CONSULT MOODY

over your clothing troubles. He has the remedy and also numerous testimonials from patrons right here at home, attesting the fact that he has the antidote guaranteed to relieve the pressure of high prices and misfits.

Backed by the International Tailoring Co, of New York, Chicago and London, and a successful, straightforward experience of 25 years in the clothing business in my own town, coupled with no stock to carry and carry over—WHY shouldn't I do business? Let me show you.

Respectfully,

W. E. MOODY, Office under Voshell House next to Robert McWhorter's,
CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

MUST GO at $7,250. 227 acres, Kent county, on water; 172 tillable, 5 in timber; 5 miles from R. R. station, wharf handy, good level land.

No. 604.—If you wanted this place, and its location and condition make it desirable, you could pay $5,000 and not feel that you were going too high, so when it stares you in the face at $3,700 it should be looked into NOW. Fifty acres on Chester river, with beautiful elevation, sand beach, oysters, fish, etc. Only 3 minutes' walk to wharf (daily steamboat). Abut one-half the land is tillable balance woodland.

618—43 acres, Kent county, near Betterton. The location, land and condition of buildings are a sufficient guarantee that at $4,500 you have here a farm where money is made without intense strain and labor. This section is bound to advance, and land bought here is as safe as GOLD bonds.

List of other small and large farms in Kent, Cecil, Queen Annes and Caroline.

INFORMATION FOR Progressive Threshermen
FOR 1913

SUGGESTIONS

If an Article Wears Well and Does the Work we Soon Forget the Cost; if it Does Not Wear, we Always Remember the Price.

The 20th Century Farmer demands thorough and clean threshing and quick work. If you can satisfy him on these points, you can retain his trade, and at practically your own price.

In buying a Threshing Rig, it is, therefore, very essential that the progressive thresherman, if he would make his business profitable, recognize the necessity of getting not only the best constructed and most durable machinery, but machinery that is convenient to handle, easily adjusted to suit various conditions, and free from numerous complicated parts. It is self-evident that the more complicated a machine is, the more trouble and delays you will likely experience.

If you want machinery that will meet all conditions successfully without the necessity of spending a large percentage of your profit for repairs, WE have it. Our late models are the "Acme" of perfection and will please the most exacting. Advising with us, we believe, will stimulate your interest in the FRICK line to the extent of seeking further information before your final decision.

Send for free Catalogue giving details of our popular Rigs. Give us an idea of the quantity of grain you wish to handle daily and we will tell you what size will be best suited to do the work economically and profitably in a business that must be handled in a comparatively small part of the year.

Remember that all Machinery is Fully Guaranteed and Must Be as Represented.

WE HAVE BEEN SUED.

One of the Editors of the Transcript Was Arrested and the Transcript Publishing Company Was Sued Before the Ink on Saturday's Issue Was Dry.

Have you ever experienced how it feels to be arrested and then sued? We had our first experience last Friday evening and Saturday morning, and we confess that there is something novel about it, to say the least. The ink on the issue of last week had not gotten dry on Friday evening before Harrison W. Vickers, Jr., sent the constable, Mr. Beverley Hyland, into Mr. Bowers' home on Washington avenue and arrested Mr. Bowers on the charge of criminal libel, and demanded that he appear before Police Justice Kendall at eight o'clock to answer the charge of criminal libel, which charge was based upon an editorial in our last Saturday's issue under the heading, "Caught in the Trap." We answered the summons, waived a hearing and gave bail in the sum of $500 for our appearance at court. On Saturday morning Sheriff William H. McKee served notice of a suit for damages, amount not stipulated, against the Transcript Publishing Company by Harrison W. Vickers, Jr., upon Mr. Bowers, Mr. Collins and the members of the company. These are the details in the case which will be docketed for the October term of court. The editorial to which offence seems to have been taken is no doubt familiar to every one. The TRANSCRIPT was in such great demand on Saturday morning that we presume every one has seen it by this time. It would not be good taste for us to discuss the merits of the editorial. It speaks for itself.

We have been expecting something of the kind to happen for some time. Every possible effort has been made to destroy the character and reputation of Mr. Bowers by his political enemies, and we presume that those who are responsible for Mr. Bowers' arrest thought that they could most effectively accomplish their purpose by the mortifying and humiliating spectacle of the sending of an officer to our home to arrest us for an imaginary offence against some one. This is not the first attempt that has been made to intimidate the editors of the TRANSCRIPT, nor do we have an idea that it will be the last. Let a man have the courage of his convictions, let him fight the battle of the people against machine politicians and corrupt political methods, and his enemies will hound him like a vulture seeks its prey. They have done everything now that is possible, but let them understand once for all that they may crucify us in whatsoever manner they may choose, they may hound us, and seek to destroy our character, and mortify us and humiliate us, but we shall fight the battle of the people against what we believe to be wrong, if they send us to the penitentiary. We know we are pursuing the proper course, we know we are right, and if the people will remain steadfast, we will fight their battle till the final victory is won. We have no fear whatever of the result of this matter, nor will we be intimidated for one moment, if that is their game. We shall use every effort at our command to let the people know what our enemies are doing, and we shall fight to the last ditch for what we believe to be right. We shall let the law take its course in this matter, and we shall seek our vindication at the hands of our peers.

Won Five Prizes.—Mr. D. B. Ford won a two-story combination hand-bag, one traveler's toilet set, one traveler's red cross medicine case, a desk clock and calendar and Waterman Fountain Pen. The prizes were offered by the Traveler's Health Association, of Omaha, Neb., for the member who wrote the largest number of acceptable applications during the month of May. Dave was the high man having 20 applications to his credit. This company pays sick benefits.
