Methodists Set Student Day

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Methodists throughout the nation will honor their sons and daughters of college age June 13 by officially observing Methodist Student Day.

One feature of these services in local churches will be collecting offerings to provide scholarships and loans for worthy young people.

Such offerings last year made possible the awarding of 500 scholarships worth approximately $160,000. Awards for 1948-49 are expected to exceed this. Since 1946-48 when National Methodist Scholarships were first provided, over 1200 awards worth $360,000 have been made.

These scholarships are open to any student who has maintained a B average throughout high school or college study and may be used in any of the 88 colleges and universities related to the General Board of Education of the Methodist Church.

High school graduates seeking a scholarship for application to their freshman year of college work must also rank in the upper 15% of their graduating class. Each scholarship covers costs of tuition and fees up to $400 per academic year.

Morgan Does It Differently

Shown are Miss Roberta Lavarr, honor student, and Dr. Willard W. Allen, member of the board of trustees, laying the cornerstone for the one-half million dollar dining hall at Morgan State College on Monday in full view of the commencement audience. Architects and builders said they had never seen a cornerstone laid like this before. College officials wanted the audience to have a full view and instead of inviting it to the new Memorial Hall, the cornerstone was brought to the commencement stage. Usually this is done in a hole and the crowd standing around cannot see.

IN OUR CHURCHES

By LOUISE K. HINES

A $5,000 debt-free Consonata electric organ was dedicated and presented to the Trustee Board of Emmanuel Christian Community Church during a ceremony held there Thursday night.

The presentation was made by Phillip Timberlake, chairman of the entertainment committee of the church Advisory Board. The Rev. Wilbur Waters is pastor of the church located at Lanvale St. and Carrollton Ave.

Deploring an assault on one of its women members, the editorial in the Emmanuel "Messenger," asks:

How long will officials sit complacently by while negligent police officials dilly-dally in discriminatory "snafu" instead of appointing the necessary number of colored police to maintain law and order on our streets?

Children's Day Program

Children's Day will be observed on Sunday in many of the churches on this Sunday.

The members of Payne Memorial AME Church will join members of the Sunday School in a march that begins from this church room, goes East on Laurens St. to Madison Ave. to Presstman St., to McCulloh St., to McMechen St., to Madison, back to the church.

Hamilton Young is superintendent.

The closing of the Allen Christian Endeavor League will be marked by a social tomorrow night at 8 p.m. on Sunday. As a closing project, ACE will send Ralph Howard, one of its workers to the interracial camp to be held June 27 to July 3 in New Windsor, Md.

The Male and Female Ushers of Payne will hold their annual picnic on July 5 at Sparrows Beach.

Piano Recital

The Council of Stewardesses will meet at the church on June 24, while on June 20, Mrs. Alma J. Thomas will present her pupils, students in their annual piano recital.

Leaders in the Young People's rally to be held at Payne, are:

Misses Barbara Garrett, Gwendola Howe, Hubert Dorsey, Edith Conner, Juanita Williamson, Doris Garrett, Margaret Holt, Marlene Boden, Constance Carter, Delores Brown, Helen Bassmore; Ralph Howard, John Holland and Alphonse Redfield.

The Rev. C. Baker Pearle is pastor.

Some 417 names were included on the financial honor roll at New Shiloh Baptist Church, Lanvale and Fremont Aves., from January through May.

Slate Activities

Two events are slated for Wednesday at Shiloh. At 8 p.m. there will be a moving picture entertainment given by the choral boys, and at the same hour, a lawn fete by the Sewing Circle headed by Mrs. Mamie Owens.

Shiloh's speaker last Sunday was the Rev. Dr. W. C. Somerville of Washington, executive secretary of the Lott Carey Foreign Mission Board.

The support of the Baptist Ministers Conference in picketing hotels refusing proper accommodations to colored persons, was sought this week by Harold Buchman of the Maryland Progressive Party.

Revival Service Set

The Rev. W. W. Robinson of Philadelphia, will conduct a two-week revival beginning on Sunday, at Rehoboth Christian Church, 1122 E. Lexington St. Elder J. W. Mayfield is pastor.

The 20th annual session of the Independent Colored Baptist State Convention of Maryland got under way on Tuesday at Mount Sinai Baptist Church, 922 E. Preston St.

The morning program today (Friday) was in charge of the Women's Missionary Convention, Mrs. E. J. Epps, president.

Rev. James Kelly discussed the theme, "Witness For God."

Field Worker Speaks

Mrs. Epps made her annual address during the 20 pm. session while Mrs. Cora Scott, field worker, gave a report on her work.

Mrs. Virginia Stokes is president of the Young People's Department which held the 7:30 p.m. session at which the Rev. P. C. Land of the United Baptist Church is slated to preach the missionary sermon.

The Rev. J. R. Butler is host pastor and president.

AME Bishop L. H. Hemmingway will speak on June 20 at the annual Men's Day at Allen AME.

Organ Dedication Ceremony at Emmanuel

Shown is the presentation of the $5,000 debt-free electric organ by Phillip Timberlake, chairman of the advisory board entertaining committee; to Chester Eley, member of the trustee board of the Emmanuel Christian Community Church on Thursday night. Looking on is Harry Jackson and Mrs. Mollie Bowen also trustees. Not shown is Mrs. Elizabeth Marshall, who presented $75 toward the purchase of chimes for the organ on behalf of the Young People's Choir. The Senior Choir donated $100 toward the chimes. Rev. Wilbur Waters is pastor.

Baptist Center Awards 3 Degrees

Three young men who entered the Maryland Baptist Center at Lexington and Howard in the first session in September, 1945, were awarded the degree of bachelor of theology at recent commencement exercises.

They are John E. Perry, pastor of the First Christian Mission of Holabird, Md.; William H. Watson, pastor of University Baptist Church; and James S. Wise, associate minister of Morning Star Baptist Church.

The Rev. Mr. Perry, a graduate of Douglass High School, is single; and, in addition to his ministerial work, is employed as an agent of the Southern Life Insurance Company.

The Rev. Mr. Watson, married, was graduated from Douglass Evening High School in June, 1934. The Rev. Mr. Wise will be graduated from Douglass Evening School next February.

All three ministers are planning to enter college. The Rev. William P. Tapscott is dean of the Baptist Center.

Open house for parents and visitors will be held on July 14 while the closing exercises are set for July 15. The vacation and Sunday School picnic will be held July 16 at Beechwood Park.

Baptist Center Graduates

Bible Class Holds Closing Exercises

Nearly 100 persons attended the closing of the Children's Neighborhood Bible Class of Sharp St. Methodist Church on Sunday in the Community House.

A program was offered by the 30 members in charge of their instructor, Mrs. Nellie G. Simpson.

Miss Maggie Bailey's sewing class will close on June 18 with exercise slated for 5 p.m.

The annual June Wedding of the Jolly Juniors, a youth division of the Women's Society of Christian Service, will be held at 7 p.m. on June 18 in the lecture room of the church.

Vacation Bible School Opens at Sharp Street

The four-week Daily Vacation Bible School at Sharp St. Methodist Church, will open on June 23 for children from 4 to 14 years of age.

East Hoffman St. Church to Move

Has Purchased $68,000

Former White Edifice

Under the leadership and direction of Bishop A. F. Shaw of the Baltimore Area, the East Hoffman St. Methodist Church completed transactions this week, for the purchase of the structure at Washington and Chase St., formerly the white Appold Methodist Church.

Led by the Rev. C. S. Scott, the congregation of East Hoffman St., which in 13 short years, had outgrown its original building at Eden and Hoffman Sts., will hold services in the new location on Sunday.

At 5 p.m., Dr. Nick A. Ford of Morgan State College will speak there at the vesper services for Dunbar High School graduates.

Bishop Shaw Shows Need

Speaking at the recent session of the Washington Annual Conference, Bishop Shaw described the East Hoffman St. congregation as "one of the most vigorous in the Baltimore area."

"He made known then, his desire for these people to have proper facilities for carrying out their militant and progressive program in a way that could not be done in the original location in an industrial area, where expansion of the present facilities was impossible."

Bishop Shaw held the Friday afternoon session of the conference in the Appold Church, during which $600 was given in a free will collection and $22.00 pledged toward the $68,000 purchase price of the edifice.

The facilities of E. Hoffman St. Church's new building include, in addition to the spacious, beautiful main auditorium, a separate Sunday school building.

This building includes three classrooms, a gymnasium, stage, social hall seating 300 persons, modern rest rooms, showers and a kitchen. It was built in 1925 at a cost of $54,000.

The Appold congregation, whose pastor is the Rev. R. W. Shindle, has united for the most part, with the congregation of the Northwood Methodist Church, 4490 Loch Raven Blvd.

Organized in 1935

East Hoffman St. Church was organized in 1935 by the Rev. C. S. Johnson, now S. Baltimore District Superintendent, from a membership of 300 persons, withdrawn from Asbury Methodist Church, Lexington and East Sts.

Now in his third year as pastor, the Rev. Mr. Scott came there from a church in Hereford, Md. He is a native of Charleston, W. Va., and has been in the ministry 22 years, serving also in Virginia, Washington and Pennsylvania.

Three Women Trustees

He is a graduate of the W. Virginia State College and Gammon Theological Seminary.

Trustees who aided in the transactions for the new church include Mesdames Sadie Bannon, Laura Bouldin, Estella Berry; William E. Lloyd, Benjamin Keene, William H. Redmond, James Keene, Winfield Ross and William Price.
