their opponents this afternoon at 3.30 on Washington field, the strong Baltimore City College team.

In a pitcher's battle at Annapolis last Saturday, St. John's College beat Washington College, 3 to 1. Biddle pitched a masterly game, as did Wilson, the latter receiving better team support.

Chestertown High School was defeated on Monday afternoon on Ford's field by Kennedyville, score 12 to 10. The game was raggedly played owing to the cool weather.

Chestertown High School and Centreville High School will play for the championship of the two teams on Ford's field on Wednesday next.

Grange Notes.

The first indoor picnic was a tremendous success. Still Pond Grangers large and small were out "to school" on Saturday evening. Lunch baskets came too, and good lunches in them. The program was interesting. Miss Margaret Brinsfield gave a good recitation and Mrs. Harvey Moore a fine paper on "mother." Mrs. Clara Louise Jones Williams gave several of her inimitable recitations. The Price girls sang and Mr. S. G. Roseberry and Mr. Albert Jervis sang a duett. The Quartette of Roosters was really something to crow about altho' none of them were chickens.

Our next will be Saturday May 31, as we all want to go to the Epworth League supper on the 24th.

Dance at Betterton House.

The young people of Betterton gave an informal dance last Friday night at Hotel Betterton. The large dining room which was used for dancing, was very prettily though simply decorated with weigelia and locust blossoms. The music was under the direction of Mr. Basil Sadler. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. James T. Crew, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Silcox, Mr. and Mrs. George Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence T. Newsome, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown, of Queen Annes; Mr. and Mrs. Beauregarde Lewis; Mrs. John Brice, Mrs. M. Ferguson; Misses Blanche Lewis, Ethel Ferguson, Mary Smith, Ada Hurlock, Marie Brice, Henrietta Gramadier, Anna Gallagher, of Baltimore; Messrs. Harris Crewe, Raymond Herbert, Herman Robinson, Joseph Kiker, Albert Schartle, Philadelphia; Herbert Robinson, Gilbert Hyland, Raymond Price, of Rock Hall.

Our Merchants' Interest.

Moody, "the fitter," is turning out quite a number of tailor-made suits, and there's a reason: From his long experience in clothing he acquired the art of perfect measurement, knows when material and workmanship are right, and with no capital invested, no stock to carry, coupled with other large expenses, he can well afford to work on close margin. Read his change of advertisement in this issue and investigate the way he's doing business.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of three of Baltimore's best stores—Sanders and Stayman's music store, too well-known to need introduction; The Baltimore Grocery Store, which claims to save you 20 per cent. on all goods purchased there; and the M. S. Kahn & Co.'s big drug store on the corner, and in the corner in this paper on page 3. The other advertisements you will find on page 5. We guarantee the reliability of these houses and their goods. Read their advertisements and be convinced.

Davis & Satterfield are selling "black death", a sure bug and insect killer.

If you want a first-class automobile made by standard makers, consult J. Waters Russell about the Detroiter. It sells for $900 and is one of the best all-around cars on the market.

C. C. Jones is the Exclusive shoe man. 'Nough sed.

"Everything for the man to wear," is the motto of Messrs. Bordley & Sons, the up-to-date clothiers and furnishers of Chestertown. Their line is replete with good things just now, and it will pay you to see them. Full prices are given in their advertisement this week. See page 4.

Newnam's music store is the place to hear good music from splendid instruments. If you want to add cheer and pleasure to your home, get one of Newnam's pianos, and you'll be happy the rest of your days.

Medders & Co., of Still Pond, have a lot of good things in store for the people next week. They have purchased a part of the fine stock of Moulton Bros., Baltimore, at bankrupt prices and they are going to give the trade the benefit next week. Wait and wtach.

The school teachers will give an entertainment and festival at Worton to-night in the hall. Everybody come and get your money's worth.

The United Bargain House has been so busy with its many sales that they have had to lay in a new assortment of bargains which they are offering at the same prices that prevailed at their introductory sale. Special values in shoes this week.

Going away this summer? H. F. Jefferson & Bro. have just the kind of trunk or suit case that wont "muss up" your clothes, and they have the kind of goods for clothes that will make you look sweet and pretty, don't you know.

The Third National Bank has a guarantee fund to all depositors of $150,000. Place your money where you know it is safe.

Marion T. Miller, the Rock Hall general merchandise man, has a list of elegant specials for Tuesday next, May 20th. Read his advertisement on page 4.
