LOCAL MATTERS

New Private Secretary.—Mr. H. H. Sasscer III, who has served as private secretary to President James W. Cain very acceptably for the past two years, has resigned to take up the study of law at the Maryland University in the fall. Mr. Irving O. Ridgely, one of the class of 1913, has accepted the appointment, and will make a most acceptable successor to Mr. Sasscer.

Will of Late Joshua McCleary.—The will of the late Joshua McCleary was filed for probate in the Orphans' Court on Tuesday. He leaves his farm of 88½ acres, situated near Tolchester, together with all the rest and residue of his estate, personal and real, to his wife, her heirs, etc. His wife is constituted executrix. The will was dated Nov. 27th, 1907, and was witnessed by Wm. W. Beck and Walter W. Needles.

Personalty of Late Alday Clements.—The appraisers, Messrs. Philip G. Wilmer and John H. Clendaniel, of the personal estate of the late Alday Clements filed an inventory with the Orphans' Court on Tuesday. The inventory shows an appraisement of the stock, farm implements and grain on his seven farms at $42,320.50, and stocks and securities are appraised at $31,314.54, making a total appraisement of personalty of $73,635.04.

Secures Position in Washington.—Mr. Jesse Graham, who has been holding a lucrative position in the Chemical department in the Mississippi University, Mississippi, has resigned to accept a position as Chemist in the Department of Agriculture in Washington. Mr. Graham won the position upon his splendid record in a Civil Service examination. He stood No. 1 among a large list of applicants. He left with his family for Washington on Monday. Mr. Graham is the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Graham of this town.

A Fine Entertainment.—The entertainment given by the Young Men's Literary club at Still Pond on last Thursday evening was a grand success in every way, as they had a large crowd and the receipts were over $50.00 and each of the plays was received with ovation, and those taking part did fine. It has been conceeded by many that it was the best show ever given in the hall there, and the young men did credit to the club. The entertainment will be repeated at Betterton under the auspicies of the Epworth Legue, on Tuesday, June 10th, in the hall on Turner's pier. And again at Kennedyville under the auspicies of the Ladies' Aid society of the M. P. Church on Thursday evening, June 12th, in Weer's Hall, and we feel sure that all who hear them will feel that they have their money's worth.

Voshell House Changes Hands.—Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ferguson, who had conducted the Voshell House for the past year and a half, have sold their interest and fixtures including furniture, etc., to Mr. George E. Lambert, who, with the assistance of his mother, will conduct the hostelry in the future. The price is private, though it is said to be round about $2000. Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson gave possession on Sunday morning, and they have taken the residence on Queen street formerly occupied by Mrs. Lambert. Mr. Lambert has been commissary at the college, but will not relinguish his duties there until the close of the present school year. Mrs. Ferguson's health has not been good of late and she was afraid to risk the responsibility of the routine of hotel keeping any longer.

Mr. Fred S. Russell has disposed of the agency for the Elite Laundry to Mr. Harry Weinberg, who will manage the business in the future.

Chinese University Ball Team.—One of the great attractions at Washington field next Friday will be the team from the Chinese University of Honolulu, Hawaii. This is the only appearance of this team on the Eastern Shore. It is composed entirely of Chinese students, who know how to play the game. This should attract a record crowd.

Delegates to Bankers Association.—The annual meeting of the Maryland State Bankers' Association will be held at the Blue Mountain House June 24th, 25th and 26th. Delegates from the Chestertown Banks are as follows: Third National, Hope H. Barroll and W. B. Copper; Kent County Savings, Philip G. Wilmer, J. D. Bacchus and Wm. F. Russell.

Mr. John Bartley's driving mare was badly cut about the thigh on Monday afternoon while being shod at the blacksmith shop of Mr. A. J. Hackett. The mare pulled back on her halter pulling loose the staple. She fell through the office door, broke the wash sink, the chair and cut a gash in her thigh which required the taking of 18 stitches by Dr. Jarman. She is doing all right, but she made a narrow escape from a bad injury. The mare does not relish being shod, but Mr. Hackett turned the trick all right. She is a valuable mare, and a splendid driver.

The town commissioners tried the experiment of oiling the new street on Wednesday afternoon with a preparation of salt and oil. It spoiled some of the ladies white shoes and skirts, but that was no fault of the commissioners. We shall have to await developments before passing judgment upon the value of the process. Mr. Harry Thomas, son of the late Rev. Samuel Thomas, who was always greatly interested in Chestertown, very kindly donated 3 cans of the preparation to try, and if it fills the bill, Mr. Thomas will assist the commissioners in securing a good price for the article. We are under obligations to Mr. Thomas for his public spiritedness.

The Poultry Exhibit.

There was a good attendance of those interested in the Poultry exhibit to be held during the fair in Mr. James G. Beck's office on Wednesday afternoon, and the details of the organization of a permanent poultry association for Kent and Queen Annes counties were discussed. A temporary organization was effected by the election of Mr. L. Harris Crewe, proprietor of the Maryland Water Fowl farm as chairman, and Mr. Owen C. Smith, the incubator man, as secretary. Arrangements were made for securing a competent judge, for hiring exhibition coops, and for getting in touch with feed dealers and other exhibitors. The meeting adjourned to meet in Mr. Beck's office on Friday afternoon, June 20th, at 2.30 o'clock, when rules governing entries, and all other details will be completed. We are glad to state that the ladies are taking an interest in this movement, and everybody who is in anyway interested in poultry raising in the two counties is asked to be present at the next meeting.

Betterton-Still Pond Road.

The Board of County Commissioners on Tuesday opened the bids for the construction of the new road from Betterton to Still Pond station. There were two bids, the lowest of which was $7,500 per mile, making the total cost of the 4.14 miles considerably over $30,000. The commissioners immediately telephoned to Mr. W. B. Miller, of the State Road Commission, in Salisbury, and asked him to meet them at their office in Chestertown on Thursday evening, which Mr. Miller very kindly did. The situation was thoroughly canvassed and Mr. Miller assured the commissioners that he could secure a competent engineer who would build a most satisfactory road at $5,000, and arrangements were at once made. Mr. Miller stated he would write a letter for publication in the TRANSCRIPT, explaining the situation to the tax-payers, and he assured the commissioners that the cost of the road would not exceed $21,000, and that work would begin sometime the latter part of this month.

BASE BALL NOTES.

It is a sad story to relate but nevertheless true that St. John's College team defeated Washington College last Saturday afternoon simply because of an error in the coaching in the ninth inning and Biddle's weakness in the fatal tenth, when the boys from the Severn made seven runs and won the game by 9 to 2. The game was a fine contest up to the tenth inning. Biddle pitched great ball for nine innings, but he weakened and thereby hangs the story.

The Chestertown High School team defeated the Kennedyville team on Saturday afternoon by the score of 9 to 4. This was the deciding game for the championship between the two teams and the Chestertown laddies "copped the bacon."

Washington College team will entertain Rock Hill College team this afternoon at 3 on Washington field. The public is cordially invited to pay 25 cents to see Washington win the game.

A TIE ELECTION.

Warm Contest for Town Commissioner in Betterton Ends in Tie Vote for Candidates.

Never before in the history of town elections in this county has such a condition arisen as occurred in the election at Betterton on Saturday afternoon last, when Mr. Arthur P. Emerson and Col. A. H. Suplee fought each other to a standstill at the polls. Sixty-four votes were polled and each candidates received 32 votes. There were a number of tax-payers away from home at the time, and they failed to vote. Just what arrangement will be made to settle the question has not been decided. There is nothing in the town charter providing for an adjustment of a tie vote, nor is any authority given the Board of Commissioners to act in the matter unless there be a vacancy. Capt. John Brice is the retiring commissioner, and he holds office until his successor is elected and qualified. The opinion among our lawyers is that another election will be necessary to settle the matter, and in a conversation with Mr. Emerson, who was in Chestertown on Monday, he stated that he will demand another election.
