The Transcript.

DON'T worry, boys, there are others to follow.

THE Lumber Interests are pretty well represented among the Organization candidates.

THEY tell us that Mr. Adam Startt will beat Mr. "Shake" Brown for sheriff in the 7th, and he will give him odds and beat him to a frazzle in the county.

WE are indebted to Senator John Walter Smith for a copy of the new tariff bill now before the Senate, and which will become a law early in the summer.

THE friends of Mr. George D. Lofland are urging him to become a candidate for the State Central Committee, and it is believed that he will consent to serve.

ARE there not enough good Democrats among the rank and file of the Organization forces to enable them to select a Democrat instead of a Republican as a candidate for the Legislature?

THE prospect of an Anti-Organization victory of substantial proportions in the coming primaries in September is more than bright. Let all forward-looking men stand together, and let us make it a clean sweep this time.

CAPT. BUNT TAYLOR is reported to have said that Capt. Henry Thompson is specially strong below. A voice from Eastern Neck Island: "He won't know he's running when John Wood gets through with him."

L. WETHERED BARROLL, ESQ., has been made a member of the Baltimore Exposition Committee by Mayor Preston. Many of the city's most prominent professional and business men have been asked to serve on this committee by the Mayor.

THE Organization faction left the County Commissioners office heavily in debt, and by their extravagance forced a tax rate of $1.85 upon the tax-payers. Do the people of this county want any more of such control as that? They will get it in short order, if their candidates for commissioners are nominated.

THE Organization has absolutely no issue upon which to go before the people in this campaign. Their record in the last Legislature was directly opposed to the interests of the tax-payers, and their control of the roads in the county has been one of extravagance and poor management. Why should they expect the people to vote for their candidates?

PRESIDENT WILSON has answered Mr. Isaac Lobe Straus' letter of eight columns, recently published as an advertisement in the Baltimore American, the Republican state organ, by appointing W. Finley Collins postmaster at Millington; Cecil E. Ewing, ditto at Rising Sun, and Wm. M. Brown, ditto at Chesapeake City, all ardent Marbury supporte's.

THE Anti-Organization forces are growing stronger every day, and this is so because the people have ceased to place any confidence in Organization promises or in their ability to govern the county economically. We do not believe the people of this county will ever be rash enough to entrust their local affairs to the Organization faction again, because their past record has been anything else than one in the real and vital interests of the people.

E. M. TAYLOR, of Worton, candidate for county commissioner, visited Quaker Neck, Piney Neck and Rock Hall the past week and says he never met a more sociable nor a more hospitable people and feels greatly encouraged at his reception.—Kent News.

You just guess the people of Quaker Neck, Piney Neck and Rock Hall are as sociable and as hospitable a lot of people as live. They will be courteous and nice to you every time you go down, Mr. Taylor; but, remember, there is a vast difference between courtesy and a vote. Just wait until genial Ben Crew takes a spin around the circuit. He'll get both courtesy and votes, where Capt. Bunt got only courtesy.

WHEN told that Mr. Charles W. Kibler had consented to become a candidate for the Legislature, a prominent Organization leader one day this week said: "You don't say. Mr. Kibler is an awfully strong man, and he will be a hard man to beat." "Yes," said his companion, who is regarded as an Organization man, "they can't beat Kibler. He is just the man for that place, and I intend to vote for him, and I intend to vote for Harris, too, because his record in the last Legislature just suits me. No tax-payer should kick against Harris, after what he did for the people of this county in the last Legislature."

THE people of Kent and Queen Annes should co-operate with the management of Kent and Queen Annes Driving Association in making the fair to be held at Radcliffe Park, Chestertown, August 26, 27, 28 and 29, a success in an agricultural sense. There are no better counties on the earth than Cecil, Kent and Queen Annes counties, and nothing serves better to advertise the land value and desirableness as an abode than a systematic and extensive exhibit of a county's natural resources. These fairs are being held annually all over the country, and their educational and financial value cannot be estimated. Kent and Queen Annes should be on the front seat in the produce wagon. Let's help make the fair in August a rousing success.

MR. BECK introduced and passed two bills in the Senate calling for the expenditure of $68,000 of the people's money in one year, without giving the people the right to say whether it should be spent or not. Mr. Harris, the Anti-Organization delegate, and a candidate for re-election, prevented the Organization from forcing these two bills upon the people. If you nominate Howard Turner and Robert A. Shallcross for the Legislature, these two bills will be forced upon the people in the next session, just as sure as you are living. The Organization can't exist without money, and if the County Commissioners won't give it to them to waste on the roads, just as certain as you vote for their delegates, they will force these bills upon the people. You must elect the Anti-Organizaton candidates in order to hold the Organization in check.

A WORD TO STRAUS SUPPORTERS

You may set it down for an absolute fact that the candidacy of former Attorney-General Isaac Lobe Straus for the long term United States Senatorship IS IN THE INTEREST OF SENATOR JOHN WALTER SMITH, or the Kent News would not be so concerned about who is or who is not going to vote for Straus. So, if you want to elect Smith, vote for Straus.

BE WISE, MR. TAX-PAYER.

Mr. Tax-payer, if you do not want a return to great extravagance and an abnormally high tax rate, vote for the Anti-Orgrnization candidates, Messrs. T. Benj. Crew and John Wood for County Commissioners, and for the Anti-Organization candidates, Messrs. James G. Harris and Chas. W. Kibler, for the Legislature. The best evidence of this fact is what the Organization forces are doing at this moment on the roads in this county. You know, Mr. Tax-payer, the Organization passed a road law, now known as the Gibbs law, and ever since its passage the Kent News and its Organization friends have been ringing the changes on how economical the road law is, and how it is saving the tax-payers money. That is the kind of stuff you hear just about the time the Legislature is to convene, and some of their present candidates for office take a petition around and fool the people into signing it by telling them they are going to make some changes in the road law, that will make it more economical, etc., and when the Legislature is over not a thing has been done, and money is wasted as usual. But before a primary contest, what do you hear? The Kent News is as silent as the grave about their economical road law, and not a word do you hear from the assistant editors in reference to there being less politics in the road management than at any time in the county's history. But they are working the roads to beat the band, notwithstanding the fact that the road engineer has advertised that no more work shall be done, owing to the exhaustion of the road fund. They spent $25,000 on the roads in 1912, when their own road law provided only $18,000, and they had exhausted the fund of $21,236.00 allowed by their law by reason of their reassessment of property, two months before the year is out, and they are now paying the road workers by taking their bills as collateral security and discounting them, expecting that the Board of County Commissioners will pay them out of the tax-payers' money when said bills are presented for payment. There is no telling how much money the Organization will squander on the roads in this county between now and the day of the primaries, and we urge the County Commissioners to keep their eyes open, AND REFUSE TO PAY A SINGLE BILL for work done on the roads after the exhaustion of the road fund last month, or more accurately, after the road engineer advertised that no more work should be done. All the work that is being done now is expected to be paid for, and this is the way things are being managed. Not a single particle of road equipment purchased with which to work the roads properly. Every dollar of the people's money being absolutely wasted, and the Kent News and the Organization talking about their good management. Not a particle of interest in the welfare of the tax-payers or the enhancement of land values. Their one supreme desire is GIVE US MORE MONEY TO KEEP THE ROADS IN POLITICS AND KEEP OUR FORCES INTACT. That's all we care about, and the tax-payers' interests may go. One of the Organization leaders is reported to have said sometime ago: "SO LONG AS THE PEOPLE ALLOW US TO PLAY POLITICS WITH THE ROADS, WE ARE GOING TO PLAY POLITICS WITH THEM." Let the people study this statement, and for their safety and protection we urge them to vote for the Anti-Organization candidates from top to bottom, and thus be assured of an economical administration. The only part of the county government over which the Organization has control is the roads, and they are the worst managed and most extravagant part of the county government. So why should the people give the Organization any more power than they have, and why should they not strive to prevent a continuance of such road management?

Candidates For Legislature.

The many friends of Mr. Charles W. Kibler, of the Fourth District, have induced him to become a candidate for the Legislature in the coming primaries. Mr. Kibler has consented to serve, and says that his only reason for being a candidate is that he may serve the people and their vital interests. There is no better man in this county for this office than Mr. Kibler. He is intelligent, honest, and a most capable man. He is in touch with the interests of the farmers, watermen and people generally, and is just the type of man to send to the Legislature because he knows the needs of the people. His running mate on the Anti-Organization ticket will be Mr. James G. Harris, whose record in the last Legislature in the interest of the tax-payers was such as to entitle him to a renomination and re-election. This is undoubtedly a strong legislative ticket. Both Mr. Kibler and Mr. Harris are Democrats. They have never voted anything else than the Democratic ticket, and have labored for the interests of the party in season and out of season. They are gentlemen whom it will be a pleasure for us to support, because we know they are capable, honest and conscientious, and they will see that the people's interests are protected.

Postmaster at Millington.

President Wilson on Thursday sent to the Senate the appointment of Mr. W. Finley Collins as postmaster at Millington. This is a most excellent appointment, and the friends of Mr. Collins, who has been a strong supporter of President Wilson, and a staunch advocate of Hon. Wm. L. Marbury, candidate for the long term in the United States Senate, have been confident that he would win the prize. Mr. Collins is a member of that faction of the Democratic party in Kent, which was originally for President Wilson, and which is at present endeavoring to carry out his policies of progress and government in the interests of the people in this county. Mr. Collins' appointment is a distinct recognition by the President of that faction now in control in this county, and there will be other appointments later on to convince those who have pinned their faith to Senator John Walter Smith that President Wilson knows who his real friends in Kent are, and who is in control in politics in this county. Mr. Collins will make a most capable official, and depend upon it he will stick close to business. Other postoffice appointments made for Maryland were: Cecil E. Ewing, at Rising Sun, and Mr. Wm. M. Brown, at Chesapeake City, both close to Emerson R. Crothers and strong supporters of Mr. Marbury.

POULTRY EXHIBIT

To Be Arranged by the Transcript as One of the Features of the Big Fair in August.

In order to stimulate an interest in poultry raising in this and Queen Annes counties, the TRANSCRIPT has asked for and received permission from the management of the fair to arrange a large poultry exhibit during the fair in August at Radcliffe Park. The management has agreed to provide a large tent for the exhibit, and ample accommodations will be provided for such an exhibit of poultry and pigeons as will do credit to the association. Cash prizes will be offered, and the TRANSCRIPT hopes to have the assistance of a number of the best known poultry raisers in Kent and Queen Annes to assist in arranging the details for the exhibit. We shall write to these ladies and gentlemen next week or call them by phone, and invite them to serve as a committee. From week to week we shall give details in connection with the exhibit, and the TRANSCRIPT wants everybody to get ready for the exhibit, and even if your birds don't win a prize at the show, it will be a most excellent means of advertising your stock. More next week.

To Mothers.

The mothers of babies in Kent and Queen Annes are urged to take into consideration the facts as set forth in the various medical journals: "That most of the deaths among children are before they reach the age of four, and that a larger percentage die in country homes than in city homes." It is true, that there is more fresh air in the country, for you see, most farmers are afraid to let it get into their houses. I guess it is because they know that cabbage and potatoes could not prosper very well without it. Babies need fresh air, too. Ventilated bed rooms are as necessary as ventilated hen houses, and the returns will prove it. This Health Contest is of just the same value as the corn and tomato contests. The age of the participants is the only difference. WE BELIEVE IN IT AND WILL PUSH IT.
