GET THESE Money-making Secrets WITH THE Farm Journal

Is this cock properly held? "Poultry Secrets" tells how to carry fowls, and other secrets far more important.

FARM JOURNAL ("cream, not skim milk") is the great little paper published for 36 years in Philadelphia by Wilmer Atkinson. It is taken and read by more families than any other farm paper in the WORLD. Its four million readers (known as "Our Folks") are the most intelligent and prosperous country people that grow, and they always say the Farm Journal helped to make them so. Their potatoes are larger, their milk tests higher, their hogs weigh more, their fruit brings higher prices, because they read the Farm Journal.

Do you know Peter Tumbledown, the old fellow who won't take the Farm Journal? By showing how NOT to run a farm, Peter makes many prosperous. Nobody can go on reading the Farm Journal and being a Tumbledown top. Many have tried, but all have to quit one or the other.

The Farm Journal is bright, brief, "boiled down," practical, full of gumption, cheer and sunshine. It is strong on housekeeping and home-making, a favorite with busy women, full of life and fun for boys and girls. It sparkles with wit, and a happy, sunny spirit. Practical as a plow, readable as a novel. Clean and pure, not a line of fraudulent or nasty advertising. All its advertisers are guaranteed trustworthy.

The Farm Journal gives more for the money and puts it in fewer words than any other farm paper. 32 to 80 pages monthly, illustrated. FIVE years (60 issues) for $1.00 only. Less than 2 cents a month. No one-year, two-year or three-year subscriptions taken at any price.

The Farm Journal Booklets have sold by hundreds of thousands, and have made a sensation by revealing the SECRETS OF MONEY-MAKING in home industry. People all over the country are making money by their methods.

POULTRY SECRETS is a collection of discoveries and methods of successful poultrymen. It gives Felch's famous mating chart, the Curtiss method of getting one-half more pullets than cockerels, Boyer's method of insuring fertility, and priceless secrets of breeding, feeding, how to produce winter eggs, etc.

HORSE SECRETS exposes all the methods of "bishoping," "plugging," cocaine and gasoline doping, and other tricks of "gyps" and swindlers, and enables any one to tell an unsound horse. Gives many valuable training secrets.

CORN SECRETS, the great NEW hand-book of Prof. Holden, the "Corn King," shows how to get ten to twenty bushels more per acre of corn rich in protein and the best stock-feeding elements. Pictures make every process plain.

EGG SECRETS tells how a family of six can make hens turn its table scraps into a daily supply of fresh eggs. If you have a back-yard, get this booklet, learn how to use up every scrap of the kitchen waste, and live better at less cost.

THE "BUTTER BOOK" tells how seven cows were made to produce half a ton of butter each per year. (140 pounds is the average). An eye-opener. Get it, weed out your poor cows, and turn the good ones into record-breakers.

STRAWBERRY SECRETS is a revelation of the discoveries and methods of L. J. Farmer, the famous expert, in growing luscious fall strawberries almost until snow flies. How and when to plant, how to fertilize, how to remove the blossoms, how to get three crops in two years, etc.

GARDEN GOLD shows how to make your backyard supply fresh vegetables and fruit, how to cut down your grocery bills, keep a better table, and get cash for your surplus. How to plant, cultivate, harvest and market.

DUCK DOLLARS tells how the great Weber duck-farm near Boston makes every year 50 cents each on 40,000 ducklings. Tells why ducks pay them better than chickens, and just HOW they do everything.

TURKEY SECRETS discloses fully the methods of Horace Vose, the famous Rhode Island "turkey-man," who supplies the White House Thanksgiving turkeys. It tells how to mate, to set eggs, to hatch, to feed and care for the young, to prevent sickness, to fatten, and how to make a turkey-ranch PAY.

The MILLION EGG-FARM gives the methods by which J. M. Foster made over $18,000 a year, mainly from eggs. All chicken-raisers should learn about the "Rancocas Unit," and how Foster FEEDS hens to produce such quantities of eggs, especially in winter.

DRESSMAKING SELF-TAUGHT shows how any intelligent woman can design and make her own clothes, in the height of fashion. The author has done it since she was a girl. She now has a successful dressmaking establishment and a school of dressmaking. Illustrated with diagrams.

SHALL I FARM? is a clear, impartial statement of both advantages and drawbacks of farming, to help those who have to decide this important question. It warns you of dangers, swindles, and mistakes, tells how to start, equipment needed, its cost, chances of success, how to get government aid, etc.

These booklets are 6 x 9 inches, and profusely illustrated.

What Our Folks Say About F. J.

"I have had more help, encouragement and enjoyment out of it in one year than I did out of my other papers in ten years," says C. M. Persons.

"It is a queer little paper. I have sometimes read it through and thought I was done with it, then pick it up again and find something new to interest me," says Alfred Krogh.

"Farm Journal is like a bit of sunshine in our home. It is making a better class of people out of farmers. It was first sent me as a Christmas present, and I think it the choicest present I ever received," says F. R. LeValley.

"We have read your dear little paper for nearly 40 years. Now we don't live on the farm any more, yet I still have a hankering for the old paper. I feel that I belong to the family, and every page is as dear and familiar as the faces of old friends," says Mrs. B. W. Edwards.

"I fear I neglect my business to read it. I wish it could be in the hands of every farmer in Virginia," says W. S. Cline.

"I live in a town where the yard is only 15 x 18 feet, but I could not do without the Farm Journal," says Miss Sara Carpenter.

"I get lots of books and papers, and put them aside for future reading. The only paper I seem to have in my hands all the time is Farm Journal. I can't finish reading it. Can't you make it less interesting, so I can have a chance at my other papers?" writes John Swail.

"If I am lonesome, down-hearted, or tired, I go to Farm Journal for comfort, next to the Bible," says Mabel Dewitt.

"Farm Journal has a cheerful vein running through it that makes it a splendid cure for the "blues." When coming home tired in mind and body, I sit down and read it, and it seems to give me new inspiration for life," writes G. E. Halderman.

"We have a brother-in-law who loves a joke. We live in Greater New York, and consider ourselves quite citified, so when he sent us the Farm Journal as a New Year's gift we nearly died laughing. "How to raise hogs—we who only use bacon in glass jars! "How to keep cows clean"—when we use condensed milk even for rice pudding! "How to plant onions"—when we never plant anything more fragrant than lilies of the valley. I accepted the gift with thanks, for we are too well-bred to look a gift horse in the mouth. Soon my eye was caught by a beautiful poem. I began to read it, then when I wanted the Farm Journal I found my husband deeply interested in an article. Then my oldest son began to ask, 'Has the Farm Journal come yet?' He is a jeweler, and hasn't much time for literature; but we find so much interest and uplift in this fine paper that we appreciate our New Year's gift more and more," writes Ella B. Barkman.

"I received 'Corn Secrets' and 'Poultry Secrets,' and consider them worth their weight in gold," says W. G. Newall.

"What your Egg Book tells would take a beginner years to learn," says Roy Chaney.

"Duck Dollars is the best book I ever had on duck-raising," says F. M. Warnock.

"If your other booklets contain as much valuable information as the Egg-Book, I would consider them cheap at double the price," says F. W. Mansfield.

"I think your Egg-Book is a wonder," says C. P. Shirey.

"The Farm Journal beats them all. Every issue has reminders and ideas worth a year's subscription," writes T. H. Potter.

"One year ago I took another agricultural paper, and it took a whole column to tell what Farm Journal tells in one paragraph," says N. M. Gladwin.

"It ought to be in every home where there is a chick, a child, a cow, a cherry, or a cucumber," says I. D. Bordus.

POULTRY NOTES.

No Known Remedy for White Diarrhœa.

At the present time there is no known cure for white diarrhœa, the white plague of the baby chick's life. Feed abuse can be cured if taken in time, by first removing the cause, cleaning up the brooder, renewing the litter and feeding lightly of grains that are clean and sound. The water from boiled rice will do much to stop the diarrhœa. Boiled milk is also excellent. This is one reason why chicks are fed milk for the first ten days in connection with other feeds. Milk in itself is a complete food, and when it can be secured at reasonable cost should be in every ration for the chick.

MAY CHICKENS MUST BE GIVEN ROOMY QUARTERS.

Several good regulators that can be used with success in case of trouble are on the market, but the average poultry raiser who has passed the experimental stage seldom resorts to medicine. May-hatched chicks, expecially those brought out in the latter part of the month, will not thrive if not given good roomy quarters. During May and June hot nights are to be expected, and it is then that chicks need plenty fresh air. The average beginner crowds too many under one hen, has more than 50 in one brooder, and after the chicks have outgrown the brooder, they are frequently crowded into makeshift quarters much too small for them.

This is the age of big things in poultry—the 30,000 laying plant, the big incubator and brooder—and the fever seems to have caught the beginners. They, too, try to raise more chicks than their accommodations warrant. This from observation has been the case in at least 80 per cent. of those starting in poultry raising. Better have a few good chicks than twice as many undersized. In fact, overcrowding of quarters is a common weakness of beginners. If beginners will place 50 chicks in a good brooder; run at a temperature to suit the chicks, feed a good, clean high-grade chick food, following with a clean, dry mash—grit, oyster shell and charcoal before them at all times—feed plenty of green feed, such as sprouted oats, clover or lawn cuttings, provide roomy quarters affording plenty of fresh air during the warm days and nights following their baby age, they will have little cause to study diseases and their cures. It is better to prevent, and this can always be accomplished if details are attended to.

Isaac Hecht Commits Suicide.

Isaac Hecht, 48 years old, president of the Havre de Grace Banking and Trust company, was found Tuesday morning hanging in the garage of his taxicab company.

For some time Mr. Hecht's health had been impaired. Tuesday morning he dressed carefully to go to a meeting of directors of the trust company and later was seen pacing up and down in front of the garage.

His absence from the directors meeting alarmed his associates and he was being searched for when James Gravenstine, a chauffeur, returned to the garage and found Mr. Hecht's body suspended by a rope over the side of the open stairway.

His son, Lee I. Hecht, an attorney of Baltimore, who is also one of the directors of the trust company, was at the directors' meeting. When his father did not arrive he went to meet him, and reached the garage a short while after the body had been found.

Mr. Hecht locked all the doors of the garage, and taking an inch-rope, used in towing disabled machines, went to the second story of the garage and tied it securely. From the position of the body he is thought to have walked down the steps and dropped over the side of the open stairway.

The deceased formerly kept a large hotel in Havre de Grace, and was at one time a resident of this town. He leaves a widow, two sons, and two brothers.

The History Of Cecil County.

(From Cecil County News, April 30.)

Active work was begun this week by the editorial board and staff, in the preparation of the new and completely illustrated History of Cecil County—Her People at Home and Aboard. The Town Council room on North street, Elkton, is being used as the central office and branches will soon be opened in different towns of the county. The editorial board is made up of prominent men from various sections of the county, and already a subscription list has been secured sufficient to assure the success of the enterprise. The duplication will illustrate the wonderful advantages of Cecil Country, and record Cecil's history fully and thoroughly from the early settlement right down to the present time. Every interest of the county will be treated and pictures inserted of all historic places, river courses, industries, etc. The section devoted to sketches of the people of the county, at home and abrord, will be a special feature.

Already a large collection of views and data has been made, and all persons of the county who can help in any way are requested to call at the headquarters in Council Hall, Elkton, or correspond with the publisher, Victor Torbert. Those desiring the histroy should send in their subscription orders at once. Along with this project is being organized the Cecil County Historical Society.

BETTER than SPANKING

Spanking will not cure children of wetting the bed, because it is not a habit but a dangerous disease. The C. H. Rowan Drug Co., Dept. 2523, Chicago, Ill., have discovered a strictly harmless remedy for this distressing disease and to make known its merits they will send a 50c package securely wrapped and prepaid Absolutely Free to any reader of the Transcript. This remedy also cures frequent desire to urinate and inability to control urine during the night or day in old or young. The C. H. Rowan Drug Co. is an Old Reliable House—write to them to-day for the free medicine. Cure the afflicted members of your family, then tell your neighbors and friends about this remedy.
