Another Epoch-Making Nemo Invention

As shown in figure, the elastic band of Lastikop Webbing in the back of Corset allows for freedom and comfort in the sitting posture and causes the Corset to cling closely, giving a perfect figure in any position the wearer assumes.

Remember, a Nemo in Chestertown is the same as one in Philadelphia or New York, and as this store is the only place in Kent county where you can buy them, we would be pleased to receive your order when you are in need of a good Corset.

Describe the style and feature in a Corset you want and we will send you a pair by Parcel Post.

CRUMPTON, MARYLAND.

MARRIAGE BELLS.

ADKINS—GRAHAM.

A wedding of interest to the people of the Eastern Shore took place in Christ M. P. Church on Thursday evening at eight o'clock, when Miss Jessie Graham, daughter of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Graham, became the bride of Mr. E. Dale Adkins, one of Salisbury's most prominent young business men. The church was beautifully decorated with palms, potted flowers, etc., by friends of the bride, and the beautiful edifice made a charming setting for the happy event. Promptly at the appointed hour to the strains of the wedding march, skilfully rendered by the organist of the church, Miss Clara Usilton, the bride, leaning upon the arm of her brother, Mr. Walter M. Graham, and preceded by the maid of honor, Miss Ann B. Smith, the flower girls and ushers, approached the chancel, where she was met by the groom and his brother, Mr. Fred S. Adkins, as best man. The ceremony was impressively performed by the father of the bride. The groom, best man, and ushers, Messrs. J. Newell Graham, of Baltimore; Walter Sheppard, Harry C. Adkins and C. Edgar Laws, of Salisbury; with Mr. Walter M. Graham, of Baltimore, wore full dress suits. The bride was becomingly attired in a handsome gown of white charmeuse, with tulle veil caught up with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lillies of the valley. The maid of honor's costume was a rich creation of white crepe de chene, and she carried a beautiful bouquet of sweet peas. The little flower girls, Misses Mabel and Sarah Billingslea, nieces of the bride, wore sweet little dresses of a dainty white texture, and carried baskets of pretty flowers. The church was filled with relatives and friends of the couple to witness the ceremony. Immediately following the ceremony a reception to the immediate families and close relatives was held at the home of the bride's parents on Queen street, after which they departed by automobile for an extended honeymoon tour. They were the recipients of numerous and valuable presents. Among the out-of-town guests were: Mrs. C. C. Billingslea and children, of Chicago; Mrs. Paul B. Graham, and children, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Graham, Mrs. Richard Gundry, Mrs. A. E. Black, and Miss Black; Mrs. A. H. Wentz, Mr. Thomas L. Hines, Mrs. George W. Dexter, all of Baltimore; Mrs. E. W. Veasey, Pocomoke City; Miss Mary Turner, Easton; Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Adkins, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sheppard, Mr. and Mrs. William Sheppard, Misses Wilsie and Minnie Adkins, Mr. Harry Adkins and Mr. Edgar Laws, of Salisbury; Misses Caroline and Sue Billingslea, of Westminster.

BARNES—SMITH.

A quiet but very pretty wedding took place on Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Smith when their daughter, Miss Clara Belle Smith, became the bride of Mr. John Elwood Barnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Barnes.

The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of tan Bedford Cord with large picture hat and gloves to match and carried white roses. The maid of honor was Miss Lillian Smith, the bride's sister, who was becomingly attired in pink Crepe de Chine and carried pink roses. Mr. Herman Blackway was best man. Miss Fannie Stuart played the wedding march. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. E. Barrett. The parlor was beautifully trimmed in potted plants and cut flowers, also an arch of boxwood and roses, the color scheme being green and white. The room was darkened and candles lit. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left by Tolchester for Baltimore for a short wedding trip. On their return they will reside on Kent Street. They recived many beautiful and useful presents, including a complete outfit for kitchen given by the sunday school class of which the bride is a member, at a "kitchen shower" party held at the home of Miss Fannie Stuart last Thursday evening.

Among the approaching June weddings will be that of Miss Marie Westcott, daughter of Mrs. Charles T. Westcott, of Washington, and Raymond S. Williams, a young lawyer of Baltimore. The wedding will take place June 21 in Washington, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Russell Willson, formerly Miss Eunice Westcott, 1735 New Hampshire avenue. Owing to a recent death in Mr. Williams' family, the wedding will be a very quite one, with only members of the two families and a few intimate friends present.

FAULKNER—LAMBERT.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Lambert have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Ruth, to Mr. Kenneth Grey Faulkner, of Norfolk, Va., formerly of Chestertown. The ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride's parents on Maple avenue at noon, on Wednesday, June 25th. No cards in the county.

It is rumored that we are to have two weddings in Chestertown in the near future. Please don't ask us to tell.
