HIGH-FLYING EAGLES DUE HERE SUNDAY

Birds Aim to Halt Elites; Locals Thump Cubans, 6-3

McCord Doubles, Robinson Homers in Tuesday Score; Stars in Town Tonite

The high-flying Newark Eagles, tensnug in their hold on second place in the Negro National League standings, will be guests of the Baltimore Elite Giants here Sunday afternoon at Bugle Field.

The Birds, under their new manager, Bill Bell, hit into two best on stopping the surge of the locals, who have won eight of their last "Tuesday night, the Elites scored their eighth win against two losses in their last ten starts, when they put together ten hits behind the veteran Bill Byrd and nipped the defending champion New York Cubans, 6-3.

Big blows of the victory were turned in by Butch McCord, rookie outfielder from Tennessee State College, who doubled with two men on base, and by Frazier Robinson who banged out his first homer of the year with nobody ahead of him.

Byrd in the meantime, was stretching seven Cuban bingles over the 9-inning route.

The Elites take their second home date of the week-end, offered by Oscar Charleston's Philadelphia Stars, tonight (Friday). The two clubs met last Sunday and divided a doubleheader.

Butts will be back in the line-up after serving a term neated out for him by NNL President John Johnson. The league had ousted Butts for ten games, fined him $100 for fighting with an umpire in a game at the Polo Grounds last month.

The Giants captured the first game, 5-4, in 11 innings, and dropped the nightcap, 3-1.

The Baltimoreans greet the Havre de Grace Cardinals on Sunday and on June 20, engage in a three-team double-header as Tri-State baseball is inaugurated at Bugle Field in their home city.

Henry Davis Loses Bout in Unpopular Decision

HONOLULU — (ANP) — Henry Davis lost one of the best fights of his career last Tuesday night when the judges handed Manuel Ortiz the nod in a split verdict.

The featherweight champion, Manuel Ortiz, was unimpressive and the 7,000 fans give him enough boos to be heard across the Pacific. Robert Washington, manager of Davis, blasted the referee and the judges by saying, "I do not like to use the word prejudice or incompetents, but prejudice is the only answer to the raw deal handed Davis Tuesday night."

The judges, Walter Cho, voted 4-2, and Dick Chang, 4-3 in favor of Ortiz; while Kenny Olds gave Davis lone vote of 6-5.

Bluejay Rally Tops Bryantown Cards, 3-2

BRYANTOWN, Md.—The Washington Blue Jays staged a late run rally in the ninth to wipe out a two-point deficit, and edge Bryantown Cardinals, 10-9, here Sunday.

Trailing 8-7, with two out in the top of the ninth, the winners bunched three singles and a homer, accounting for three runs before they were silenced.

Parham Homers

The rally was featured by a homer by Big Charles Parham with one aboard to even the count. Then successive singles by Benny Carter and Robert Richardson iced the contest.

Bill Thomason went the distance for the losers, but was repped off, ten as the Blue Jays tallied 15 safeties.

3 RECORDS FALL AS CARDOZO RETAINS TITLE

Clerks Win 8 First Places in South Atlantic Carnival

Armstrong, Phelps Repeat as Runners-Up; McGoines Again Takes Individual Award

By FRED LEIGH

WASHINGTON

Establishing two of three new meet records while copping eight of 15 first places and tallying in the remaining events, Cardozo High School amassed an overwhelming score of 66 points to retain its South Atlantic Conference track and field championship, Tuesday, in Brooks Stadium.

Armstrong and Phelps divided runner-up honors with 28 points apiece to duplicate a feat accomplished last year when each scored 34 points. Douglass of Baltimore took third place with 21½ points.

Other team scores were: Dunbar of Washington, 17; Lakeland, 3; Carver, 1; and Douglass of Baltimore, ½; Dunbar of Baltimore forfeit to place.

The triumph gave Coach Sal Hall's Clerks three consecutive team championships this season in conference meetings, having annexed the CIAA intersectional championship and the District crown in that order.

McGoines, Versatile Performer

Emerging as high scoring performer in as many championship meets, Rudolph McGoines of Cardozo, one of the most versatile athletes in the conference, won the Washington Alumni Cup, presented by the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity high point trophy, with 11¼ points. He marked the second consecutive year he has won the coveted award.

The fleet-footed 17-year-old youngster took first in the broad, third in the discus and javelin, fourth in the shot put, and ran the second leg on the winning 440-yard relay team.

The contest, witnessed by 2,000 fans, was marked with startling upsets beginning with the mile-run dash in which Arthur Bragg, mercury-heeled runner from Douglass of Baltimore, upset Marcellus Boston and Joe Walker of Cardozo, pre-meet favorites.

Bragg Upsets Boston

Boston, unfortunately nipped by a yard or more at the tape, reeled off a second consecutive win in the trials while Bragg was clocked in 4:35.9 and came back in the morning heats.

The field in the 100-yard dash broke even at the gun, but Boston was the only sprinter in the contest. Phelps and Joe Walker moved ahead at the half-way mark in a clustered bunch.

Douglass runner snap the tape with little to spare in 10 seconds.

Sam Wright of Phelps took the lead at the gun in the quarter mile, and set a blistering pace for the 300 yards before being challenged by Cardozo's DeReef Green on the final turn. Green, a prerace favorite with Alonzo (Boxy) Jones out of the race, made a gallant bid to wipe out the deficit in the 440 yards.

Wright Defeats Green

However, Wright stood off a terrific kick by Green who wiped out a 10-yard lead, and was breathing down the Phelps runner's neck going into the last 10 yards, but was clocked one of first place by a mere step as Wright hit the tape in 51.9 seconds to pull the second upset in the meet.

Joe Walker of Cardozo got some measure of consolation by winning the 220-yard dash over a crack field in 22.5, beating Carl Cager of Lakeland who posted a 22.5 in the morning trials. Incidentally, Cager, a favorite in the 100-yard dash, won his heat in 10 seconds in the quarter-finals, but was left in the hole in the semi-finals which was won by Boston.

Fifteen yards from the tape, Boston, who was leading Bragg by a scant step, surged ahead in a final desperate effort only to see the former in so
